LEE ROY THOMAS, JR.
Grand Master, 1988-89

LEE ROY THOMAS, JR.

At the 194th Annual Communication of the Grand Lodge of Ancient, Free and Accepted Masons of North Carolina, Most Worshipful Grand Master Nelson B. Banks appointed L. R. "Pete" Thomas, Jr. of New Bern as Grand Steward and he was duly installed at the Grand Lodge Installation of Officers on April 22, 1981.

Brother Thomas is a native of New Bern, having been born on August 27, 1925, the son of Roy and Effie Gaskins Thomas. He attended the New Bern City Schools and graduated from New Bern High School with the Class of 1942. As a youth, he was very active in the Boy Scouts of America, being a member of Troop 13 and attaining the rank of Eagle Scout. He served his country in the United States Navy during World War II and was occupied in the Pacific Theater. Following his tour of duty in the Navy, he attended Louisburg College and later graduated from the Naval Apprentice School of the Navy Department, United States Marine Corps Air Station, Cherry Point, North Carolina.

Pete is engaged in the construction business and is President of the firm of L. R. Thomas and Sons, Inc., General Contractors, specializing in the construction of commercial buildings and historic restorations. His expertise in the area of historic restoration is widely known and appreciated as evidenced in the many historic restorations he has completed in eastern North Carolina.

His Masonic pilgrimage began in Doric Lodge No. 568, in February of 1960 when he was raised to the sublime degree of Master Mason and in 1962, he was appointed Steward of his Lodge and progressed through the line, serving as Master in 1968. He had the distinction of serving as the first District Education Chairman of the Seventh Masonic District and is a Certified Lecturer. A 32nd Degree Mason of the New Bern Scottish Rite Bodies, he is active in the conferring of the Scottish Rite Degrees. He is also a member of the York Rite Bodies in New Bern.

In 1966, he became a member of Sudan Temple and shortly thereafter became a member of the Sudan Chef Crew. While serving as Assistant Director of this unit, he was appointed Director of Sudan Temple in 1971 by Potentate Donald Bell and served in this position until 1978 when he resigned in order to accept an appointment to the Divan of Sudan Temple, being appointed Outer Guard by Potentate John P. Gore of Durham. During his term of office as Director of Sudan Temple he worked very closely with the Temple's twenty-two Uniformed Units and won the respect and admiration of those with whom he was associated as indicated in the cooperation he received from unit officers and the smooth and efficient manner in which he coordinated unit activities.

Active in all phases of Shrinedom, he is a member of the New Bern Shrine Club and New Bern Court No. 145, Royal Order of Jesters.

Held in high regard in the business community in which he resides, he is currently serving as a Director of the New Bern Savings & Loan Association, the oldest banking institution in Craven County.

Pete is married to the former Jean Williams of Arapahoe, North Carolina, and they reside in Glenburnie Gardens, a suburb of New Bern. Their marriage has been blessed with three children, L. R. III, Steven and Jenny, and two delightful grandsons who have added a new dimension to their lives.

Even though his business is very time consuming and his Masonic activities involve travel and many additional hours, Brother Thomas is an active churchman, always finding time to serve when called upon by his church. He and his wife are members of St. Mary's Free Will Baptist Church of New Bern, where he has served in many capacities, including Chairman of the Church Finance Committee. For the past eleven years he has served as a teacher of the W. B. Everett Men's Bible Class, a position he retains to this day.

Pete Thomas is held in high regard and esteem as a Mason, businessman, a churchman, a husband and father. His appointment to the Grand Lodge Line was accepted with a deep sense of humility and a firm resolve to continue to live the principles of Freemasonry to the very best of his ability and to make a worthwhile contribution to the fraternity that has been an important part of his life for the past twenty-one years.

Mr. Tom Bardin, Chairman, Edgecombe County Commissioners, was introduced. Mr. Bardin welcomed the Grand Lodge to Tarboro.

Dr. Moses Ray, Mayor Pro-Tem of Tarboro was introduced. Dr. Ray cordially welcomed the Grand Lodge and guests to Tarboro, and he made the following remarks:

"To Grand Master Stiles, to other Grand Lodge Officers and members of the North Carolina Masonic Grand Lodge, and to all of our visitors: It is my function here today to extend to you a most cordial welcome as you come to commemorate and to celebrate your 200th birthday.

This year Tarboro might easily be named the Town of Bicentennial Celebrations. Earlier this year, we celebrated the 200th year noting a time in 1787 when the N. C. General Assembly convened here, and later we celebrated, as all other towns and cities, the 200th year of our National Constitution. Today we are no less proud to have you convene here in the place where your great Masonic order was founded 200 years ago.

Certainly, we recognize that you have a great heritage, as exemplified by the many contributions made to our nation by your members.

My function here this afternoon is also to cite to you the historical significance of this place where your monument has been erected. In the year 1760, 27 years before the founding of your lodge, the Town of Tarboro received its charter by legislative act. Included in the act was the authority to set aside 16 acres of land known as the Town Common. We stand today on part of the Common. The Tarboro Town Common is the second oldest Town Common in the nation, preceded only by the Boston Common in Boston, Massachusetts.

Ladies and gentlemen, the citizens of Tarboro consider this Common, hallowed and holy ground; however, we have not quite reached the point of requiring one to take off one's shoes before treading hereon.

Therefore, it is fitting that the Masonic Grand Lodge of North Carolina establish in this place a monument which conveys a message and will continue to convey a message to those who pass this way in future years. I trust that it will be a symbol of permanence and strength to our state and community, for this monument, we all know, represents more than meets the eye.

So then, as you come to reaffirm yourselves to those principles known to you, it is my hope that your stay will be pleasant and productive. Once again, on behalf of the Town Government and the citizens of Tarboro, it is a pleasure to greet you."

The Grand Master then conducted the ceremony of dedication and consecration.

W. Brother Grover W. Edwards, Jr., Past Master of Morning Star Lodge No. 85, carried the Three Great Lights. (The Bible carried by Brother Edwards was the Bible used at the formation of the Grand Lodge in 1787.)

Most Worshipful Brother Eddie P. Stiles, Grand Master, delivered the oration for the occasion. (A copy of the oration is attached to and made a part of these minutes.)

Worshipful Brother Tommy Jones, Assistant Grand Chaplain, pronounced the Benediction.

The Grand Master then delivered the following address of welcome:

Two hundred years ago in the City of Tarboro twenty-two delegates representing nine lodges organized the Grand Lodge of North Carolina. To commemorate that event and in celebration of our BICENTENNIAL, we welcome each of you to this EMERGENT (and Special) COMMUNICATION of our Grand Lodge. The Bicentennial Committee which began preparations for this Celebration seven years ago felt that this significant milestone in our history deserved more than a passing reference at our Annual Communication. For that reason, we are met in Special Assembly on the Saturday nearest the date of our Anniversary to "reflect on our beginnings, to observe the progress that we have made over the years . . ." and to provide each of us the opportunity to rededicate ourselves to the purposes of Freemasonry. And then to set individual as well as corporate goals for the future. We hope that the act of celebrating our history will renew and revitalize your PRIDE in Masonic Membership; Pride through Personal relationships; Pride through excellence in Ritual; Pride as expressed in your Investments in Masonic and Charitable endeavors . . . your time, your energy, your talents, and your wealth; Pride in your Dedication to the principles and philosophy of Freemasonry and Pride through Encouragement, encouragement of each other is his Masonic life.

Most Worshipful Grand Master, Grand Commander Kleinknecht, Governor Martin, Judge Sentelle, Distinguished East, My Dear Brethren:

To be the Grand Orator and to speak about our Masonic heritage on this occasion is for me a most happy privilege. The research for it has been exciting, and has led me to a closer examination of North Carolina's part in framing the Constitution of the United States of America. Several of our North Carolina delegates to the Constitutional Convention had a special identification with the formation of our Grand Lodge. I could speak all morning, but our leader has spared you by restricting my time. Suffice it to say, I'll see you again in April 1988!

For now, on our 200th Anniversary, it is appropriate to examine our distinguished past. Hopefully, from this great heritage, we shall draw strength and inspiration for our labors in the next century.

Freemasonry in Colonial North Carolina could hardly be characterized as a vigorous movement until there appeared in our midst at Halifax a dynamic political leader, Brother Joseph Montfort. A charter member of Royal White Hart Lodge, its Master a year later, he was appointed as "Provincial Grand Master of and for America"¹ by the Duke of Beaufort, the Grand Master of England. In the four years before his untimely death at the beginning of the Revolutionary War, he "... chartered more lodges in North Carolina than had been formed in all the years preceding."²

From the time of Brother Montfort's death in 1776 to the surrender of Lord Cornwallis at Yorktown in 1781, lodges in North Carolina became increasingly inactive. Even when the victorious soldier-Masons came home, activities in local lodges were substandard to that of the Montfort years; no effort to reestablish the Grand Lodge, and no new lodges formed. Freemasonry in North Carolina was stalled as was the national government under the Articles of Confederation.³ Patriots began to dream of a better form of government for the new nation, and some North Carolina Masons began to dream of a Grand Lodge with a new leader to replace the late Provincial Grand Master.

This Masonic dream was first discussed during a meeting of the North Carolina General Assembly at Fayetteville on November 18, 1786. "At informal discussions between the sessions of the legislature, the question of forming a Grand Lodge was raised and the support of the idea was enthusiastic."⁴ Among those present were Henry Montfort (son of Joseph), Governor Richard Caswell and former Governor Alexander Martin, all members of the Craft. I suspect those three alone would have created a bit of enthusiasm.

Early the next year, Brother Alexander Martin was a visitor at Union (now Phoenix) Lodge, Fayetteville, when positive but unsuccessful action was initiated to select a Grand Master. Too few lodges were represented and the business was postponed. Saint John's Lodge of New Bern was requested to issue another invitation for delegates of all regularly constituted lodges of the State to meet on December 9th, 1787, at Tarboro, to elect a Grand Master.⁵ New Bern was the largest city in North Carolina, but Tarboro was nearer the center of the population. The Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of North Carolina was officially established on December 12, 1787, when a draft constitution was presented by Governor Caswell, approved by the Convention members, and the Grand Officers, elected two days earlier, were duly installed. Brother Samuel Johnston of Royal Edwin Lodge, Windsor, was by proxy installed as Grand Master. Eight days later he became the Governor of North Carolina. Governor Richard Caswell was installed as Deputy Grand Master. Two years later he would become the first Grand Master to die in office. The Tarboro Convention satisfied the dream for a Grand Lodge, but what about the dream for better government?

North Carolina was the fourth largest state in population, her people were fiercely independent; were champions of states rights and individual liberties. Her delegates to the Constitutional Convention at Philadelphia were truly representative. Among the five delegates were Alexander Martin and a brilliant 31-year-old attorney, William Richardson Davie. In Masonic history we know him as the father of the University of North Carolina, and the Grand Master installed by proxy only one year after being raised to the sublimed degree of Master Mason. His contribution to our U. S. Constitution is equally noteworthy.

When the Constitutional Convention was deadlocked by a 5-5 vote on equal representation in the Senate, large states vs small ones, it was Colonel William R. Davie who influenced the North Carolina delegation to change its position, and break the tie by voting with the smaller states for equal representation. Many historians claim this act kept the Constitutional Convention alive and created an atmosphere for ultimate success.⁶

They were less successful in influencing ratification of the Constitution when they returned to North Carolina. Two State Conventions were necessary to be held for the purpose of ratification: an unsuccessful one at Hillsboro in the summer of 1788, and a successful one at Fayetteville in November, 1789. The Grand Lodge met at Hillsboro just prior to the first Convention, and it met again at Fayetteville concurrently with the second Convention. Brother Johnston presided over both conventions and both Grand Lodge meetings at Hillsboro and at Fayetteville. But the favorable vote on the ratification could well be ascribed to William Davie. His writings on the subject, published after the first Convention, had a profound influence on bringing about the second Convention and on its delegates.

Three Grand Masters led a new surge of Freemasonry in North Carolina from a beginning at Tarboro until 1800: Johnston, Caswell, and William R. Davie. Indeed, the names of the Grand Lodge Officers of that period were a Who's Who in North Carolina. Over the ensuing 200 years, they have been followed by generations of able men, and thousands of unnamed ones of equal stature, who gave freely of themselves for all the correct reasons: individual liberties, religious freedom, the sovereignty of the people, and respect for law and order rather than anarchy. Such is our rich Masonic heritage, integrated with the history of our State and that of our Nation, inseparable!

Brethren, there sit among us today, near me here in the East, and elsewhere out there among you, equally talented, dedicated leaders with the same potentials that I have described for our predecessors. I pray that the Grand Orator in the Year 2087 will report that we have kept the faith of our forefathers; that we have preserved the tenets of Freemasonry; that we have successfully defended the Constitution for a free society; and that we have served the cause of humanity in a manner acceptable to our Heavenly Father. Happy 200th Anniversary!

The Grand Master introduced Brother David B. Sentelle, Judge, United States Circuit Court of Appeals, who delivered the following address:

Thank you very much, Thank you, Grand Master, Sovereign Grand Inspector General, Honorable Governor Martin.

Before I begin the remarks I intended to make, I reflected when Governor Martin entered that on many occasions he and I have had opportunity to speak to groups and public gatherings, some Masonic, most political. But only once before that I recall did we ever both speak in the Tiled Lodge on the same occasion. Jim, do you remember what that was? *

When Jim was made a Mason in Charlotte, North Carolina when he was initiated an entered apprentice, I gave the charge to him and two other entered apprentices on the first degree. A charge that I think he's carried out well if you remember the instructions given in that charge. I'm proud to have done that and I'm proud to be with him today.

And I'm proud to be with this group of Freemasons and I'm proud to be a Mason.

On the occasion of this bicentennial, I take special pride in being invited to meet and share with my brethren the story that you just heard the gist of. It's a long story but one that I will shorten because of the constraints of time so that those of you who have heard it all before may rest assured that I won't speak as long this time as you may have heard me the other times.

As you know, I was nominated and finally selected to fill the seat of Justice Anthony Scalia on the United States Circuit Court of Appeals for the District of Columbia circuit. Now normally that would not seem to be a topic of Masonic interest. Indeed I would once have thought that had no Masonic significance at all except for the fact that the teachings of our order and the examples of the great Masons of history, like George Washington, the two Roosevelts, Gerald Ford. Those examples have instructed us in how to conduct ourselves in public as well as private lives.

I would have thought that was the only Masonic significance to my appointment. However, because my fitness to serve in that office was questioned based on my Masonic membership, I think you as Masons have a right to know and that I have a duty to share at least a little bit on the story that I would call "On Senate Confirmations of Men and Masons."

It began in the spring of 1986. At that time I had been a United States District Judge for just about seven months. I was called by a member of the Administration in Washington and informed of the death of Skelly Wright, the Judge in the United States Circuit Court of Appeals. I thought that was interesting, but I thought to myself surely they don't pay somebody on the Assistant Attorney General's salary to call every federal judge in the country when one of us dies. It's no wonder we are in debt heavily if that's the way they do the salaries.

Yet another reason as the story unfolded that created one vacancy on the D.C. Circuit, there was soon to be another; they didn't tell me why. The why was Scalia's elevation to the Supreme Court, I found that out within two days. And they asked me if I would be at all interested in going to Washington to fill one of those seats on the D.C. Circuit.

Well, it was an extreme honor and it was something that caused me an awful lot of thought. A lot of things went through my mind in a very short time. The Circuit Courts of Appeals are the second highest courts in the United States standing only below the Supreme Court. The D.C. Circuit in particular is the most prestigious of those courts. It is often called the Number Two court in the land.

During my career, by that time, three judges of that court had been nominated for the Supreme Court. Since that time two more have been nominated; however, sadly in at least one case not confirmed.

In any event, appointment to that court, it's not the Supreme Court, but you can see the Supreme Court from there. It's a once in a lifetime opportunity. On the other hand, the District Judgeship that I was holding at that time was a position I had wanted all my career literally even before I was an attorney. I had greatly admired my predecessors in that District Judgeship, conspicuously the late Wilson Warlick, our brother from the Lodge in Newton, who held that position for nearly three decades. That position is a lifetime appointment. So is the one in Washington. The District Judgeship, however, meant a lifetime of living in my homeland of the southern Appalachian mountains around Asheville, North Carolina. Now we had spent 15 years away from Asheville, no offense to Charlotte, Jim. It's a great city, but we had been glad to get back home expecting to spend the rest of our lives. I mean no denigration to Brother Baker, wherever you are out there, to the City of Washington, D.C., but it wasn't home. Asheville was.

Moving to Washington was an expensive proposition. Of course, it meant a raise in pay and certainly a raise in prestige and prospects and the highest honor that Civil Government had ever offered to me. Weighing all of these things in my mind I took the kind of definitive action you would hope for from a Federal Judge, I said "maybe."

Following that I went to Washington to discuss the matter with various Administration officials and I expressed my misgivings and my lack of certainty. And one Deputy Assistant Attorney General was taking notes and she seemed to be paying no attention to my misgivings. She finally looked up at me and she said, "If the President asks you to take it, you'll take it." And she was right. The day came several weeks later when I got a call from the President of the United States.

Now I don't know how you react when the President calls you, but my first reaction was it was delicious moment when the lady on the line said, "Judge Sentelle?" I had answered the phone myself and I said, "Yes." And she said "The President is Calling. Should I put him on?" and for that one delicious moment I wanted to say, "No. I'm on a coffee break. I'll call him back." Instead, while I was holding for the President to come on I yelled to one of my law clerks to get on the line. I wanted a witness to that.

He did offer it and I did accept. And what happens next is that the ABA, the FBI, and the Senate Committee all do investigations on your background. Well, the ABA rates the persons that they investigate, and they give the person an unqualified rating in which case the nomination is either withdrawn or defeated. That's not official but it always happens. Or they give a qualified rating. Or occasionally they give a well-qualified rating. And I would say in rare, rare instances they give exceptionally well-qualified, and by the way Bob Bork got that for the D.C. Circuit and then was rejected for the Supreme Court. I'm proud to say they once again rated me well-qualified. So the Administration said there should be no difficulty with my confirmation, and that I should go to the hearing and probably very few Senators would even bother to attend. I did not need any witnesses. It would be very routine. I would take my family, enjoy a day or two in Washington, and I would be confirmed.

That's not exactly the way it happened. They were right about the first part. Only two Senators bothered to show up — Senator Leahy from Vermont, he was Chairing the meeting; and our Brother Senator Strom Thurmond from South Carolina.

Now as to what happened next, I am going to read to you a little bit about what the Wall Street Journal reported on me.

During the hearings on the Judge nominated to succeed Anthony Scalia on the D.C. Circuit Court, Senator Leahy asked Judge David Sentelle if he planned to resign from a club that discriminated against blacks. Judge Sentelle hadn't expected this sort of controversy. There was none in 1985 when he was made a Federal District Court Judge in North Carolina. The ABA rated him well-qualified. Only Senators Leahy and Thurmond bothered to show up for the early April hearing. Senator Leahy began by urging Judge Sentelle's wife and daughters not to miss the Cherry Blossoms. He told the Judge that by all accounts that I have read you served with a great deal of distinction in your home state. Then came the kicker. Senator Leahy asked if Judge Sentelle belonged to any organizations that discriminate against members of minority groups. "Not to my knowledge," Judge Sentelle replied. Senator Leahy noted that Judge Sentelle was a Mason. He charged that according to his information, Masons must be male, white and believe in a Supreme Being. Judge Sentelle protested that there are black Masons. Senator Leahy stood his ground. "Do you feel that a Judge should be allowed to hold membership in an organization that discriminates on the basis of race." Judge Sentelle allowed that they shouldn't. The Code of Judicial Conduct prohibits invidious discrimination which Judge Sentelle said proscribes fraternal groups that discriminate by race.

I explained to Senator Leahy, and I'm now interrupting Wall Street Journal because they couldn't report all 47 pages of the dialogue. The Senator at that point asked me the following question and I will quote from the Congressional Record: "If your nomination is confirmed, do you plan to maintain your membership in these Masonic organizations?" At that moment if I had told the Senator that I did not intend to maintain my membership in Excelsior 261, in this Grand Lodge, in the Bodies of the Scottish Rite, and in the Temple of the Shrine, I would have been saying not only that I had been doing something wrong to hold two different Judgeships four years, something wrong as a man and Mason, I would have been saying to Judge Wilson Warwick, Chief Justice Earl Warren, Justice Potter Stewart, and the grand tradition of the hundreds of Masons who bear judgeships in this country have been doing something wrong by their affiliation with an order that teaches nothing more invidious than friendship, morality and brotherly love. I would have been abandoning and repudiating the principles that led my father, my brothers, my grandfathers, my uncles, all to be brothers of this fraternity. I would have been reflecting on the character of every Jim Martin, Senator Jesse Helms, Senator Strom Thurmond, and all the other hundreds of men and Masons who have served this country since its founding, men whom I admire and in whose path I am proud to walk. It was then that I stated my intention to remain a Mason.

There was a little more arguing back and forth between myself and Senator Leahy, and then it became Senator Thurmond's turn. I don't know if any of you know Senator Thurmond personally or not, but I'm sure you've seen him at least on television. I'm not sure I can do justice to what he said, but he was sitting there getting redder and redder during the course of Senator Leahy's remarks. His premature orange hair was beginning to stand on end.

Senator Thurmond said to me, "There are several hundred thousands of Masons in this country, are there not?" And I said, "Yes sir, Senator." And he said, "Do you know of a Mason that has been accused of discrimination just because he joined the Masons?" And I said, "Not to my knowledge. Not before today." And the Senator said, "I've been a Mason since 1925. I am proud to be a Mason." And I said, "I am too, Senator." He said, "The Masons believe in the Supreme Being. They believe in God, and the teachings of that order are of very high principle." He said, "In 1985 you were confirmed and this question was not even raised, was it?" And I said, "That is correct. The question was never raised in the 1985..." And then Senator Thurmond couldn't wait for me to finish my sentence. He said, "I've never heard it raised before. In the 32 years I've been in the Senate I've never heard the question raised or even asked about the Masons. Any person who thinks the Masons are discriminatory are just off base. They do not know what they are doing."

Well, that was the tenor of things at that moment. As things developed then Senator Leahy blocked the Senate vote on my confirmation for the next few weeks as presiding officer of that committee. Interestingly enough, during that period of time a Knight of Columbus and non-white Mason were approved by the committee without any holdup and without any questions about their affiliations.

But after Senator Leahy allowed my nomination to come to a vote and it cleared the committee, and again interestingly enough Senator Leahy did not cast a vote against me. It passed unanimously in the committee and went to the Senate floor.

At that point then Senator Simon of Illinois placed his hold on my nomination saying that that hold was placed in order to give him time to inquire of the ABA as to whether or not my membership in the Masons constituted invidious discrimination extending the American Bar Association's standards for judicial nominees.

About four weeks went by and there was no response received by the Administration from the American Bar Association. So they inquired of the ABA, "Why haven't you responded to Senator Simon's letter." And they said, "What letter?" They contacted Simon's staff and they said, "Oh yeah, we forgot to mail that."

The ABA by express mail sent back a response that read in part: "As you know the American Bar Association has already approved Judge Sentelle as well qualified for the Federal Judiciary first on August 5, 1985 in connection with his nomination to the U.S. District Court and most recently on February 3, 1987 in connection with his nomination to the U.S. Court of Appeals. Our committee is not in a position nor would it wish to comment further on his qualifications."

In the meantime, had I not been proud to be a Mason before, and I was imminently proud before, I became prouder than ever. The Masons and officers of the Grand Lodge of North Carolina stood behind and pushed my nomination like the members of the family that all of you are. I heard from Masons from West Virginia, from South Carolina, from Vermont, and as far away as Colorado expressing their support for my position and their pride in Freemasons. And so might I add did Senator Byrd, Senate Majority Leader and our brother who heard from Masons in West Virginia in particular.

Now during that period of time, Blair Gormany writing in the Washington Times, and Blair Gormany is not a Mason, but he had to point out that Judge Sentelle and the fraternal order of nine signers of the Declaration of Independence, thirteen signers of the Constitution, fifteen Presidents including Washington, both Roosevelts, Truman, and Gerald Ford are now under siege by an odd duck in a bow tie.

By mid-June after the ABA communication and after the Knights of Columbus Grand Officers of Illinois had spoken out against Senator Simon's stand, he withdrew his hold.

The federal hold was placed for reasons not related to me or Freemasonry but as the result of a political war between Senators, so I was not confirmed until September. But then I was confirmed with unanimous vote of all present. And after that confirmation, Senator Robert Byrd, Senator Jesse Helms, Senator Alan Sims and Senator Strom Thurmond all stood in the well of the Senate and spoke to the question of Freemasonry and their pride in being part of a tradition that has founded this country, that has staffed the judiciary, that has filled State Houses of the Congress and Senate and the State Legislatures. And as I came down from the gallery after that confirmation, all four of those men together, with our Brother Robert Dole, met me and exchanged recognition. Robert Dole can't shake hands the way the rest of us do because he lost the use of his right arm in the service of this country, and I filled again with pride that day to be part of the path that has been walked by these men and all those whom they followed.

I have become more of a celebrity than I thought perhaps I ever wanted to be. This process of holding my nomination up because of my Freemasonry has caused some people to think of me as a martyr, or a hostage, or a hero; and I don't think of myself that way at all.

Whatever had happened in that confirmation procedure, I don't think I had any choice but to take the stand that I took.

I told some of you before that I believe that God lets your daddy and your uncles watch certain things, and I didn't want the thought of God having to close the eyes of my father and my family so that they wouldn't see me being ashamed of what they had been. I'd like to think of God letting them see the pride that the son and the nephew can take in the grandson in following the tradition established and carried on through centuries by my ancestors and your ancestors that bare down to the craft.

I wanted to know that I could leave that Senate Hearing and get up the next morning and look in the mirror and shave without having to turn my eyes away from my own eyes. And I had rather be able to go in there and shave the same man and the same Mason, and I would rather be able to come in here and meet on the level with my brethren than hold court in any courthouse in this land. AND I'M PROUD TO BE A MASON!

Thank you very much.

The Grand Master then introduced Brother James G. Martin, Governor of North Carolina, who delivered the following address:

Most Worshipful Grand Master, Sovereign Grand Inspector General, Brother Masons All:

Just think of it: 200 years of Ancient, Free and Accepted Masonry under the Grand Lodge of North Carolina! What a wonderful thought!

That in the 200th year of the Constitution establishing an enduring federal republic of these United States of America, we would also celebrate the 200th anniversary of the founding of the Grand Lodge to unite us through the enduring principles of Freemasonry, what a glorious thought!

Upon so many occasions, we have reminded one another of the close interrelationship between the early establishment of Freemasonry and the movement for liberty that led to the American Revolution. So many brother Masons were great patriots and leaders of our State and Nation. Often we have recounted their heroic stand for freedom that also found expression in the cause of advancing and upholding our Masonic principles:

Masons everywhere rejoice with pride at the accomplishments of those among us, but, I think, never more so than when a brother stands firm when challenged upon his devotion to this Order and to its principles, as was Brother David Sentelle. In each generation, there must be heroes to rekindle by their example the dedication that must glow in the hearts of all of us. We salute you sir, truly, Your Honor, for having added nobility to that appellation. You are indeed "well qualified" to be a man. You have been a good example to those non-Masons, who must consider for themselves whether to become Masons of their own free will and accord. And you've made us all proud to be Masons.

Your obligation now is to continue, as with all of us, the work to which we are called as Masons. For Masonry is built upon the many daily exertions of all: whether tending the stewardship of the rituals, properties and records; or visiting the brother in his infirmity or his widow or his family; or strengthening his own family; or contributing to the great charities to which we bind ourselves; or in any way meeting the obligations we have taken upon ourselves, of our own free will and accord. For such an Order to endure for hundreds of years is a great and marvelous tribute to all who founded it in ancient days, who have kept it free by their steadfast determination, and to all who have accepted its principles in our daily lives. We celebrate not just two hundred years. We celebrate all those who have given dignity and honor, and charity and friendship, and brotherly love without which we should not have endured.

We mark the constancy of the Grand Lodge and all its officers down through two centuries of devotion. We salute you, and those who have gone before you. Yet we rejoice in our confidence that we have reached no conclusion, no ending. A bicentennial celebration is not our goal. It is not the winning score. It is more like reaching the 10-year stake, the "line-to-gain," so that we might continue our march toward the future.

As we complete this great celebration, as we enjoy the rest and refreshment of this day, let us then rededicate ourselves to the labors before us. Let us resolve to honor and support the Grand Lodge of North Carolina. Let us resolve deeply to support and maintain our Blue Lodge. For it was there that each was raised upon the Third Degree of Masonry. And it is only through our loyalty to that altar and shrine that we will gain the next hundred years, and the next. Surely, this day of celebration must have greater meaning as a day of rededication for us all. I AM PROUD TO BE A MASON.

PRESENTATION OF JOSEPH MONTFORT MEDAL

The Grand Master, with appropriate remarks, presented the Joseph Montfort Medal for distinguished service to:

DAVID BRYAN SENTELLE

Excelsior Lodge No. 261

Judge, United States Circuit Court of Appeals

Illustrious Fred Kleinknecht, Grand Commander, presented a Certificate of Honor to Most Worshipful Brother Eddie P.

Stiles, Grand Master, in recognition of his distinguished service on behalf of the Supreme Council of the Ancient and Accepted Scottish Rite, Southern Jurisdiction, United States of America.

The slide presentation "The Presence of Freemasonry in North Carolina" was then presented.

The Ceremony of Consecration and Rededication was then conducted.

GRAND MASTER: In reverence and thanksgiving to the Great Architect of the Universe, the source of wisdom, truth and strength, and in tribute to our Masonic members of the past and present who have wrought nobly and well for the cause of Freemasonry throughout the State of North Carolina, we are gathered here today to consecrate The Grand Lodge of North Carolina and to rededicate our lives to the service of God and our fellowman.

AUDIENCE: Blessed be the name of the Lord, henceforth and forevermore.

GRAND MASTER: For the Brethren through the years who have had the faith and courage to proclaim and defend the fundamental principles of our Masonic doctrines and beliefs;

AUDIENCE: We praise Thee, O Thou Supreme Architect of the Universe.

GRAND MASTER: For those who successfully transferred labor and sacrifice into the founding of this Grand Lodge, consecrated to the Brotherhood of Man and the Fatherhood of God;

AUDIENCE: We thank Thee, O Lord.

GRAND MASTER: For our illustrious Masonic leaders, for those who have achieved eminence in the ranks of Masonry, staunch in their convictions, steadfast in their vision, and never weary of well doing, who sought and received "Further Light in Masonry" and who devoted and who continue to devote, their lives to the furtherance of Masonry;

AUDIENCE: We give thanks to Thee, O God, the Author of their faith.

GRAND MASTER: That we may be so inspired by the light and influence of their dynamic spirit and, seeing their faith, may glorify our Father in Heaven;

AUDIENCE: We beseech Thee, O Lord, our strength and our guide.

GRAND MASTER: Mindful of our solemn obligation to prove worthy of our high Masonic heritage and extend its influence, we humbly pray that God will bless this Grand Lodge and will graciously accept the offering of our talents and energies as we consecrate and dedicate them to His service.

AUDIENCE: Bestow Thy blessing upon us, O merciful Father.

GRAND MASTER: As a testimony to the power of simple faith and sacrificial toil, as a pledge of everlasting gratitude and brotherly love, and as a covenant that we shall, under the direction of the Supreme Architect of the Universe, press forward to new heights of achievement in Masonic fellowship;

AUDIENCE: We consecrate this Grand Lodge and rededicate our lives.

GRAND MASTER: In Thy Service, Thy honor and Thy praise; for earnest prayer and sincere Masonic fellowship; for the spread of brotherly love and truth; for the edification of those who enter into our sacred portals to learn more of faith, hope and charity, and to serve Thee in spirit and in truth; and for all of the Masonic influences which minister to the elevation of mankind;

AUDIENCE: We consecrate this Grand Lodge and rededicate our lives.

GRAND MASTER: For the building of character and the molding of lives by that pattern as set forth in the Holy Writ; for bringing a broader ideal of the Brotherhood of Man as it exists in the Kingdom of God, that they may have eternal life;

AUDIENCE: We consecrate this Grand Lodge and rededicate our lives.

GRAND MASTER: To the glory of the Great Architect of the Universe and to the service of our fellowman;

AUDIENCE: We consecrate this Grand Lodge and rededicate our lives.

GRAND MASTER AND AUDIENCE: As we devotedly consecrate this Grand Lodge, relying on God's infinite mercy and goodness and our faith in unity and spiritual communion and interpreting our rich Masonic heritage as an inspiring challenge to greater work and nobler service, we rededicate ourselves to the fulfillment of the ideal of the Brotherhood of Man in the service of God and to the establishment of His Kingdom on earth. So mote it be. Amen.

The Grand Master announced and reminded the brethren of the Bicentennial Banquet to be held this evening at 7:00 P.M. in the Civic Center, with entertainment being provided by the Jimmy Farr Orchestra and Mike Cross in Concert.

The purpose for which this Emergent Communication having been called, the minutes were read and approved, and the Grand Lodge of closed in AMPLE FORM.

ADDRESS OF THE GRAND ORATOR

(Docket No. 1)

The Grand Master presented W. . Brother H. Lloyd Wilkerson, Grand Orator of the Grand Lodge of North Carolina, who delivered the following oration:

Most Worshipful Grand Master, Distinguished East and Guests, My Brethren:

We continue to celebrate the Bicentennial of our Most Worshipful Grand Lodge and that of the Constitution of the United States of America. Last December we considered the acts of our own North Carolina brethren of 200 years ago, but for now, let us think of the symbol of this great land, Old Glory.

If we land on the moon, capture Iwo Jima, or win an Olympic game, we expect to see Old Glory displayed there in all Her splendor. Patriots of the past have thrilled at the sight of Her; some have sacrificed their lives while carrying Her in battle, and others have courageously and defiantly refused to surrender Her at the demand of our enemies. What makes a people attach such significance to a Flag?

Throughout the recorded history of humanity, man has been animated in battle by symbolism. Whether the symbol was the banners of Sennacherib, the yak-tailed standard of Genghis Khan, or the battle flags of the 24th Wisconsin, the inspirational effect on the soldiers seemed the same. At the sight of their battle symbol, men have unhesitatingly rushed into the jaws of death following their standard bearer; and if he fell, the recklessly brave have picked it up and moved it forward toward the enemy. In the span of a few hours of a single battle, several standard bearers often have made the supreme sacrifice, as was the circumstance in the 24th Wisconsin which I shall later describe.

For ages, soldiers have been taught that the battle standard must not be allowed to touch the Earth; nor may it be captured or surrendered. Commanders, soldiers, ship captains, and sailors have believed from antiquity that their God was on their side, that He was their standard bearer. They have believed that His guardian angel would assist them in battle as surely as the Angel of God smote to death thousands of Assyrians under Sennacherib, causing him to withdraw to Nineveh, thus fulfilling the prophecy of Isaiah and saving Judah. While the likelihood of eminent death has always created a more prayerful soldiery, giving rise to the cliché that there are no atheists in foxholes, the evolution of warfare established a practical use of the battle standard. Identification of friend or foe!

For identification, a Knight wore a coat of arms on his shield, flew a pennant from his lance, or his lady's scarf from his helmet. Warriors who belonged to a lord carried with them a flag with his symbol upon it. As nations were formed, they adopted national flags, and their military organizations were equipped with a national flag and an organizational battle flag. For a thousand years, the battle colors habitually were up front. The religious identification with these battle colors was so strong that the chaplain was required to carry the national flag in the belief that his God would protect the organization. Only since the American Civil War have our battle formations changed from shoulder to shoulder lines led by the colors. But before the age of electronic communications, when visual communications and messengers were the only means of controlling the battlefield on land or sea, the presence of Old Glory had an electrifying effect.

John Paul Jones, Captain of the USS Ranger, displayed Old Glory on that vessel on the 4th of July, 1777, to celebrate the first anniversary of the Declaration of Independence.

Captain Jones was enamored with the fact that "On June 14, 1777, Congress passed the following resolution:

Resolved, That the Flag of the Thirteen United States of America be Thirteen Stripes, Alternate Red and White; that THE UNION be Thirteen Stars in a Blue Field: Representing a NEW Constellation.

Resolved, that CAPTAIN JOHN PAUL JONES be Appointed to Command the Ship RANGER."¹

Jones set the standard of loyalty to Old Glory for all times when he said "That flag and I are twins; born the same hour from same womb of destiny. We cannot be parted in life or in death. So long as we can float, we shall float together. If we must sink, we shall go down as one!"² Yet when he later captured HMS Serapis and boarded her as his ship USS Bon Homme Richard sank alongside with scores of American dead on deck, he ceremoniously allowed the American Flag to accompany them to their watery grave. It was the same Old Glory that had been handmade and presented to him by ladies at Portsmouth, New Hampshire, to hoist on USS Ranger on July 4, 1777. During the battle with Serapis it had been shot from its mast, dragged through the waters, finally retrieved and again hoisted on Bon Homme Richard. He reported that "the very last vestige mortal eyes ever saw of Bon Homme Richard was the defiant waving of her unconquered and unstricken flag as she went down. And, as I had given them the good old ship for their sepulchre, I now bequeathed to my immortal dead the flag they had so desperately defended for their windingsheet!"³ Only by having the captured prize Serapis did this gallant sea captain escape fulfilling the age old navy tradition of the captain going down with his ship. Heroes of land warfare are better observed and their acts more often recorded, not filed in the mysterious realm of the deep.

As the American Civil War was the last of our wars in which the soldiers fought in drill formations, the heroic charge of the 24th Wisconsin at Missionary Ridge best describes the mystic of the Stars and Stripes to soldiers. Confederate forces defended Missionary Ridge in a series of three successive lines of emplacements up the rugged, rocky, ravine-cut mountain. The Union forces with the 24th Wisconsin near the center had been ordered to capture the first line of Confederate defenses and wait for instructions. This mission was accomplished, but the devastating fire from other emplacements up higher were untenable. The situation was desperate. Would this division again be mauled by the Confederates as it had been at Chicamauga? From his headquarters on Orchard Knoll, General Grant could observe the Ridge and watch the action.

Spontaneously the attack moved forward without orders from any authority. It was led by the colors of the 24th Wisconsin with the adjutant, Captain Arthur MacArthur, in charge of the color sergeant and two color guards. In rapid succession the color bearer and the two guards took their turns only to be killed, but the adjutant, yelling "On Wisconsin," personally carried the flag to the crest of the mountain. The men surged upward. They would not be denied the top of the mountain and victory! The wounded and battle scarred Captain MacArthur received for this heroic deed the Medal of Honor, and the unanimous vote of members of the 24th Wisconsin for brevet to rank of Major. He later became the youngest colonel in the Army at nineteen, commanding the 24th Wisconsin, and retired at age 64 as a Lieutenant General. At the 50th reunion of the 24th Wisconsin on September 5, 1912, at Milwaukee, Arthur MacArthur died while addressing 90 of his comrades about their Civil War campaigns. "The adjutant . . . took from the wall the battle-torn flag that he had so gallantly carried and wrapped it around the General."⁴

These acts of heroism connected with our Flag, one at sea and the other on land, become even more exciting to us when we remember that both John Paul Jones and Arthur MacArthur were distinguished Freemasons as well as national heroes.

What makes people attach such significance to a Flag? I believe that we are the unwitting heirs of the symbolism evolved over the centuries by people who cared about the cause of humanity. To me, my Flag is more than a representation of the Thirteen Original States and those that have subsequently joined the Union. Old Glory is a symbol which represents all of the hopes, aspirations, and idealisms that are contained in the Pledge of Allegiance, the Declaration of Independence, the Constitution, the bylaws and charters of all of our institutions; lofty hopes that perhaps are unattainable by group actions, but are appropriate targets for our best efforts.

I am proud that there is no established state religion, because all of us, whatever our religious commitment, may pray that our God will protect our Flag, the symbol of our culture. And as we have been so well taught, the actions we take today will have more influence on generations to come than on ourselves. May we unselfishly practice our lofty precepts in our contemporary decisions so that our children are not enslaved by the culture we bequeath to them.

I am proud to be a part of Freemasonry, a fraternity which opens its deliberations with a prayer to God, and immediately pledges allegiance to the greatest banner which waves over land and sea, and on the moon: OLD GLORY. May God bless and keep Her!

REPORT OF THE AUDITOR

(Docket No. 4)

The following report of Brother David Scobie, Certified Public Accountant, Auditor, was presented, entered on the record and referred to the Committee on Finance:

To the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of North Carolina:

I have examined the balance sheet of The Grand Lodge of A. F. & A. M. of North Carolina as of December 31, 1987 and 1986, and the related statements of support and revenue, expenses, capital additions and changes in fund balances and of changes in financial position for the years then ended. My examination was made in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards and, accordingly, included such tests of the accounting records and such other auditing procedures as I considered necessary in the circumstances.

In my opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly the financial position of The Grand Lodge of A. F. & A. M. of North Carolina as of December 31, 1987 and 1986, and the results of its operations and changes in financial position for the year then ended, in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles applied on a basis consistent with that of the preceding year.

My examinations were made for the purpose of forming an opinion on the basic financial statements taken as a whole. The accompanying schedule of support and revenue, expenses, capital additions and changes in fund balance—general fund, by sub-fund, is presented for purposes of additional analysis and is not a required part of the basic financial statements. Such information has not been subjected to the auditing procedures applied in the examination of the basic financial statements and, accordingly, I express no opinion on it.

Respectfully submitted,
DAVID E. SCOBIE
Grand Lodge Accountant

SUPERINTENDENT'S REPORT MASONIC AND EASTERN STAR HOME OF NORTH CAROLINA, INC.

(Docket No. 9)

The following report of Brother Tommy L. Jones, Superintendent of the Masonic and Eastern Star Home, Inc., was presented and entered on the record:

To the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of North Carolina:

With pride, humility and gratitude, I submit to the Grand Lodge the 73rd Annual Superintendent's Report. With pride because of the numbers of elderly cared for daily, with humility because of the sicknesses, confusions and the numbers who have gone on to the "great beyond" and with gratitude because the Grand Lodge and the Supreme Architect have allowed me to complete seven years in a type of work I have learned to respect and love.

My report will consist mainly of three parts: (A) Care of the residents (B) Condition of the buildings and grounds, and (C) The status of the employees. I will close with some appreciation remarks. As in previous years, the Board of Directors will report on the financial status of the Home.

A. Care of the Residents

Although we are already into the fourth month of 1988, this Report is for the year of 1987. For clarification and also to save words, I have chosen to use charts to illustrate the numbers cared for and the age distribution.

Total Population Statistics — 1987

	Men	Women	Total
Total Number Residents (1-1-87)	35	154	189
Admissions	5	17	22
Deaths	6	18	24
Withdrawals	1	0	1
Census (12-31-87)	33	153	186

Average age of 22 residents admitted—78

Average age of 24 residents who expired—83

Residents recommended by Lodges—133

Residents recommended by Eastern Star Chapters—55

Total Age Distribution of Residents (12-31-87)

Age	Men	Women	Total
60-64	0	2	2
65-69	3	8	11
70-74	5	20	25
75-79	3	24	27
80-84	11	45	56
85-90	8	40	48

91-95	2	10	12
96-100	1	4	5
TOTALS	33	153	186

Average age - 83

The emphasis of the Home has always been and continues to be first, to admit as many elderly Sisters and Brothers as space permits and second, to provide the best quality care possible for each during the remaining years of life. Unlike some of the other homes around the state, our Home is obligated to each resident for the duration of life. The state recognizes this obligation and thus licenses the Home as a Life Care Center.

As soon as a room becomes vacant in any of the residential buildings, it is cleaned, repaired and painted. An applicant on the waiting list is called immediately and when all arrangements can be made, the room is occupied. Our waiting list continues to grow and as I write these words there are ninety-six persons who continue to wait. Of these ninety-six, there are eight who have been on the waiting list close to three years.

Through the donations and efforts of many individuals, our Eye Clinic was established and the first residents to have their eyes examined inside the Home began in September 1987. In addition to our physician, Dr. Norman Garrett (seventeen years), and our inhouse Pharmacist, we now have the services of an ophthalmologist, a dermatologist and a dentist. All of these consultants come to the home and provide care. With the exceptions of repairing broken bones, surgery, and urinary tract care, all of which must be done in local hospitals, the Home has nearly become self-sufficient in providing all other care.

Below are two small charts which help illustrate the magnitude of the care given in 1987.

Care Center Statistics

Patient Care Days	Admitted to Care Center	Disch. from Care Center	Avg. Daily Census	Admitted To Hospital	Discharged Hospital
23,874	117	88	66	27	27

Dietary Statistics

Food Costs	Plate Count	Avg. Number Daily Meals	Non-Food Costs
$155,138.34	202,134/365 days	554	$26,808.11

B. Condition of Buildings and Grounds

Along with the Care Center, there are four large residential buildings on the campus. The Latham Building is forty years old, the Setzer Building is twenty-six years old, the Bennette Building is twenty years old and the Linville Building is thirteen years old. Our Chapel has been in service for forty-seven years. The ceaseless aging and daily use of our buildings are sources for constant deterioration. A few years ago, the Board recognized and decided that our oldest buildings, namely Latham, Setzer, and Bennette, needed major repair and modernization. Accordingly, in 1985, the Latham Building was renovated. All the old window air conditioners and radiators were removed and central heating and air conditioning were installed in each room. The ceilings were lowered, new fluorescent lights were installed, all windows were tightened with storm windows, the rooms were painted and the floors were carpeted. As a result, our oldest residential building became bright and cheery. Our residents who reside in Latham were and still are extremely happy with our new, yet charming old building.

Although we did not have any major capital improvements in 1987, we began our major renovation on the Setzer Building in February 1988. When you read this report at Grand Lodge, the work will have been completed. The same improvements made on the Latham Building in 1985 have been duplicated for the Setzer Building. Sometime in the near future, our third oldest and our largest building, Bennette, will have the same reconditioning.

As I write these words, we are all anticipating the major construction of the new wing of our Care Center. The Care Center is eighteen years old and it also needs to be modernized as well as enlarged. Keeping pace with the Home's reputation of having one of the finest health centers for the elderly in the state necessitates immediate construction. Although our attention will be focused on this project for the next few years, one must realize and understand that we cannot shut our eyes to the constant needs and repairs of the other buildings and the care of the grounds.

I am going to list, in no particular order, major improvements and repairs made during the 1987 year.

1. Flood lights and landscaping were added around the entry wall.
2. The air conditioner compressor on the roof of the solarium was replaced.
3. The kitchen was air conditioned.
4. Fluorescent overhead light fixtures were installed in all the rooms of the Care Center.
5. The fence on the left side of the entrance facing Holden Road was lowered.
6. The air conditioner chiller motor in the Care Center was rewound.
7. The motor for the Latham elevator had to have major repairs.
8. The compressor for the chiller in Linville Building was replaced.
9. The Pharmacy in the Care Center was moved to a larger room.
10. Both boilers were cleaned and inspected by the insurance company.
11. The old foundations above ground adjacent to the apartments were removed and the ground reseeded.
12. The Eye Clinic room was completely renovated.

C. Status of the Employees

No report would be complete without commenting on the dedication and work ethic of our employees. A truism is that any organization or company is only as good or great as its employees. This holds true for the Masonic and Eastern Star Home.

At present time there are 126 employees. Many of these are part-time employees and some are consultants. When one realizes that thirty-seven of our employees have been with us seven or more years, he can understand why we have a strong employee foundation and a continuity of our care programs. In time of emergencies, such as we suffer each winter from large snows, dedication and love are demonstrated when some employees remain at the Home to provide attention from twelve to twenty-four hour periods.

I cannot list in this space every employee to whom I owe a debt of gratitude, but I must commend the Assistant Administrator, the five Departmental Supervisors, the three office employees, and the Business Manager for their daily dependability and for their overall knowledge of their chosen fields. It seems with each succeeding year my Home duty of Lodge, Eastern Star Chapter and other Fraternal visitations are increasing and my days away from the Home grounds are more numerous. Just the knowledge and peace of mind that all assignments at the Home are being carried out and completed is much to be so thankful for. The loyalty of our employees, not to me, but to the residents of the Home, is a trait all of the Masons throughout the state can be proud of.

In closing, I want to sincerely thank Grand Master Stiles, the Grand Line Officers, and the Board of Directors for their support and sympathetic understanding of the work being done daily for our elderly Sisters and Brothers here in Greensboro. As I have said on other occasions, it would be nearly impossible to carry on each day with the many demands without having this support. For it I am truly grateful.

I again want to pledge to each Mason my loyalty and dedication to both the Grand Lodge and the Masonic and Eastern Star Home. With the divine guidance and help of the Supreme Architect, I look forward to the future.

Respectfully submitted,
TOMMY L. JONES
Superintendent

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS OF THE MASONIC AND EASTERN STAR HOME OF NORTH CAROLINA, INC.

(Docket No. 10)

The following report of the Board of Directors of the Masonic and Eastern Star Home was presented and entered on the record:

To the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of North Carolina:

This report will outline briefly the organization of the Board, the number of applicants approved and disapproved, new recommendations and actions, a comparison of the 1986 and 1987 finances and some appreciation remarks.

Many Brothers do not know or understand the makeup of the Board and how it functions. A few statements will help clarify this perplexity. Of the twenty Board Members, there are twelve Masons and eight Eastern Stars. The Masons serve for three year terms and the Eastern Stars for five year terms. At each Grand Lodge Annual Communication in April, three Masons leave the Board and three are elected. At each Grand Chapter, O.E.S. Annual Communication in June, one Eastern Star leaves the Board and one is elected. In both cases, the departing Board Member(s) is required to remain at least one year off the Board before he/she can be re-elected.

The Board met in February, May, August, and November 1987. These were the regular meetings as required by the By-Laws of the Home. There were not any called special meetings. Each Board Meeting was well attended and only a few members were absent. Every Mason should be cognizant of the fact that each Board member gives of his/her time freely while serving. Only mileage and expenses are reimbursed.

Forty-two applicants for the Home were approved and two were disapproved in 1987. The Board concluded that the two who were disapproved were not able to care for themselves without assistance. It needs to be stated in this report that the Board is adhering to the guidelines for eligibility to the Home as near as possible. It also needs to be stated in order to clear up a misunderstanding that our Care Center is open only to the residents in the Home and to those approved applicants on the waiting list. The Board remains concerned about the lengthening waiting list and about those who have waited three years or more.

Major recommendations and actions by the Board in 1987 were:

1. A certified insurance appraisal of the Home's property was made.
2. The kitchen was air-conditioned.
3. The minimum wage scale for all employees was raised to $4.00 per hour.
4. A cabinet for housing the Grand Chapter O.E.S. artifacts in the main entrance of the Linville Building was approved.

5. The renovation of the Setzer Building was approved.

Some Masons from time to time have said they do not understand the finances of the Home because they never receive any information. For the past seven years the Board's Annual Report to the Grand Lodge has reported and made a comparison between the present and previous year's income and expenses. This report becomes a part of the Proceedings which are mailed to each Secretary of the 394 Lodges. Any interested Mason can go to the Lodge Secretary and find the financial status of the Home. The Board deems it necessary and important for each Mason to have accessibility to these facts.

Below are tables showing a comparison of the Total Operating Income and Expenses for the years of 1986 and 1987.

TOTAL OPERATING INCOME

Source	1986	1987
Income from Residents	$ 747,876	$ 746,433

Cost Per Resident Each Day	39.06	40.71
Average Contribution Per Resident Per Year	4,452	4,443
Average Contribution Per Resident Per Day	12.19	12.17

From the chart, several facts are apparent:

1. Income from the residents decreased slightly in 1987.
2. Income increased from the Blue Lodges, the Grand Lodge, The Masonic Foundation, and The Grand Chapter, O.E.S.
3. Expenses for all departments increased with the exception of Maintenance, and for the first time the Care Center expenses have gone over the one million mark.
4. The residents contributed about one-third of their operating expenses.

We wish to thank each Mason, Eastern Star, and friend who has contributed in any way to the welfare of our elderly Sisters and Brothers. We realize and are extremely appreciative that through the course of the year, many have contributed financially, sent cards, visited with the residents and planned outings and numerous events. Special thanks go to every Lodge, Home Committee and Mason who helped increase the Blue Lodge contributions nine percent over the previous year. Special thanks also go to the following Appendant Bodies — the Winston-Salem Scottish Rite, the Associa tion of Capitular Masons, the Gastonia York Rite Bodies, the Goldsboro York Rite Bodies and the Grand York Rite Bodies — each remembered the Home during the 1987 year with a monetary gift.

We have kept in touch with the Home and its affairs. We feel 1987 was another good year in providing more and better care to our elderly Sisters and Brothers. Moreover, the buildings and grounds are in good repair. We are anxiously anticipating our new addition to the Care Center as we enter into the 76th year of continuous operation. We sincerely feel with great pride the Masonic and Eastern Star Home continues in the spirit of Freemasonry to provide care for those in their sunset years who cannot wholly care for themselves.

We wish to express our gratefulness to Brothers Earle Purser, Charlie Scott, and Frank Noble who have served with distinction for the past three years as Board Members. Words cannot express our indebtedness to our Grand Master, Dr. Eddie Stiles, who in the midst of a busy schedule, has found time to Chair the Board and give us the leadership and inspiration needed for the Home's affairs. To each of these Brothers we wish Godspeed with the fond hope they shall serve on the Board again.

Finally, we want to commend and acknowledge the Superintendent, the Assistant Administrator and the fine staff of capable employees for their dedication and love for the Home. We are aware that in the final sense, the awesome responsibilities and success of the Home rests in their hands. Each is a tribute to Freemasonry.

Respectfully submitted,
BOARD OF DIRECTORS
MASONIC AND EASTERN STAR HOME, INC.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON THE MASONIC AND EASTERN STAR HOME

(Docket No. 11)

The following report of the Committee on the Masonic and Eastern Star Home was read and entered on the record:

To the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of North Carolina:

In accordance with Regulation 38-16 of THE CODE of the Grand Lodge of North Carolina, this Committee made its annual inspection and evaluation of the Masonic and Eastern Star Home on February 3, 1988. Members present were Lester P. Martin, Jack Dossett, and Dewey Crutchfield.

At noon, the Committee met and had lunch in the resident dining hall with Superintendent Tommy Jones, Assistant Administrator, Ella Payne, and Business Manager, David Ford. Following lunch, we toured the facility and informally interviewed several residents of the Home.

In the dining and kitchen area we found everything to be in good condition. We noted a Grade "A" certificate with a 98% rating posted. Also, we observed the newly installed air conditioning system in the kitchen area. Plans are now being made to acquire new dining room chairs and tables.

In the Chapel, we observed everything freshly cleaned and painted. A handsome Baldwin organ has been installed; thanks to the generosity of Ann M. Kennedy in memory of William Wallace Kennedy.

In the corridor connecting the Setzer Building with the dining room, new mini blinds have been added.

The Setzer Building is undergoing major renovations at this time. The ceiling is being lowered in the halls and central heat and air conditioning is being installed. Each room will have its individual controls. Also new lighting is being installed.

In the Care Unit, the Committee was especially impressed with its cleanliness and complete lack of unpleasant odors. We inspected the new Eye Clinic and the State of the Art equipment installed therein. The clinic is appropriately named in honor of Dr. Norman Garrett, Jr., longtime Medical Director.

Also in the Care Center, we observed new fluorescent lights and in the basement, we inspected the new instant hot water heater which has solved a longtime problem.

After talking with several residents and members of the staff, we are of the opinion that morale is good and the residents are happy and well cared for.

Also, we appreciate the fine manner in which the Board of Directors is operating our facility and the excellent management practices of Tommy Jones and the staff.

Respectfully submitted,
L. P. MARTIN, Chairman

REPORT OF THE SUPERINTENDENT OF OXFORD ORPHANAGE

(Docket No. 12)

The following report of the Superintendent of Oxford Orphanage was read and entered on the record:

To the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of North Carolina:

The children, staff, and community of Oxford have had a successful year. It has truly been heartwarming for those of us who live on this campus to enjoy the positive remarks made about the children of the Orphanage. When children must come to the Orphanage, the community at large opens up for them. This includes the Granville County Public Schools, community businesses and professions, and community services.

In 1987, we averaged 184 students. This is down from the 200 average of 1986. We must and can do more to make our communities aware of the services provided to the children at the Orphanage. In so doing, our daily census can again rise to a more appropriate level. By allowing those responsible for the care of children, or for making decisions with regard to children moving into out-of-home care, to become aware of our program increases the choices available to parents and guardians in terms of to whom they entrust their youngsters. Remember, questions may be answered by your members of the Oxford Orphanage Committee or you may call directly to the Orphanage and speak with our Director of Admissions, Brother Donald Sizemore.

I am pleased to report that in 1987 we had thirty-three Districts showing an increase in contributions over 1986. Of the 394 lodges, 206 increased their contributions or at least gave the same amount as in 1986. The state-wide per capita dropped slightly by 16¢ for a new year's per-capita of $7.82. We are most pleased that there were 107 lodges which reached the $10.00 or over per capita giving. Fifteen (15) Districts also reached the $10.00 or more per capita. It is my strong desire that I will be able to again provide the information which will encourage the Craft to continue their program of financial support to Oxford Orphanage. A strong desire should be to meet OR EXCEED last year's goal.

Oxford Orphanage students attending the Granville County Public Schools continue to do well overall. Children in need of remedial education receive special services both at school and through the use of tutors on our campus. Extra-curricular activities at school are available to all Orphanage children and a large number participate in these programs. Our senior class members will graduate on June 10, 1988. Of the eleven seniors, eight plan to continue their education beyond high school.

Religious activities on campus are varied, unusual, and interesting. A large number of guests including Christian recording artists share their faith and testimonies with our Orphanage family on a regular basis. Our music program offers the children an extended summer music camp for every child as well as the opportunity to participate in the choir program. Seasonal and holiday themes allow the children to observe the special days of the Christian calendar. Annual events such as Vacation Bible School and the talent show are eagerly anticipated by the children every year.

In the area of athletics and recreation, the 1987 year has been exciting for both students and staff. Our boy's varsity soccer team ended their season with a 14-5-1 record and state championship honors. Our junior varsity soccer team ended their season with a 6-1-5 record and a first place finish in the conference. Our basketball teams are doing very well. Through the month of December our boy's varsity team had an 11-2 record and was recognized among the top ten teams in the 1-A sector of private schools.

We are looking forward to the use of our new swimming pool. The new facility will provide a much safer environment for the children and also allow them more opportunity to swim because of the additional surface. Our tennis court has been resurfaced and work continues to be done to improve the Creasy K. Proctor Recreation Center.

This has been the first year of management of the Print Shop under Mr. Chris Foster. The Printing Department now operates with a total staff of eight full-time and one part-time along with the fourteen students who are assigned to the Print Shop for vocational work experience. Four of these students are working on a multi-year student annual. "The Log" has always had most of the production performed by the students. No new commercial accounts were added this year which brought about the desired emphasis on Masonic related printing. Masonic related printing now constitutes 63% of our effort rather than the 35% of 1986.

Many goals and improvements have been set and met during this year with regard to our nursing care and the Infirmary site. A full-time staff position was added to assist the nurse on duty with the care of the inpatients, and to help with the many trips which must be made each day to schools, appointments, and health related businesses. A new system of record keeping on the children's health records has been implemented. Plans are underway to increase our bedspace by two additional wards. A new washing area has been set up and the kitchen has been remodeled. The entire Infirmary has been cleaned and polished up. We, at times, have had an overflow of inpatients because of flu, but fortunately this does not happen often.

This was also a very productive year for the farm and dairy operations. Our milk production for 1987 was 3,000 lbs. higher than the previous year, which was the highest production ever. Several animals were purchased during the year to replace some older cows. Our one big disappointment this year was the three to one ratio of bull calves to heifer calves. For the 7th year in a row, the Dairy was awarded the Progressive Breeders Award from the National Holstein Association. This is longer than any other North Carolina Dairy for which Mr. Duckworth and his boys take great pride.

This was also a very good crop year for planting and harvesting. We had ample supply of good silage and hay, fresh vegetables from our garden with some left to be frozen. Soil was moved to fill in washed areas preparing the fields for next year's crops. Cutting grass, pruning shrubbery and hedges, seeding bare spots, and removing leaves kept the farm crew busy. Our new nursery got off to a good start through the planting of willow oak seedlings, red maple and white flowering dogwood seedlings. In the Spring of 1988, flowering pears and crepe myrtles will be added.

In the area of maintenance, most of the work has revolved around painting and remodeling of the cottages and the home of the Superintendent. The work at the boy's cottages is taking more time than at first thought due to wear and tear on the buildings and age. The building of the pump house and the shower house has been completed in order that they will be ready when the new swimming pool is opened. Routine calls around the campus for repair work and electrical work, carpentry and window replacement have kept the Maintenance Department busy.

Our Dietary Department continues to serve excellent meals for the staff and children. With the purchase of a much needed refrigerated salad bar, the children and staff have been able to enjoy various make-your-own salads, different types of dressings, cottage cheese, and a variety of vegetables. The salad bar is very popular with us all. Groups continue to provide lunches and dinners for the children and staff. When the lodges come prepared to make a meal for us all it is really a treat. We also continue to receive donated foods for which we are truly thankful and many items are used for snacks for the children. A plan is being developed now in order that we can systematically replace worn out kitchen equipment and renew the dining hall with new chairs.

In our Clothing Department there is a continuous routine of mending, repairing, altering and remodeling. We continue to make good use of donated used clothing of both personal and industrial type. Approximately 40% of the clothing for the children comes from donations. Although we attempt to do our best in keeping the students in "style," there are times when the fashion becomes more than we can allow. We are looking forward to getting away from the worn/torn appearances, which seem quite acceptable in the movies and on T.V. but not so acceptable at the Orphanage. We continue to stress cleanliness and keep "fashion" under control.

On behalf of our children and staff I wish to express our gratitude to Most Worshipful Brother Eddie P. Stiles for his leadership; and devotion to our children; to our Board of Directors for their time and effort to make our Orphanage a better place; to Brothers Danny Rice, William B. Bellois and D. D. Phillips, Jr., our retiring members of the Board; and to all the Masons, friends of Oxford Orphanage, business and civic groups and benefactors who have again contributed to the welfare of the children.

Respectfully submitted,

Superintendent

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS OF OXFORD ORPHANAGE, INC.

(Docket No. 13)

The following report of the Board of Directors of Oxford Orphanage, Incorporated, was presented and entered on the record:

To the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of North Carolina:

The Board of Directors held its regular quarterly meetings in the months of February, May, August and November on the Oxford Orphanage campus. The meetings were all well attended, and as has been the custom, reports were received in advance from the Department Heads, Business Manager, and Superintendent regarding the financial standing and operations of the Orphanage.

The auditors have reported on the financial condition of the institution and provided data on all receipts, income and legacies received.

At the completion of the calendar year 1987, Orphanage enrollment was 169, of which 62 were girls and 107 were boys. We encourage the Craft to be aware of the needs of children in your areas and visit with your Oxford Orphanage Committee members about youngsters who may need out-of-home care. We will always be available to boys and girls of North Carolina who need security, a healthy environment in which to grow, and a good education.

Through the efforts of Assistant Superintendent, Pat Cox, our Dean of Students, and staff counselors, we have been able to maintain close communications with the Granville County Public Schools. This ability to communicate has proven to be a great benefit to the children as well as to our staff who assist them in their learning efforts. As before, the majority of our children are in a regular classroom program, but others are enrolled in specialized classrooms which are geared to their needs and are designed to help them overcome learning difficulties.

St. John's Day 1987, although damp from the rain, was very successful. Our attendance dropped some but considering the rain we believe it was most successful. The parade was enjoyed and the City of Oxford opened up for all the visiting Masons, their families and friends. Brother Lloyd Young, whose efforts make St. John's Day such a pleasure, is again commended for a fine job this year. The Nobles of the Shrine always contribute heavily to make this day memorable.

Masonic donations for 1987 reached $556,059.72, which is down slightly to the 1986 total of $575,144.20. We are pleased with this giving success overall because it demonstrates that many of the brethren have set goals and have met or surpassed those goals. We are able to continue to do the much needed building repair work on the cottages and other campus buildings while underwriting the fine child care program which began in 1873.

Many improvements have been made which affect the general appearance of the campus. Exterior painting of the cottages enhance the appearance of the circle drive and the grounds keeping the tree trimming provide both color and excellent shade. Children and staff spirit is high as both interact well within the community of Oxford.

We encourage the brethren, their families and friends to visit the campus. The living experience received by the children during their years of care at the Orphanage can only truly become apparent through personal visitation.

It has been a pleasure to serve the Craft in our capacity as members of the Board of Directors of Oxford Orphanage.

Respectfully submitted,
BOARD OF DIRECTORS OF THE

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON OXFORD ORPHANAGE

(Docket No. 14)

The following report of the Committee on Oxford Orphanage, Inc., was presented and entered on the record:

To the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of North Carolina:

In accordance with Regulation 38-17 of THE CODE, your Committee on Oxford Orphanage met on February 20, 1988, in the Administrative Building at the Orphanage for the annual inspection and evaluation. All members were present except Carl McCracken, who was unable to attend because of illness in the family.

We were warmly received by Brother Pat Cox, Assistant Superintendent, and conducted through the buildings by Brother Brent Stewart, the Dean of Students, and Brother Robert Fergurson, former Maintenance Supervisor and life-long resident of the Orphanage. These men were most helpful and cooperative in answering our questions and describing improvements and repairs underway and those recently completed.

The Administrative Building, offices, Infirmary, restrooms and conference room are in good condition, clean and orderly, except for some missing tiles in the kitchen, and treads on the stairs leading to the storage area needing replacement. These facilities are well maintained and in good repair.

The freezer and cold storage equipment is adequate, clean and well cared for. The downstairs storage area, shoe store and clothing rooms are clean, neat and in good condition.

We visited each cottage, talked with the children and counselors, inspected the bedrooms, baths, kitchens and were impressed with the cleanliness and orderliness of the cottages and also the competence and positive attitudes of the staff. Several minor repairs are needed to gutters, porch tiles, light fixtures, shower valves, etc. These were noted and turned over to the Maintenance Department to be completed at their earliest convenience.

Smoke detectors in all cottages are kept in good working condition, inspected monthly, and afford protection for the residents. However, the Committee recommends that fire protection equipment for the structures be improved.

Shelves are needed in the baths and partitions in the toilet area need to be repaired or replaced. Mr. Stewart advised that repair to the partitions is already in process.

Extensive repair is being made by the Maintenance Department to the upstairs hall in the Flowers cottage. Sheetrock has already been installed. The doors have been filled, sanded and are ready for repainting.

The interior of the York Rite Chapel is in excellent condition, as well as the sidewalk and roof. The only repair needed at this time is to have the front columns sanded and repainted.

The gym, athletic equipment and facilities are in good condition, the game room is adequate, except that some of the video games are inoperable and outdated. Since these games were donated, it is probable that other Masons would donate newer games to the Orphanage.

Renovation and repair to the Masters cottage is complete, and this cottage is in excellent condition.

Each cottage has a library complete with encyclopedia and other reference books to aid the students in their studies. Television is not allowed after 10:00 p.m. on school nights.

The Farm and Dairy operation continue to be a source of pride to all of us and your Committee wishes to commend those responsible for its operation.

A new swimming pool was constructed last year but never utilized to its potential because of cracks and leaks in the floor. The builder has been contacted, and repairs are in the process at this time. However, it is not likely that cosmetic application of mortar to large cracks is going to make the pool serviceable. Final payment is being withheld until the construction has been satisfactorily completed. This should be done before the summer.

The removal of trees and dead branches have improved the safety and appearance of the campus.

We observed much evidence of the good relations among the children, the lunchroom staff, counselors and the Dean of Students.

A hearty thank you is extended to Superintendent Moul and his staff for the outstanding job they are doing in caring for our children. We are most fortunate to have men and women of such dedication and ability.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON UNFINISHED BUSINESS

(Docket No. 16)

The following report of the Committee on Unfinished Business was received, entered on the record, and referred to the Committee on Masonic Jurisprudence:

To the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of North Carolina:

Amend THE CODE by adding a new regulation as follows:

REG. 95-48. A subordinate lodge desiring to conduct fund-raising activities for Masonic Charity may do so if the activity is one of the following; provided that the activity is conducted over a period of no more than three days and is conducted no more often than semi-annually and providing the lodge keeps careful financial records of the project and shall protect itself against general and special liabilities. (Reg. 85-01; 33-01 (3, P).

(A) The sale of food or food products.

(B) The sale of prepriced goods, providing the marketing of such items shall not be perceived as a discredit to Masonry.

(C) The sale of items by AUCTION.

Either substantially all of the work performed by or on behalf of the Lodge in preparing, delivering or selling food or goods shall be performed by members of the Lodge or others on a volunteer basis without compensation or substantially all of the food or goods sold must be received by the Lodge as gifts or contributions. •

(1) A subordinate lodge desiring to conduct any other fund-raising activity shall first submit an application detailing the planned project and its purpose to the Grand Lodge Committee on Subordinate Lodge Special Activities and must receive its approval before undertaking the said project. [Reg. 36 A-04 (3)]

(2) A subordinate lodge conducting any of the above projects without obtaining prior approval when required or in a manner other than allowed by this regulation or who shall divert funds for other than the stated purpose, shall be required to show cause why its charter should not be arrested.

(3) A subordinate lodge conducting any fund-raising activity shall file a financial report on that project within sixty days after its completion with the office of the Grand Secretary and the Grand Lodge Committee on Subordinate Lodge Special Activities. The Lodge shall report the type of project and the purpose for which it was conducted, funds to be accounted for and its distribution of income.

Amend REG. 33-01 (3) by adding a new sub-section "P".

P. Subordinate Lodge Special Activities Committee. (Chapter 36-A).

CHAPTER 36-A

COMMITTEE ON SUBORDINATE LODGE SPECIAL ACTIVITIES

REG. 36 A-01. The Committee on Subordinate Lodge Special Activities shall consist of three members to be nominated by the Board of General Purposes and elected by the Grand Lodge as follows: [33-01 (3P); 33-07; 33-17].

1. Each member of the committee shall be a Past Master of a subordinate lodge in this jurisdiction well versed in the law of this Grand Lodge and in the usages and customs of the Craft and shall be experienced in handling business matters pertaining to subordinate lodges.

2. The first members elected to the committee shall serve as follows: One for three years, one for two years and one for one year; at each annual communication the Board of General Purposes shall nominate one qualified Brother to serve for three years. The Committee shall elect its chairman.

3. In the event of a vacancy on the committee by death or for any other cause the Grand Master shall fill the vacancy by appointment for the unexpired term.

REG. 36 A-02. The committee shall meet upon call of the Grand Master or Chairman and its business may be transacted by correspondence.

REG. 36 A-03. A quorum shall consist of two members.

REG. 36 A-04. The duties, powers, and authority of the Subordinate Lodge Special Activities Committee shall be:

1. To investigate any matter, subject or thing pertaining to fund-raising activities by subordinate lodges. Such investigation may be made by one or more members of the committee, but the report should be made by at least a majority of the committee.

2. To adopt from time to time such rules as may be necessary to govern fund-raising activities as provided in Reg. 95-48 (2).

3. To report to the Grand Master and to the Grand Lodge all the facts pertinent to any inquiry or investigation with recommendations as the committee may deem proper.

4. To consider and act upon all applications of lodges or brethren in connection with or relating to fund-raising activities as provided in Reg. 95-48 (2).

5. To call for and examine any record, book, or account of any subordinate lodge in this jurisdiction which may be the object of or within the scope of its investigation; to order and require the attendance of any Masonic witness, as may be necessary or advisable to the proper discharge of its duties. All the powers and authority set forth in this paragraph are to be exercised under the direction of the Grand Master.

REG. 36 A-05. The members of the committee shall be reimbursed by the Grand Lodge for any reasonable expense incurred in the performance of their duties, but no member shall receive compensation for his services (Reg. 33-13).

Amend Reg. 49-03 (11) to read as follows:

REG. 49-03 (11). The holding or sponsoring by a lodge of lotteries, raffles, games of chance, gambling, or any activity which would discredit Masonry, is prohibited notwithstanding the proceeds may be contributed to charitable objects. [49-04 (1); 97-02 (31, 34)].

Amend Reg. 49-03 (16) to read as follows:

REG. 49-03 (16). No lodge shall permit the use of its hall or meeting place or other rooms or space in the same building over which it has control to be used for lotteries, raffles, gambling, games of chance, dances, card parties, or for any purpose which would discredit Masonry. [97-02 (34)].

Amend Reg. 97-02 (34) to read as follows:

REG. 97-02 (34). To use or allow the use of lodge room for lotteries, raffles, games of chance, card parties, dances, gambling, or other purposes which would discredit Masonry or would be a violation of Regulation 49-03 (16). [49-03 (11)].

Amend Reg. 97.01 by adding Paragraph 6 to read as follows:

REG. 97.01.

6. This chapter covers both individual brethren and Masonic bodies in this jurisdiction; and the so-called collateral bodies or other organizations in North Carolina whose membership is dependent upon or related to Masonic membership or which are likely to be regarded as Masonic organizations in the public mind as well as individual Masons, within the Jurisdiction of the Grand Lodge, are enjoined and required to respect the purposes of this regulation.

(NOTE: If the above proposed amendment is adopted similar wording, in bold type, in Reg. 97-02 (31) becomes automatically deleted.)

Amend Reg. 97-02 (31) to read as follows:

REG. 97-02 (31). To conduct, promote, participate in, profit by, aid or assist, in the name of or in behalf of Masonry, in any lottery, game of chance, raffle, or other gaming device, or any activity by any name, whether or not permitted by public authority. This subdivision covers both individual brethren and Masonic bodies in this jurisdiction; and the so-called collateral bodies or other organizations in North Carolina whose membership is dependent upon or related to Masonic membership or which are likely to be regarded as Masonic organizations in the public mind as well as individual Masons, within the Jurisdiction of the Grand Lodge, are enjoined and required to respect the purposes of this regulation. In addition to the power and authority contained in Chapter 66 of THE CODE, the Grand Master shall have the authority to direct the Judge Advocate to institute a Masonic Trial against any Master Mason within the Jurisdiction of the Grand Lodge whom he believes, after investigation, to have been or is a party to the promoting of a lottery, a game of chance, or a raffle of any kind or character.

Amend Reg. 60-12 to read as follows:

REG. 60-12. It is a Masonic offense for any Brother or any lodge to issue or be voluntarily a party to the issuing or to the circulation of a chain letter, in the name of or in behalf of Masonry, containing (1) a promise of a personal reward or gain, (2) a threat of any nature, or (3) a solicitation of any kind. Upon conviction of the Brother, the maximum penalty shall be suspension for not less than three years for the first offense; and for any succeeding offense the penalty shall be named by the Trial Commission under the Trial Code. If a lodge be guilty, the penalty shall be a fine of not less than one hundred dollars or the arrest of its charter. [97-02 (51)].

Amend Reg. 22-01 (1) by adding subsection "F" to read as follows:

REG. 22-01 (1). F. When changing any Grand Lodge dues, fees, or assessments.

Amend Reg. 60-05 by deleting the entire regulation and substituting the following to make Reg. 60-05 to read as follows:

REG. 60-05. No member of a lodge in North Carolina shall hold active or regular membership, or the equivalent thereof, in any other lodge, either within or without the state. Dual or plural membership is prohibited. Honorary membership as described in Reg. 89-01 is not prohibited. [83-01; 89-01; 97-02 (42)].

Amend Reg. 83-01 to read as follows:

REG. 83-01. A member of a North Carolina Lodge while retaining such membership shall not hold active or regular membership, or the equivalent thereof, in any other lodge, either within or without the state. Dual or plural membership is prohibited. Honorary membership as described in Reg. 89-01 if permitted. [60-05; 97-02 (49)].

If Regulations 60-05 and 83-01 are adopted, all members holding dual memberships as of the date of the adoption of these two proposed amendments shall be entitled to retain their dual membership but shall not transfer either of the two memberships.

REG. 51-02. A lodge shall hold at least one stated communication each calendar month; except, however, if a quorum of at least of seven (7) members are not present because of inclement weather, or other acts of God, then that stated communication may be cancelled for that month and the Grand Secretary notified of that action; however, it may provide in its by-laws for the omission of any of all stated communications during either or all of the months of June, July and August and those falling on legal holidays except, however, in the event the stated communication, as named in the by-laws of a lodge at which the officers should be elected as required by Regulation 62-01, shall fall on a legal holiday then the lodge shall hold that stated communication on the day following such legal holiday, except Sunday.

Amend Regulation 49-03 (10) as follows: REG. 49-03 (10). OBSOLETE.

Amend Regulation 97-02 (25) as follows: REG. 97-02 (25). OBSOLETE.

Amend Regulation 97-02 (47) as follows: REG. 97-02 (47). OBSOLETE.

Amend Reg. 97-02 (48) to read as follows:

48. To manufacture or sell a Masonic emblem (square and compasses) for use on a commercial vehicle or on business premises; or to use the same thereon. [97-02 (45)].

Respectfully submitted,
ALLEN L. BRUNER, Chairman

RESOLUTION — RE: THE CODE

(Docket No. 17)

The following Resolution relative to The Code was read, entered on the record and referred to the Board of General Purposes:

To the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of North Carolina:

WHEREAS, East Gate Lodge No. 692 recognizes that THE CODE contains ambiguities and duplications, and

WHEREAS, some Regulations are not located in Chapters where one might normally expect to find them, and

WHEREAS, the index needs to be revised to meet the need of those who use THE CODE,

NOW, THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that by adoption of the RESOLUTION, the Grand Lodge directs the Grand Master and his successors to appoint a committee knowledgeable in Masonic Law to systematically review THE CODE and offer proposed amendments that would clarify and simplify THE CODE by:

(a) eliminating ambiguities and unnecessary duplications and

(b) relocating regulations into appropriate Sections or Chapters.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that this Committee is charged with a prime directive to revise the index of THE CODE.

Respectfully submitted,
EAST GATE LODGE NO. 692

(Note: This resolution was adopted. See Docket No. 37, Page 162 of these Proceedings.)

REPORT OF THE REPRESENTATIVE TO THE MASONIC SERVICE ASSOCIATION

(Docket No. 18)

The following report was read and entered on the record. The recommendation that the Grand Lodge continue its membership in MSA was adopted and the matter of finances was referred to the Committee on Finance:

To the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of North Carolina:

The 78th annual meeting of the Masonic Service Association was held in the Stouffer Five Seasons Hotel in Cedar Rapids, Iowa, on Tuesday, February 23, 1988, at 10:15 a.m. The invocation was given by M.:W.:Brother Floyd Hambrick, Jr., Grand Master of Alabama.

M.:W.:Brother Robert A. Hockstad, Chairman of the Executive Commission, gave a very brief report on the progress of the Association and its needs.

M.:W.:Brother Hockstad recognized our retiring Executive Secretary, W.:Brother Stewart M. L. Pollard. Brother Hockstad noted that Stu was always ready to be of assistance, and he would gladly stop whatever he was doing to give of his undivided attention. He advised that it was unbelievable the amount of work Stu has accomplished in the ten years he has served as Executive Secretary of the Masonic Service Association. Brother Pollard is leaving Masonic Service Association, and he will be missed, along with his wife, Peg, who has also served this association with a dedication that is unequalled. Both of them have left their mark that will have its influence for many years to come. "So long Stu and Peg."

Our Director of Hospital Visitation, M.:W.:Brother Thomas R. Dougherty, Past Grand Master, has visited one hundred forty-four Army, Navy, Marine and Veterans Hospitals. With the approval and cooperation of government authorities who recognize the personal services rendered to patients, regardless of race, creed or Masonic affiliation. This is an outstanding contribution to the welfare of service personnel as is evidenced by countless letters on file from Hospital Managers, Doctors, Special Service Officers, and other hospital personnel, commending these labors.

The hospital visitation is an extensive undertaking. It is supported entirely by voluntary contributions from Grand Lodges, local lodges, individual Masons and other Masonic Bodies.

The Association is a member of the Veterans Administration Voluntary Service National Advisory Committee. M. : W. : Thomas R. Dougherty, Director of Hospital Visitation and our representative on the Committee, attends all regular meetings and has frequent conferences with V. A. officials. Membership on this important committee is one of the Associations proudest attainments. In addition to giving a voice in planning veterans activities at a national level, it enables the organization to certify locally chosen representatives for active participation on hospital committees. The Association is happy to do this for all Grand Lodges.

I, therefore, recommend that we continue our membership in this Association, and I also recommend that we continue our usual appropriation to this Association.

Respectfully submitted,
J. EARL WATSON, P.G.M., Representative

REPORT OF THE REPRESENTATIVE TO THE GEORGE WASHINGTON MASONIC NATIONAL MEMORIAL ASSOCIATION

(Docket No. 19)

The following report was read and entered on the record. The recommendation that the Grand Lodge continue its membership was adopted, and the matter of finances referred to the Committee on Finance:

To the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of North Carolina:

The 78th Annual Communication of the George Washington Masonic National Memorial was dedicated to the Constitution Convention that framed our nation's Constitution and to a gentleman from Virginia who well could have been excused if he had not decided to participate. I refer, of course, to our beloved Brother George Washington whose name we hear and who has aptly been described "First in War, First in Peace, and First in the Hearts of his Countrymen."

Brother Washington was partly responsible for the very historical year of 1987 in which our country celebrations were held across the nation, commemorating the Two-hundredth Anniversary of the adoption of our Constitution. Many lodges throughout our various jurisdictions held such celebrations, and it was most fitting, for there was a great Masonic influence shown at all of these meetings.

On a sadder note, I must report to you that our Secretary-Treasurer, W. : Brother Edward J. Gondella will retire as of April 1, 1988, due to health reasons. He will be replaced by Michael J. McLaughlin.

I do not believe that this great Fraternity is destined to vanish from the earth, but it is the duty of all concerned to work harder for the betterment of Masonry.

Our next meeting will be held in Alexandria, Virginia, in February, 1989. Please make plans to visit your Memorial. I recommend that we continue our membership in the Association, and I also recommend that we continue our usual appropriation to the Association.

Respectfully submitted,
J. EARL WATSON, P.G.M., Representative

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS OF THE NORTH CAROLINA MASONIC FOUNDATION, INC.

(Docket No. 25)

The following report of the Board of Directors of the North Carolina Masonic Foundation, Inc. was received, entered on the record, and referred to the Committee on Finance:

To the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of North Carolina:

The Board of the North Carolina Masonic Foundation, Inc., respectfully presents the following balance sheet and statement of revenue, expense and changes in fund balances for which the Foundation is custodian.

At a regular meeting of the Board the following officers were elected: Brother Sam A. Hennis, Jr., President; Brother Charles E. Scott, Vice-President; and Brother W. David Ford, Secretary and Treasurer.

Monthly meetings are held by the Board and the investment portfolio and objectives of the Foundation are reviewed in detail. The investment policy of the Board continues to be safety of principal first and income production second. With this conservation approach the Board was still able to divide $290,000.00 between the Orphanage and Home during 1987.

We are grateful to all who have been a part of the success of the Foundation and would like to solicit from those who have not contributed to please do so as we feel that your Masonic Foundation will ultimately be the salvation for our two homes.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON FRATERNAL CORRESPONDENCE

(Docket No. 26)

The following report of the Committee on Fraternal Correspondence was read, received, entered on the record, and adopted.

To the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of North Carolina:

I have before me a Request from the Gran Logia De Espana (Spain) for recognition.

The Committee on Recognition of the Conference of Grand Masters recommended in 1983 that the Gran Logia De Espana had been legally constituted and were in compliance with all standards prerequisite to fraternal recognition.

During the intervening years, forty-seven Grand Lodges in the United States have extended recognition and, having carefully considered their request and all information pertaining thereto, I recommend that the Grand Lodge A. F. & A. M. of North Carolina extend fraternal recognition to the Gran Logia De Espana and the exchange of Grand Representatives.

REPORT OF THE GRAND HISTORIAN

(Docket No. 27)

The following report of the Grand Historian was read, received, and entered on the record:

To the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of North Carolina:

During the lifetime of the present day North Carolina Mason, no year has been so historically significant Masonically as was 1987. The observance and celebration of the Bicentennial of our Grand Lodge was carried out in masterly fashion; there was no gaudiness employed to artificially highlight the various events; there was instead an accurate and thoughtful portrayal of our splendid past, coupled with a sense of rededication that was climaxed during the special Grand Lodge communication at Raleigh.

The two special meetings, at Tarboro and at Raleigh, were acclaimed by the Masons attending as the very finest in their experience. The meeting at Raleigh, in particular, appeared to draw no adverse criticism whatever; it captured unanimous applause and was adjudged the best possible curtain closer on a year of joy and celebration.

It appears that no great event can escape some accompanying measure of disappointment, and in the case of our Bicentennial year the disappointment was the failure of so many lodges to prepare and submit lodge histories.

We possess excellent records with respect to our Grand Lodge and many of our subordinate lodges, but only when each lodge in this Grand Jurisdiction has compiled and submitted its history will there ever be a complete history of North Carolina Masonry. And it is not too late. Those lodges that failed to submit histories can still do so. But each passing year renders the task more difficult. Records are often lost or destroyed, memories fade, venerable students of Masonry die, and bit by bit our history is lost. Each 1988 Master and Warden is urged to rectify these omissions, to ensure that all lodge histories will be in the possession of the Grand Lodge before another year is past, and that arrangement is made to continue recording lodge history in the years to come.

We have spent 1987 reviewing and admiring our history, and it was important that we should do so. Of even greater importance, though, is creating and recording history to be reviewed — we hope with admiration — by Masons yet to come.

Of what significance would last year's celebration have been had not our Masonic forefathers kept the Masonic faith, extended the Masonic ideals, wrought great deeds? What would there have been to celebrate? We Masons of today owe all our Masonic riches entirely to those hardy Masons that have gone before. Our very honor demands that we do no less for the Masons that are to follow.

During the first century in the life of our Grand Lodge, Masons founded Oxford Orphanage. During the second century, Masons joined with the Eastern Star to found the Masonic and Eastern Star Home. These two great institutions have passed the test of time. They have embraced and lovingly cared for hundreds and hundreds of the abandoned, the destitute, the lonely. They stand today as the very embodiment of the best teachings and practices of our Masonic fraternity. As we are reminded in our Entered Apprentice Degree, the three principal rounds in the ladder to Heaven "are denominated Faith, Hope and Charity. Of these, the greatest is Charity . . ."

What will we Masons of the third century do to emulate the examples of our illustrious forefathers. I don't know, but I am confident we will measure up.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF PUBLICATION OF THE NORTH CAROLINA MASON

(Docket No. 28)

The following report of the Board of Publication of The North Carolina Mason was received, entered on the record and adopted by sections, then adopted as a whole:

To the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of North Carolina:

During the latter part of 1987, our Grand Master appointed Brother John "Rick" Stegall to membership on your Board and we welcome him. Brother Stegall has a background of knowledge that will prove to be invaluable to the Board and the North Carolina Masonic Publication.

The Board of Publications met four times during 1987 (April 21st—Raleigh, June 12th—Raleigh, October 10th—Winston-Salem, and December 4th—Raleigh) to discuss the business at hand and pave the way to publishing twelve monthly issues of The North Carolina Mason during the year 1988.

The main concern of the Board during this year has been to go from four 8 page issues in 1987 to twelve 4 page issues in 1988. At our December meeting, we asked our Grand Master, Deputy Grand Master, Senior Grand Warden, Grand Secretary, Brother Bruce Hunter, Editor, Brother David Ford and Chris Foster to meet with us. After considerable discussion on several issues, ground work was put in place to publish twelve issues of The North Carolina Mason in 1988.

The following 1988 proposed budget was approved by the Board to be presented to the Finance Committee for their recommendation to the Annual Session of Grand Lodge in April:

Printing and Mailing	$ 80,000
Editor's Salary	12,000
Assistant Editor's Salary, if required	4,000
Travel and Administrative Expenses for the
Editor with an additional	2,000
Reserve that could be authorized by the Board	2,000
Contingency Fund	5,000
Total	$105,000

Our thanks to Brother H. Lloyd Wilkerson, who has been a very effective acting Secretary for this entire year.

We appreciate the support that has been given by our Grand Lodge Officers, our Editor, Brother David Ford, Chris Foster and the Board of General Purposes.

We trust that the twelve issues will be read by every Master Mason in our Grand Jurisdiction and several who receive it outside our Grand Jurisdiction.

REPORT OF THE CODE COMMISSION

(Docket No. 29)

The following report of the Code Commission was received and entered on the record:

To the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of North Carolina:

One proposal to amend THE CODE of 1948 as revised and amended in 1977 has been received since the last Annual Communication of the Grand Lodge, which we submit herewith:

REG. 35-A-01. The Grand Lodge of North Carolina hereinafter establishes a Grand Lodge Committee on Masonic Research and Development.

(1) The Committee shall consist of nine members. In addition to the nine members, the Grand Master shall be an ex-officio member of the committee with the right to vote.

(2) The first members to be appointed shall hold office as follows: three members for one year; three members for two years; and three members for three years; at each Annual Communication of the Grand Lodge, the Grand Master shall appoint three qualified brethren each to serve for three years. [33-01 (3,0); 33-07].

REG. 35-A-02. The Committee shall elect its chairman at the first meeting following the Annual Communication of Grand Lodge. The Committee shall elect a Secretary who need not be from its membership but who shall be a member of a subordinate lodge obedient to the Grand Lodge; and if the Secretary is not a member of the Committee, he shall not have a vote. (33-07; 33-16; 33-17).

REG. 35A-03. A quorum of the Committee shall consist of five members. Business shall be transacted only by a majority of its members present at a proper meeting, a quorum being present, and not by correspondence. Travel expenses of the Committee, mileage only, shall be paid by the Grand Lodge, but the members shall not be compensated for their services. (33-16).

REG. 35A-04. Regular meetings of the Committee shall be held at the place and hour designated by the Chairman or Grand Master in each January, March, June and September and as often as necessary upon the call of the Grand Master or the Chairman.

REG. 35A-05. In the event of a vacancy in the Committee by death or for any other cause, the Grand Master shall fill the vacancy by appointment for the unexpired term.

REG. 35A-06. The duties, power, and authority of the Committee shall be as follows:

(1) To investigate and evaluate innovative methods of presenting Masonic Subjects to individuals, lodges and other groups.

(2) To propose, conduct, investigate and evaluate Masonic Research.

(3) To present and critically discuss Research Papers at regional and area meetings under its sponsorship.

- (4) To publish its findings or selected papers.
- (5) To provide a Speakers Bureau for North Carolina Masonic Lodges.
- (6) To provide innovative Leadership Development Workshops or Seminars for officers of subordinate lodges.

REG. 35A-07. The Committee is authorized in its discretion to establish a roster of "subscribing members" who shall be entitled to receive "papers" and/or publications produced by the Committee for an annual fee to be determined by the Committee. Such fees and other revenue obtained from its activities shall support the cost of its publications. Any project requiring funding from the Grand Lodge shall be recommended by the Committee on Finance and approved by the Board of General Purposes or the Grand Lodge.

Amend Reg. 33-01(3,0) by substituting for "On Masonic Education" the words "On Masonic Research and Development," so that it reads:

REG. 33-01(3,0). On Masonic Research and Development. (Chapter 35-A).

REPORT OF THE GRAND MASTER'S COMMITTEE ON MASONIC RESEARCH AND DEVELOPMENT

(Docket No. 30)

The following report of the Grand Master's Committee on Masonic Research and Development was read, received and entered on the record:

To the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of North Carolina:

The Grand Master of Masons in North Carolina, M.:W.:Eddie P. Stiles, appointed the Committee on Masonic Research and Development in May, 1987. The Committee convened in Raleigh on June 11, 1987, at which time it received its official charge and a statement of its duties, powers, and authority. The Committee has subsequently met on September 11, 1987 (Nags Head), January 14, 1988 (Raleigh), and March 10, 1988 (Raleigh).

The major efforts of the Committee have been directed toward the development of a Speakers Bureau, the development of a curriculum for North Carolina Masonic Education, an exploration of visual and media modes for development and lecture purposes, and the formulation of a Leadership Development Program for officers in subordinate lodges. Each of these efforts has resulted in "working draft proposals," and the Committee looks forward with enthusiasm to its future deliberations.

Copies of the Minutes for all Committee meetings have been provided to the Grand Secretary and have likewise been transmitted to M.:W.:Cecil Liverman, P.G.M. and Representative of the Committee to the Board of General Purposes.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON DEMOLAY

(Docket No. 31)

The following report of the Committee on DeMolay was received and entered on the record:

To the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of North Carolina:

In North Carolina this past year, DeMolay had a very exciting term. We initiated approximately 60 members into the 14 active chapters across our State. We saw approximately 150 young men reach the majority age of 21 and become possible candidates for Freemasonry. In this group in particular was the past State Master Counselor of North Carolina, Michael Spencer of Raleigh. He did, indeed, join and was given a Third Degree officiated by the Grand Master and other Grand Lodge officers in Goldsboro, North Carolina. This committee has a report that says approximately 15 young men reaching majority this year joined various lodges across the State.

The International Supreme Council began last year an intensive program to train DeMolay advisors and other Master Masons interested in helping the organization. In this State, approximately 80 individuals have taken part in this program and it is under the direction of Brother Tim Shermer of Raleigh. Individuals who have been certified under this program include such prominent Masons as Most Worshipful Grand Master Eddie Stiles, Sovereign Grand Inspector General Lloyd Wilkerson, York Rite Officers Bill Hudson, John Worrell, Charles Lewis and Grand Lodge Tyler Marvin Wilson.

In Davidson, North Carolina, our State was host to its first International Supreme Council DeMolay Leadership Camp. Approximately 100 young men from five states attended and shared in this learning experience designed to enhance our leaders of tomorrow.

The Executive Officer of North Carolina and International Supreme Council member, John Elmore travelled over 8,000 miles in support of DeMolay and attended many District visits conducted by the Grand Master. In this capacity, the Executive Officer was present and able to answer any questions and inquiries as to new chapters for our jurisdiction. It was through this process that six new chapter kits were distributed, one Letters Temporary was issued and inquiries were made from an additional twelve lodges on DeMolay programs.

The DeMolay held their State Conclave at Mount Olive College near Goldsboro in July. Workshops were conducted by a staff member from the International Supreme Council in Kansas City and the young men participated in various sports activities. The Most Worshipful Grand Master of Masons Eddie Stiles was the guest speaker at the awards banquet which concluded the Conclave. The DeMolay Alumni program in North Carolina was enhanced at this Conclave by the installation of three new Alumni Chapters at Charlotte, Greensboro and Raleigh.

This committee expresses its thanks to all Master Masons in the State for their support and solicits continuing support for existing chapters and future developed chapters.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON NECROLOGY

(Docket No. 32)

The following report of the Committee on Necrology was presented by W. . Brother William E. Fulmer, Chairman, and entered on the record:

To the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of North Carolina:

Once more it is time to pause in the activities of the Grand Lodge of North Carolina and pay tribute to the 1,483 brothers who have been called by the Great Architect of the Universe since we gathered together at our last annual meeting.

There is a feeling of sadness as we realize that as we now meet, many are absent who were with us before. Each year the Grim Reaper invades our lodges and we hear the call from labor to rest. We pause in our deliberations in memory of the many brethren who have joined "the innumerable caravan."

When death invades our circle of friends and brethren we are always saddened. We are saddened because of our loneliness, fears, and uncertainties. We should, however, turn our fears into faith, our sorrow into joy, and our doubt into certainty. The Psalmist has taught us to increase our faith as we view mortality.

Lord, thou hast been our dwelling place in all generations. Before the mountains were brought forth, or ever thou hadst formed the earth and the world, even from everlasting to everlasting, thou art God . . . For a thousand years in thy sight are but as yesterday when it is past, and as a watch in the night . . . So teach us to number our days, that we may apply our hearts unto wisdom . . . O satisfy us early with thy mercy; that we may rejoice and be glad all our days. Psalm 90

We are taught that: the hourglass is an emblem of human life, and to note how swiftly the sands run, and how rapidly our lives are drawing to a close! We cannot without astonishment behold the little particles contained in this machine; how they pass away almost imperceptibly; and yet, to our surprise, in the short space of an hour they are all exhausted. Thus wastes man! Today he puts forth the tender leaves of hope; tomorrow, blossoms and bears his blushing honors thick upon him; the next day comes a frost which nips the shoot; and when he thinks his greatness is still aspiring, he falls like autumn leaves, to enrich our mother earth.

All Masons are aware that it is but a matter of time before life will end. During our Masonic journey we learn to overcome the fear of death. Eventually most of us realize that there is a victory in death. Charles Wallis expressed this profound thought in his poem entitled "The Victors."

*They have triumphed who have died:
They have passed the porches wide,
Leading from the House of Night
To the splendid lawns of light.
They have gone, on that far road
Leading to their new abode,
And from curtained casements we Watch their going wistfully.
They have won, for they have read
The bright secrets of the dead:
And they gain the deep unknown,
Hearing Life's strange undertone.
In the race across the days
They are victors: theirs the praise,
Theirs the glory and the pride —
They have triumphed, having died.*

It is often difficult for us to reach the point that we understand that death is a part of life. It is only through a great deal of maturity and understanding that this insight is gained. The Apostle Paul, even though he loved life with all of its adventure, thrill, challenge, and purpose, finally had a desire to depart and be with his Master. He understood fully he would be far better off when he stated, "For me . . . to die is gain."

The Holy Bible offers consolation to those who remain following the death of loved ones.

For we know that if the earthly house of our tabernacle were dissolved; we have a building from God, a house not made with hands, eternal in the heavens. II Corinthians 5:1

And God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes; and there shall be no more death, neither sorrow, nor crying, neither shall there be any more pain. Revelation 21:4

Wait on the Lord; be of good courage, and He shall strengthen thine heart. Psalm 27:14

In my Father's house there are many mansions; if it were not so, I would have told you. I go to prepare a place for you. And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again and receive you unto myself. John 14: 2, 3

Worshipful Brother Harvey B. Johnson, Grand Chaplain of the Grand Lodge of North Carolina, will now close our memorial service with prayer.

MEMORIAL PRAYER

Loving God! Who has made all and knows all.
Cast thine arm of reassurance around each one who feels the loss of our departed brothers.
Remind us all that things and time are well in Thy care.

Help us to understand that, in the world which you have made, nothing fails and nothing is lost when entrusted to Thee.
There are no failures, only degrees of success.

Guide us through this mortal time as you have guided and directed those to whom, this day, we give special remembrance.
Make our footprints deep enough in the sands of time that those who shall follow can easily see and ably follow.

Keep us as you have kept our departed brothers, so that we may face the coming centuries with memories of the past, knowledge of the present, and hope for the future.

Walk with us in the coming centuries and prepare us to enter into Thy Kingdom which you have made for us, that is eternal in the heavens.
So that you can say, "Enter into the presence of your brothers with great joy and share in the rewards of a faithful servant." AMEN.

CALLED FROM LABOR TO REFRESHMENT

The minutes were read by the Grand Secretary and approved. Prayer was offered by W. Brother Harvey B. Johnson, Grand Chaplain, and the Grand Lodge was called from Labor to Refreshment until 1:30 P.M. on Tuesday, April 19, 1988, in Memorial Auditorium.

FIRST DAY — AFTERNOON SESSION

M.:WM.:Brother Eddie P. Stiles, Grand Master, called the Grand Lodge meeting to order at 1:30 p.m., Tuesday, April 19, 1988.

Brother John Elmore, Executive Officer of DeMolay, introduced David Witherspoon, State Master Counselor, who delivered the following address:

To the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of North Carolina:

Grand Master "Dad" Stiles, Grand Lodge Officers, Supreme Council Member Dad Elmore, local Masters, Senior and Junior Wardens, and all Master Masons of North Carolina Grand Lodge, A. F. & A. M. I am pleased to be able to come before you at your annual Grand Lodge Communication to speak. I know for a fact that I am not as old a person as you are used to seeing in my position. However, I, with the grace of God, help from my parents, and Dad Elmore, have made my term a successful one, so far.

I would like to share with you an article I wrote in my January DeMolay Newsletter. I call it Food For Thought, and I feel it explains how everyone feels, at one time or another in their lifetime.

Food For Thought By David Witherspoon

Recently thought was given to the area do people really care about the previous articles written covering the realms of Commitment and Brotherhood. This generated a concern — was a man just beating the rug in the wind or were thoughts and feelings reaching the hearts and minds of the Brothers of the Order.

Concern in the hearts and minds of men when they attempt to fulfill commitment of brotherhood, is a thought we all ponder from time to time. There is always this concern of how the people around us will react to our actions and expressions. There is also the thought about what is not being done. Why did the Brother not make that phone call? Why did the Brother not allocate the time in his schedule to take care of an item which needed his attention?

Lack of concern, commitment, and brotherhood, in the Order carries over into our everyday lives. We find that a man who does not show concern and discipline in the Order has the same attitude about his job, his family, or personal relationships. This Order of DeMolay and Knighthood is a training ground for all of life itself. Our Founder, the late Frank S. Land, was a wise man when he gave the guidelines of the program. He was giving us a program to live by and live with. These are things which we have learned in our homes. However, that which we learn at home can be improved upon and expanded to elevate us as Brothers to a higher level of standards. Young men and young women can learn and take the concepts of DeMolay into their homes to teach their brothers and sisters, even parents. This area might surprise parents but we can learn from our young people.

There is a real concern today by men and women, about the growing idea to let someone else do it, or walking in, sitting down, and saying in your minds, "entertain me."

Successful people are people who are willing to sacrifice. They sacrifice what they want to do for what they must do. Good case in point is the position of State Master Counselor or Executive Officer. These positions require a great deal of commitment, dedication, and concern. Not everyone will be in these positions. We can however, strive to achieve the merits required for these positions. Even the Grand Master of DeMolay, I am sure would rather at times stay home and watch TV, or spend some time with his wife. However he has

"Concern" for the Order, concern for the young man, and a concern for the Masonic Order. Every man and woman who is honest, will reply if asked, they would rather at times not do certain tasks. Because of concern, commitment, and brotherhood they go about the business of being at the appointed place at the appointed time.

Give some "Concern" to your lives, this Order, and your Brothers.

BE A TRUE DEMOLAY!

After this article was published, I received commentary from DeMolay's and Advisors. Their attitudes toward this article were all very positive.

I and all the people helping me have been encouraging chapters to initiate all the future DeMolay's as soon as possible. This is evident in the statistics I received for February. Gastonia initiated 13 new members for the Order, Greensboro initiated 1, and Wilson initiated 3.

That's a big improvement, but not big enough. I need your help also. If you have a son or grandson, that you feel could benefit from being in DeMolay's, just give myself or Dad Elmore a call and we will put you in touch with the right people.

I challenge you to help us solicit new members, especially, by formation of a new chapter in your area if one is not there. As a Master Mason you have symbols I see on lodge equipment which resemble building tools such as a trowel, square, compass, and level. I assume these are symbols used by you in your lodge work. Because of my assumptions, I feel these are used as a brickmason would use them. So I challenge you to return home, pick up your Masonic tools and put them to good work by helping us build the Cornerstone of the Next Generation! — DeMolay.

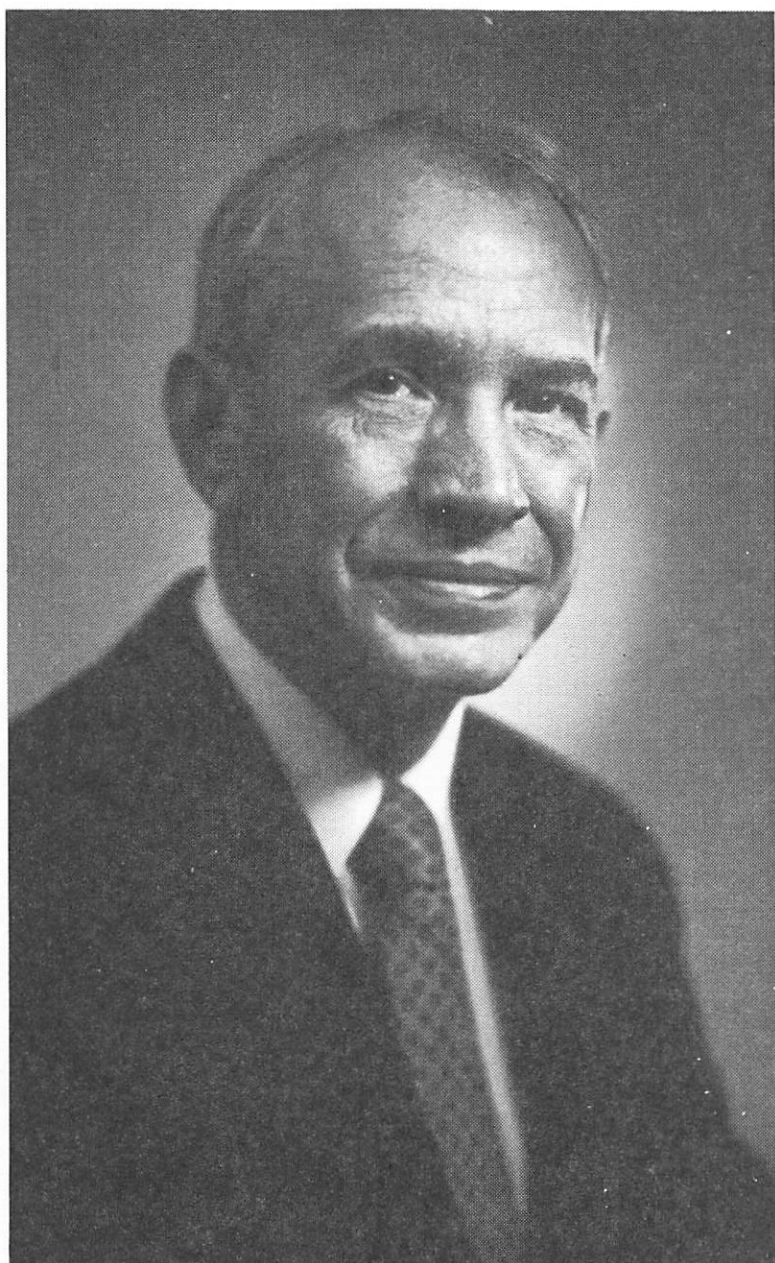

I would like to thank you for the recognition in Masonic newsletters, especially those about our DreamFactory Program. I also would like to thank you for your time and the most generous invitation to appear hear this afternoon.

Also, let us not forget who the Grand Master of the Universe is. And let us put our faith in him.

Thank You

CALLED FROM REFRESHMENT TO LABOR

The Grand Lodge was called from Refreshment to Labor at 2:00 p.m., on Tuesday, April 19, 1988, in Memorial Auditorium, Raleigh, North Carolina, by R.:W.:Brother L. R. Thomas, Jr., Deputy Grand Master. Prayer was offered by W.:Brother Harvey B. Johnson, Grand Chaplain.

REPORT OF THE GRAND MASTER

(Docket No. 33)

M.:W.:Eddie P. Stiles, Grand Master of Masons in North Carolina, delivered the following report, which was referred to the Board of General Purposes. (See Page 152, Docket No. 34 of these Proceedings for distribution of this report.)

To the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of North Carolina:

Brethren:

Welcome to the Two Hundred and First Annual Communication of the Grand Lodge of Ancient, Free and Accepted Masons of North Carolina. We are honored that you have taken time out of your busy schedules to be with us and we trust that the time spent here will be most enjoyable for each of you. I extend a special welcome to the many distinguished guests from other Grand Jurisdictions and to the officials of the Masonic-related organizations operating within our Grand Jurisdiction. We hope that your stay with us will be both pleasant and fraternal. If you have any special needs, please make them known to us.

To the brethren of this Grand Jurisdiction and members of this Grand Lodge, I welcome you. This is your Grand Lodge and together we have much work to do. I hope that you will find pleasure in the work. I encourage you to take an active part in our deliberations. Again, it is a privilege and a pleasure to welcome each of you to this Annual Communication of the Grand Lodge of North Carolina.

This will be a report of my activities and my official actions as Grand Master during 1987-1988.

NECROLOGY

Since the last Annual Communication of the Grand Lodge of North Carolina, the Supreme Architect of the Universe, through His infinite Wisdom, has seen fit to take from our midst 1,483 members of the Craft. While the Official Family composed of the Grand Line Officers and the Past Grand Masters were spared, two of these were serving the Grand Lodge as District Deputy Grand Master at the time of their death:

W.:James R. Sammons, P.M. (630), D.D.G.M. (21)

W.:H. Paul Branton, P.M. (717), D.D.G.M. (62)

Each one of these Brethren gave of his substance in proportion to his zeal for our great Fraternity. We are thankful for our association with them and we commend their spirits to God who gave them. The Committee on Necrology will conduct a memorial service in memory of these departed Brethren during this Annual Communication.

DISTRICT DEPUTY MEETING

The Bicentennial of the Grand Lodge of North Carolina
PRIDE in Masonic Membership
Promotion of Fraternalism:

A meeting of the Deputies was held at Memorial Auditorium during the Annual Communication of the Grand Lodge on April 21, 1987. The program, as outlined for 1987-88, was enthusiastically received. Following my election as Grand Master on April 22nd, each District Deputy received his Commission and a package of instructions. Each District Deputy was instructed to read Reg. 12-05 and Chapter 32 of THE CODE which outlines his duties as D.D.G.M. He was also instructed to chair a committee in his District on "fraternalism." The committee would be represented by each lodge and Eastern Star Chapter in the Masonic District and the co-Chairman was to be appointed by the Worthy Grand Matron. Each Masonic District was to have a planned meeting between June 17th and December 31st, 1987. The purpose of this meeting was:

1. To promote fraternalism among the two organizations.
2. To raise money for the Masonic and Eastern Star Home.
3. To invite all "Masonic" fraternal organizations within each Masonic District to take part in the program and activities.
4. To invite all "Masonic" Youth Organizations within each District to be involved.

As a part of the Bicentennial Celebration the oldest lodge in each Masonic District would be visited. Masters and District Officers were to present typewritten reports before the meeting and be prepared to answer two questions without notes in the meeting: "What has occurred in the past year of which the lodge is most proud?" and "What function of the lodge needs the greatest improvement?"

Lodges were also, as a part of their preparation for the Bicentennial, to prepare a history of their lodge and provide photographs of the interior and exterior and a map locating the building to the nearest major highways. They were also to submit photographs of events from their geographic area showing Masonic events or life in North Carolina over the past 200 years for a special slide presentation to be presented at the Special Communication in December. Requests were made for an item from each lodge to be deposited in a "time-capsule."

It was announced that there would be an Emergent Communication on Saturday, October 3rd, in the city of Tarboro for the purpose of Dedicating and Consecrating the Masonic Marker erected and unveiled there in the Town Common in 1976. The Grand Lodge of North Carolina was organized in the city of Tarboro on December 9, 1787. It was also announced that a Special Communication of Grand Lodge would be held in Raleigh at the Memorial Auditorium and the Civic Center on December 5th for the Gala Celebration of the Bicentennial. All lodges were expected to send at least three different representatives and the Banquet would be open to wives and friends.

The Grand Master's Program consisted of promotion and support of the Masonic and Eastern Star Home and Oxford Orphanage; recognition of personal and corporate Masonic financial responsibility; and PRIDE in Masonic membership.

The need for officer training and planning for his year as Master was stressed. Each District Deputy was reminded to encourage the Wardens to obtain the booklets from Masonic Service Association entitled, "Think Tank for Junior Wardens" and "Hat and Gavel," a good planning book for the Senior Warden.

Each District Deputy was also given a copy of Proposed Amendments to THE CODE relating to liberalizing THE CODE with respect to fund-raising activities. These were introduced at the April 1987 Session to be acted upon in 1988.

The thought that I tried to communicate to the District Deputies was that all of this was not simply "busy-work," but that "if we could catch the spirit of Masonry as known by those who have gone before us, can you imagine the revitalization that would take place in our Craft. All that we have to do is to be Masons in our heart and do Masonic things."

DISTRICT MEETINGS

Sixty-five District Meetings were held in the oldest lodge of each Masonic District between May 18th and October 27th, 1987. Visiting the oldest lodge in each District was in keeping with the Bicentennial Theme of the Grand Lodge. Each meeting was preceded with a meal, after which the lodge was opened and the Grand Master was received. Visitors and members of the Official Family were introduced and a Report was received on Oxford Orphanage and the Masonic and Eastern Star Home. Pat Cox, Assistant Superintendent of Oxford Orphanage, was present at sixty-three of the meetings and at the other two meetings, Donald Sizemore from Oxford Orphanage substituted. A report from the Grand Secretary's Office was next received, which dealt with preparation for the Bicentennial Celebration and a sketchy presentation on the twenty-one Proposed Amendments to THE CODE. R. W. Robert P. Dudley made the presentation at more than half of the meetings. His assistant, Walton Clapp, P.M. made the presentation on the other occasions. Each Master and District Officer was then informally asked two questions: "What has occurred in your lodge (or District) in the past year of which you are most proud?" "What in your lodge (or District) needs the greatest improvement?" The answers to these questions were shared and were helpful in understanding "The State of the Craft." Each Master and District Officer had submitted a written report prior to each meeting to the Grand Master.

After an opportunity for questions and discussion from the members, the Grand Master then presented his remarks: "The purpose of celebrating the Grand Lodge Bicentennial." It is a time to reflect upon our beginnings, to observe the progress we have made over the years and to make plans for the future. Actually, the celebration leads one to develop pride in his Masonic membership. PRIDE in Masonic membership then became a secondary theme for the Bicentennial Year. A five point program for developing Pride in Masonic membership was presented:

Personal Relationships which begin with recommender of a petitioner or his coach or some other mentor within the lodge.

Ritualistic excellence inspires, motivates and captivates the membership which again produces pride in membership.

Investments in Masonic and Charitable activities produces Pride. "Where your treasure is, there your heart is also."

Dedication to the principles and philosophy of Freemasonry. Is Masonry what it was thirty years ago? Do we live up to our vows and adhere to the instructions of the use of the working tools and to the precepts contained in our lectures and several charges? In other words, do we live the precepts of the fraternity? If we do, then we are a proud, dedicated group of men.

Encouragement of each other in his Masonic life. How do we encourage one another? We do it by really caring for each other: assisting members who are sick and disabled, checking on widows . . . and widowers; calling on the shut-ins; working together on projects; involving our family in Masonic activities and working with our youth.

Through these five points, we can develop PRIDE in our Masonic membership. If you have difficulty thinking of them, remember the five points of fellowship and if you carry out the admonition contained therein, you will have reason to be proud of your membership in this great fraternity.

And always remember, "I KNOW SOMETHING GOOD ABOUT YOU."

AREA MEETINGS

During the last two weeks of January and the first week of February, eight Area Meetings were held for the purpose of discussing the proposed amendments to THE CODE. These meetings, or seminars were conducted in New Bern, Clinton, Charlotte, Laurinburg, Raleigh, Winston-Salem, Asheville and Williamston.

Five or six Grand Lodge Officers were at each site and each presented one or more proposed amendment for discussion. All of the meetings were well attended. There was good discussion and an opportunity to clarify some areas of misunderstanding.

W.: Richard G. Moore, Grand Steward, R.: W.: Robert P. Dudley, Grand Secretary and I attended all of the area meetings. Every Grand Officer attended meetings at three or more sites. To each of them, I give my thanks for their support and interest in participating in and leading the discussion on our proposed changes in THE CODE. To everyone who attended an Area Meeting, thank you for your interest in our legislative process in the Grand Lodge. We live by the rules that you, our representatives of the 394 subordinate lodges, enact at our Annual Communication.

THE BOARD OF CUSTODIANS

One of the most important Boards of the Grand Lodge, which provides service and guidance to each of our 394 subordinate lodges and a host of members who have qualified themselves in ritualistic proficiency, is our Board of Custodians. For this labor of love, I thank Most Worshipful J. Earl Watson, P.G.M., Chairman of the Board of Custodians, and Worshipful Floyd E. Dunn, Secretary, for the able and efficient services which they have rendered; along with the other members of the Board: Worshipful Kolen Flack, Worshipful Ralph V. Shipton, Worshipful James H. Horne and Most Worshipful Nathaniel C. Dean, P.G.M.

To Worshipful Edwin R. Todd, Grand Lecturer, I thank you for your many hours of hard work and for the many, many miles traveled. Your presence at several of the District Meetings, some at great distance, was also appreciated very much.

To the District Deputy Grand Lecturers, we give our recognition and thanks for carrying out the programs of the Board of Custodians. You have served faithfully in the quarries of Freemasonry and in conducting our Schools of Instruction have sought to preserve in its purest form our "oral traditions." To all of our Brothers who have taken the certification examinations, we thank you for your interest in preserving our rituals, for it is upon your shoulders that maintaining the "purity of our ritual" is entrusted.

For a job well done, we extend our sincere thanks to each and every member of the Board of Custodians.

GRAND MASTER'S COMMITTEE MASONIC RESEARCH AND DEVELOPMENT

This Committee has worked diligently to carry out the objectives assigned to it. Among these were to develop a "Speaker's Bureau" for the use of our 394 Masonic lodges. We have established a list of Masons who are willing to go to other lodges within convenient distances from their home. We hope to add others to this list.

The Committee hopes to establish innovative Leadership Development Workshops for officers of subordinate lodges (Wardens and Deacons). We hope to have these workshops in place during the coming year. The purpose of the workshop is to identify strengths and weaknesses in leadership skills and to aid these officers in developing needed skills for serving as Master of their lodge.

The Committee is also exploring audio-visual techniques and other ways of presenting interesting programs for individuals and lodges that will broaden their background in their knowledge of the fraternity and to meet their needs in understanding and talking with others about Freemasonry.

I will be introducing legislation during this Annual Communication to create this Committee as a Mandatory Grand Lodge Committee which will be acted upon by the delegates to the Two Hundred and Second Annual Communication to be held in 1989. To Donald L. Street, Chairman and Charles Lewis, Secretary and to each of the members of this Committee, I thank you for your dedication to the task that has been given you.

INVESTIGATION OF NORTH CAROLINA FREEMASONRY
SPECIAL COUNSEL OF THE NOMINATIONS TASK FORCE
UNITED STATES SENATE COMMITTEE ON THE JUDICIARY
DOES THE MASONIC GRAND LODGE PRACTICE
INVIDIOUS DISCRIMINATION?

On the day of my installation as Grand Master, I discovered that Special Counsel for the U. S. Senate Judiciary Committee was seeking answers to questions relating to the "Practice of Freemasonry" in North Carolina. These were questions which were asked in "Committee" during the "Confirmation Hearings" of Judge David B. Sentelle for the Federal Court of Appeals. I refused to be interviewed by phone and demanded that all questions and answers be reduced to writing unless I were to be subpoenaed to testify in Washington, D. C.

Mr. Steven J. Metalitz, Special Counsel for the Senate Judiciary Committee, was interested in the racial composition of our membership and in the reasons we refuse recognition to "Prince Hall Lodges." In a letter to Mr. Metalitz, dated April 27, 1987, this subject was dealt with, in part, as follows:

"... Sec. 2-01 of our Constitution states, 'The Grand Lodge is the supreme Masonic power and authority in the state of North Carolina. It is the only legitimate authority under which Masonic lodges can lawfully be congregated within its jurisdiction, and then only by virtue of a dispensation or a charter granted by it. It has all the attributes of sovereignty and government in matters Masonic, legislative, executive, and judicial — limited only by the provisions of its own Constitution and Regulations and by careful adherence to the Ancient Landmarks.' Sec. 2-05 of the Constitution states, 'Any organization, association, or person within this state professing to have any authority, powers or privileges in Ancient Craft or Symbolic Masonry not derived from the Grand Lodge is declared to be clandestine, and all intercourse with or recognition of them or any of them, is prohibited.' It is for these reasons that you will not find Prince Hall Lodges recognized by 'legitimate' Grand Lodges. Only through a 'union' of the Grand Lodges or by a 'denouncement' of their former membership can one who belongs to a non-recognized Masonic lodge become a member of 'regular' Freemasonry.

The Grand Lodge of North Carolina is in fraternal recognition with the Grand Lodge of New Jersey. New Jersey is known to have at least one predominant 'black' lodge, Alpha Lodge, and I have been in Masonic meetings with some of their members. . ."

Mr. Metalitz suggests in a letter dated May 20th that there is a conflict in the testimony of Judge David Sentelle and the information he had received in my letter. My response in a letter dated May 23rd to his second letter of inquiry was, in part, as follows:

"Mr. Metalitz, I am sure that in your position as Special Counsel, with responsibility to Senators Biden, Leahy and Simon, that you are a man who possess high morals and is of good character and is highly motivated to seek the truth. However, may I suggest that I am also of the opinion that you have unwittingly yielded to the use of chicanery in your attempts to obtain the information you desire.

"... You are already aware of the fact that the Grand Lodge of North Carolina has no racial restrictions on membership in any lodge in North Carolina and that the petitioner is not requested to identify his race on the petition for membership. . . In fact, in the Transcript of the Proceedings of the Committee on the Judiciary, April 29, 1987, on Page 9, lines 9-18, the Chairman said, 'But I understand that Senator Leahy's nominations counsel interviewed the leadership of the three lodges to which the nominee belonged, and also interviewed a lodge, the black Prince Hall Lodge, of Charlotte, North Carolina, and there were no allegations of race discrimination reported by anyone either in the black or in the white lodges. . . ' So, you see, Mr. Metalitz, I see no conflict or possible conflict in the record as it pertains to this issue.

I would, however, given the opportunity, clarify an error in the Transcript of the Proceedings of the Committee on the Judiciary of April 29, 1987:

. . . On Page 32, Lines 16-23, Senator Leahy said, 'I will not go into the history of the Masons. At one time, there was discrimination in the Masons. We Catholics were not allowed to belong.' Senator Simpson: 'That is right.' The Chairman: 'My grandfather Finnegan was not real crazy about the Masons, in part because he was not able to belong back in 1918 when he wanted to belong, but that sense is long gone.' The only legislative bar to membership for any man who wishes to become a Mason is that he be of mature age, of good character and that he believe in God. In other words, Mr. Metalitz, we discriminate against avowed atheists. Now I don't believe for a minute that Senator Leahy, Senator Simpson or Senator Biden or 'grandfather Finnegan' were or are atheists. The bar to the admission of Roman Catholics to Freemasonry was not set by the Masonic Fraternity, it was imposed by Canon of the Catholic Church. We have admitted men of the Christian faith who were Roman Catholics who have chosen to ignore this rule in their Church Law. . .

Mr. Metalitz, I have never met a man with your last name. I cannot tell from correspondence with you whether you are white, black, red, or yellow. I do not know if you are a natural-born American or a naturalized citizen. I cannot tell from your name if you are Protestant, Moslem, Jew, Catholic or agnostic. However, if you were a resident of North Carolina and had a desire to become a Freemason and if two members of a lodge in your 'North Carolina' place of residence would sponsor your petition, it would be received and if after due inquiry into your character and certification by the Grand Lodge that you had not previously petitioned a lodge and been rejected by it, and if you received the unanimous consent of the members present at the meeting scheduled for ballot to receive the degrees of Freemasonry, then you too could be a Master Mason.

Now may I ask you a question? Instead of concerning yourself with the operation of the Masonic Fraternity, why don't you look at the qualifications of Mr. David B. Sentelle as a Jurist and get on with the business of the Senate in either confirming or denying his appointment?"

On September 9th, the Senate confirmed the nomination of Judge David B. Sentelle by a vote of 87-0 for the U. S. Court of Appeals in Washington, D. C.

I received a letter dated September 10th from Senator Paul Simon who attempted to explain his part in delaying the confirmation of Judge David Sentelle. I answered his letter on October 6th, in part, as follows:

" . . I told them of a Presidential Candidate, the Senator from Illinois, the Honorable Paul Simon, who voted in Committee to recommend the confirmation of this Justice from North Carolina to the Full Senate and then used a personal privilege hold to prevent the Senate from voting on the nomination until the 2nd week of June when, sir, you released your hold and Senator Kennedy placed a hold on the nomination. This hold remained in place until September 9th, when the Senate confirmed the Judge with a vote of 87-0. At that time, Mr. Kennedy voted for the confirmation of Judge David Sentelle, but where were you Mr. Simon? Yet on September 10th, you answer a letter written to your Counsel in response to his interrogatories dated April 27th, May 20th and May 23rd.

I have related the incidents leading up to the confirmation of Judge David Sentelle to the Masons across this state in 65 area meetings and to other groups, both within and outside the borders of our state. No one, Democrat or Republican, understands how a Senator can vote in committee one way and then step outside the committee and act in opposition to the unanimous vote of that committee. No one understands why the question of invidious discrimination was ever raised with respect to the Masonic Fraternity or why the answer to questions that might be raised could not have been readily obtained from the many Senators, Congressmen, Justices or other reliable sources in Washington; or The Masonic Service Association of the U. S. A.

The explanatory letter, dated September 10th, after the vote, fails to satisfactorily explain your action or that of Mr. Kennedy in unduly delaying the Senate from carrying on the business of our Senate in confirming the nomination of a Federal Judge. I refer you to the remarks of Senator Simpson recorded in the September 9th CONGRESSIONAL RECORD on Page S 11869-S 11870. He said, ' . . . I think this totally unwarranted delay in the consideration of the nomination is truly one of the most absurd things I have witnessed as a Member of the Senate.' I also call your attention to the remarks of the President of the Senate, Senator Byrd on page S 11870. He said that the unanimous vote in support of Judge David Sentelle 'should clear the record once and for all, and I hope that this ugly head of prejudice against Masons will not rear itself again. . . '

Senator Simon, this may be an appropriate time for you too, to reconsider your position as a candidate for the highest office in our Nation."

Brethren, when Freemasonry is "under attack" from any source, we must not assume a defensive position. We must stand erect, firm, and strong in our convictions; and we ought to always present a positive position. We must even be aggressive if the need arises. We should learn as much as we can about this great fraternity so that each of us will always be able to stand up and say in the face of our critics, "I'M PROUD TO BE A FREEMASON."

JOSEPH MONTFORT MEDALS

Seven of the original lodges that organized the Grand Lodge of North Carolina were "Montfort" Lodges. Joseph Montfort received his commission as Provincial Grand Master "of and for America" in 1771. He died in 1776, eleven years before the Grand Lodge was organized. In 1940, the Grand Lodge of North Carolina established the Joseph Montfort Medal as a Meritorious Service Medal, the highest award that can be conferred upon a Freemason in this Grand Jurisdiction. Those chosen to wear this medal surely have cause for personal pride in their membership.

I had the pleasure of presenting the first of three such medals during our Bicentennial Communication on December 5th to one who, at personal risk and hazard, proclaimed his PRIDE in his Masonic membership; claimed it as a family tradition; and refused to sacrifice that membership on the altar of personal advancement. He represented every Freemason in this state who has been called upon or who will in the future be called upon to make a personal sacrifice of position, earnings, or advancement because of his Masonic membership and who has or will refuse to sacrifice his membership because Freemasonry has an intangible value before which all others become pale.

HONORABLE DAVID B. SENTELLE FEDERAL JUDGE, U. S. CIRCUIT COURT OF APPEALS

Two Joseph Montfort Medals will be presented during this Annual Communication who are deserving of this recognition and which I know you will applaud.

HONORARY TITLE OF PAST DISTRICT DEPUTY GRAND MASTER

I recommend that this Grand Lodge grant the honorary title of Past District Deputy Grand Master to the following brethren, each of whom is eligible and qualified therefor in accordance with the provisions of Regulation 12-05 of THE CODE:

On the recommendation of their respective Grand Master, I appointed the following brethren as Representatives of the Grand Lodge of North Carolina near their respective Grand Lodge:

Name of Brother	Grand Lodge of:	Date of Commission
John N. Fortner	Delaware	05-12-87
Stephen W. Spencer	New York	11-05-87
Menesclau De Araujo Sousa	Ceara (Brazil)	11-18-87
Olof Kallin	Sweden	11-25-87
Jerry W. Cole	Kansas	3-22-88

It is not only an honor to have been selected to serve a Grand Lodge as its Representative, but it is an opportunity to learn more about Freemasonry as practiced in another Grand Jurisdiction. Each Representative is encouraged to correspond with his opposite number as listed in the appendix of the PROCEEDINGS and to keep each other informed of the actions taken at the Annual Communication by each Grand Lodge and the important Masonic events occurring in their respective Grand Jurisdictions. Many times, lasting friendships are made through the appointment of Grand Representatives and their subsequent correspondence between each other. Attend to this duty and your wages will be well paid.

OXFORD ORPHANAGE

Progress is usually made through "daily advancement" rather than by "leaps and bounds." Such is the case at Oxford Orphanage. Our children continue to do well in the public school system of Granville County and the decision to arrange for our children to receive their education in this school system has been reaffirmed as being in the best interest of our children. Although the Grover C. and Margaret Dale Junior Olympic Swimming Pool was not completed in time for the children to use it this year, it has now been completed; and when the warm days of summer arrive, a new swimming hole will be enjoyed on our campus.

All of us owe a debt of gratitude to Brother Donald R. Moul for his capable leadership as Superintendent of the Orphanage. With Tommy Jones, Superintendent of the Masonic and Eastern Star Home, he held thirty-two (32) area meetings with lodge officers in explaining the needs of the Orphanage. I commend him and his staff for the excellent administration of this fine institution.

Special thanks go to Pat Cox who attended sixty-three (63) of our sixty-five (65) District Meetings bringing the message of the Home and Orphanage. He is our Assistant Superintendent of the Orphanage, serves as Chaplain, Advisor, Counselor, Liason Officer with the public schools and is a member of the Board of Education of Granville County Schools. Brother David Ford continues to serve us well as Business Manager, not only of the Orphanage, but of the Home and he serves our Grand Lodge with his expertise in many other ways. Brother Donald Sizemore continues to work behind the scenes and is one of those who maintains a steady influence on our affairs. He attended two District Meetings to bring the message of our Home and Orphanage. To these servants of our Orphanage, the Masons of this state owe a great debt of gratitude.

Although we served some "liquid sunshine" with our activities on St. John's Day, Lloyd Young and his support group planned an excellent program and our spirit of fellowship was not dampened by the unusual weather. The Shriners of our three temples, OASIS, SUDAN and AMRAN, who participated in the parade and entertained our children throughout the day, really made St. John's Day special for all of the children and those who participated in this annual celebration. I'm already looking forward to June 18th, our next St. John's Day. I hope to see you there.

Each member of our Board of Directors has brought his special talent to Oxford Orphanage. On behalf of all of our Masons, I thank you for your contribution to the operation of our Orphanage. This year that board consisted of M.:W.:Cecil J. Liverman, M.:W.:Nathaniel C. Dean, M.:W.:Robert N. Bass, Jr., M.:W.:J. Earl Watson, M.:W.:William B. Bellois, W.:Gerry T. Smith, W.:Wade H. Fox, and Brothers D. D. Phillips, Jr. and Dan C. Rice.

To all of the Masons who contribute to the support of our Orphanage and who make special gifts in other ways, who visit with our children and bring them into their community and into their homes, we thank you. Remember that our business is child care. Keep a constant vigil in your community for children who need our services.

MASONIC AND EASTERN STAR HOME

Through the process of slow deliberation, the Board of Directors continues to plan for the needs of those who are and who plan to be Guests of the Home. Lines of communication between Guests and administration are open. In the area of food service, once perceived as a problem, Guests have been given more choice in menu planning. Renovations of resident quarters continue on a planned, progressive basis which allow individual room temperature control and air ventilation. Lodges have responded to the needs of supporting the operating costs of the Home. We must continue our support of the Home with our voluntary contributions to assure the continued high level of care that our Guests receive.

The waiting list continues to grow and our most critical need is an expansion of the Care Center. Every Mason in this state has been solicited by mail as well as an appeal through THE NORTH CAROLINA MASON for funds to add a new wing to the Care Center. Honor Rolls were established for different level gifts:

ENTERED APPRENTICE	$10.00 to $24.00
FELLOWCRAFT	$25.00 to $49.00
MASTER MASON	$50.00 to $99.00
PAST MASTER	$100.00 to $499.00
PAST GRAND MASTER	$500.00 to $999.00
GRAND MASTER	$1,000.00 or more

Those on the Honor Roll for gifts of $100.00 or more will have their names on a plaque in the new wing of the Care Center. The campaign ends on the last day of this Annual Communication. A report on this campaign effort will be given during this Annual Communication.

Brother Tommy Jones, Superintendent of the Home, and his staff deserve our gratitude for their tireless efforts on behalf of our Guests. David Ford, as Business Manager, also deserves our thanks and appreciation. He has spent many hours in keeping our records in order and in making wise investments.

To the Board of Directors and all of our committees, thank you for your time, support and your wisdom in the decisions you have been called upon to make. I believe that together, as a result of our cooperation and working together as Masons and "Stars," both on the Board and at the "grass-roots" level, the Home is stronger and will continue to reap benefits. We can expect a bright future.

THE NORTH CAROLINA MASONIC FOUNDATION

In 1981, we set a goal to increase the endowment of the Foundation by Ten Million Dollars. We have now achieved approximately one-third of that goal. The value of securities held by the Foundation is approximately Five Million Dollars, an increase during the past year of nearly Seventy Thousand Dollars. Although the lodges and our members have not been as supportive of the Foundation as we had hoped, we continue to make progress and the earnings of the Foundation have met real and significant needs of our Oxford Orphanage and the Masonic and Eastern Star Home. During the past year, $145,000.00 was transferred to each institution. To all of the lodges and to the Masons who continue to send memorial gifts and other significant contributions to the Foundation, we thank you. Although an emphasis on contributing to the Foundation has not been emphasized during the last year because of the need to increase the support of the Operating Expenses of our two HOMES which had been lagging, we have not abandoned the goal of raising the additional TEN MILLION DOLLARS that was promoted so fervently by our late Most Worshipful Nelson Banks, then Grand Master.

The members of the Foundation have done a yeoman's job in handling our funds and we now give special recognition to this fine group of Masons: Most Worshipful Sam A. Hennis, P.G.M., Worshipful W. David Ford, P.M., Charles E. Scott, Jr., P.M., David B. Wilson, P.M. and Brother James R. Goodman, Jr. Thank you for the great job you are doing for our charities with the funds provided by the Masons of this state.

THE NORTH CAROLINA MASON

The delegates to Grand Lodge in 1986 raised the per capita tax to $6.00 to enable the Grand Lodge to publish THE NORTH CAROLINA MASON on a monthly basis. We began to receive this increase in revenue in January of this year and at that time we changed THE NORTH CAROLINA MASON from a quarterly publication to a monthly issue. This should allow the published information to be received more timely and increase the interest of the members in its content. Brother Bruce Hunter, Editor, has done an excellent job in selecting interesting topics for coverage. With the able assistance of Mr. Chris Foster and his staff at the Oxford Orphanage Printing Department, he has developed good composition and produced an Official Organ which North Carolina Masons can be proud to claim.

During this period of transition, the Board of Publication has had difficult decisions to make and has worked diligently in seeking solutions to these problems. Our thanks for all of their work and efforts on our behalf go to the members of this Board: Most Worshipful Sam A. Hennis, Jr., P.G.M., Worshipful H. Lloyd Wilkerson, Worshipful William E. Fulmer, Worshipful G. Paul Wagoner and Brother John R. Stegall.

I was given the opportunity of submitting a message for each issue: "A Year of Celebrations," "Freemasonry Is Under Attack," "Setting Goals for the Future," "Fund-Raising Activities: A Two Edged Sword," "Setting the Example," and "The State of the Craft." To everyone who contributed to the success of our paper, thank you.

SOUTHEASTERN MASONIC CONFERENCE

The Southeastern Masonic Conference was held in Gatlinburg, Tennessee during the summer, with the following officials of the Grand Lodge of North Carolina attending: Most Worshipful Eddie P. Stiles, Grand Master and his wife Loretta; Right Worshipful L. R. (Pete) Thomas, Jr. Deputy Grand Master and his wife Jean; Right Worshipful Jerry G. Tart, Senior Grand Warden and his wife Zee and daughters Laura and Rachel; Right Worshipful Bunn T. Phillips, Jr., Junior Grand Warden and his wife Virginia; Most Worshipful Sam A. Hennis, Jr., Past Grand Master and Grand Treasurer, and his wife Sis; Right Worshipful Robert P. Dudley, Grand Secretary and his wife Doris; Worshipful William B. Brunk, Grand Steward; Most Worshipful Robert N. Bass, Jr., Past Grand Master and his wife Kathrine; Most Worshipful James W. Brewer, Past Grand Master, Past Grand Treasurer; and Most Worshipful J. Earl Watson, Past Grand Master and his wife Dot.

The states belonging to this conference are: Alabama, Florida, Georgia, Kentucky, Louisiana, Mississippi, North Carolina, South Carolina and Tennessee. Each member state was responsible for the presentation of a paper. Outstanding papers were presented by Most Worshipful Dannie L. Reed, Grand Master of Georgia: "You Make the Difference" and Most Worshipful James M. Ward, P.G.M. of Mississippi: "Freemasonry — A New Century." Also, I had the privilege of presenting a paper: "Pride in Freemasonry."

The program of the Southeastern Masonic Conference is not only well organized, but the opportunity for Masonic leaders of the Southeastern states to meet together and to share ideas is one that should not be avoided by our Grand Officers. I encourage our Masonic leaders to continue their support and attendance of this Masonic Conference and the valuable experience it offers them.

CONFERENCE OF GRAND MASTERS OF MASONS IN NORTH AMERICA

The Conference of Grand Masters of Masons in North America was held at the Five Seasons Civic Center and its two adjoining hotels (Stouffer's Five Seasons and The Roosevelt) in Cedar Rapids, Iowa. The Grand Lodge of Iowa is known for its outstanding Library and Museum in Cedar Rapids. We had an opportunity to visit the Library and Museum and we agree, it should be on every Mason's list of places to see in the mid-west. Our wives enjoyed a day visiting the Amana Colonies near Cedar Rapids. Most Worshipful J. Earl Watson, P.G.M., very ably represented the Grand Lodge as our representative to the George Washington Masonic National Memorial Association and the Masonic Service Association of the United States. The second Annual Meeting of the National Masonic Foundation for the Prevention of Drug and Alcohol Abuse Among Children was held. We are not yet members of this new National Charitable Foundation working as an arm of the Grand Master's Conference. Perhaps at some future time, our Grand Lodge may join hands with the twenty Grand Lodges now forming this Foundation to carry on this good work. I had the privilege of serving as Chairman of the Conference Committee for the 1988 Grand Master's Conference and chairing one session of the Conference. I also served as member of the Education and Publications Committee for Masonic Service Association.

It was regretted that Right Worshipful Robert P. Dudley, Grand Secretary, became ill prior to the Conference and was unable to travel and attend the Conference of Grand Secretaries. We especially missed Doris. Those attending the Conference from North Carolina were: Most Worshipful Eddie Stiles, Grand Master and Loretta; Right Worshipful L. R. (Pete) Thomas, Deputy Grand Master and Jean; Most Worshipful J. Earl Watson, P.G.M. and Dot; Worshipful H. Lloyd Wilkerson, Grand Orator and Sovereign Grand Inspector General in North Carolina for the Scottish Rite and Jeanne; Most Worshipful Maurice Walsh, P.G.M.; Most Worshipful James W. Brewer, P.G.M. and Past Grand Treasurer; and Worshipful Jesse Laughinghouse, P.M.

The Conference represents over sixty sovereign Grand Jurisdictions. This year, the theme of the Conference was "Freemasonry — A Positive Influence." The Keynote address was delivered by Brother and Reverend Norman Vincent Peale, Grand Chaplain Emeritus of the Grand Lodge of New York. Major topics covered during the Conference was Long Range Planning for Masonic Homes; Creating a Positive Image; and a Panel Discussion on "Masonic Youth." A stirring optimistic address was delivered at the close of the Conference by Brother and Reverend Burt L. Lancaster of Bloomington, Illinois. The new Executive Secretary of the Conference is Robert Hinshaw, P.G.M., Past Grand Secretary of the Grand Lodge of Ohio and a dual member of our Dunn's Rock Lodge No. 267 in Brevard. The Conference is informative and inspiring to our leaders. It also gives our leaders opportunities to meet their counterparts from other states, to work with them in meaningful ways and to have informal discussion with leaders of other Masonic groups at the National level.

GRAND LODGE BICENTENNIAL

While all of us were celebrating the Bicentennial of the signing of our Nation's Constitution, we were thinking about the role that many Freemasons had in the framing of that Constitution. Some of them also played a role in the formation of our Grand Lodge, in establishing our State government and in creating the first state supported university, The University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill.

Most of our lodges participated in the celebration of the Grand Lodge Bicentennial. We did this by studying the history of the individual lodges. Some lodges are still delinquent in filing a history with the Grand Lodge Office. The oldest lodges in the state were visited and two Emergent Communications of the Grand Lodge were held for the purpose of celebrating the Bicentennial.

MASONIC MARKER DEDICATED AND CONSECRATED IN TARBORO, OCTOBER 3, 1987

The Grand Lodge was well attended at its opening and closing in the Tarboro High School. Lunch was served on "the grounds." The air became saturated and the temperature dropped to unusual low levels for the early fall of the year. However, the Parade with Shrine Units from our three Shrine Temples: Oasis, Sudan and Amran marched off on schedule. This was followed by a Band Concert at the Town Commons by the Sudan Temple Brass Band. The Dedication and Consecration of the Marker erected in the Commons in 1976, during the Nation's Bicentennial to commemorate the Founding of the Grand Lodge in Tarboro on December 9, 1787, was completed before the heavy rains began to fall that day. Participating in the program were Tom Bardin, Chairman of Edgecombe County Commissioners and Dr. Moses Ray, Mayor Pro-Tem of the Town of Tarboro.

Special recognition is given to Brother Hurshell Baggett of Concord Lodge No. 58 in Tarboro who acted as the local General Chairman for this event and Brother J. Marshall Brock, Temple Director for Sudan Temple, who served as Parade Marshal. To everyone who participated in the celebration, it would not have been possible without you, thank you.

BICENTENNIAL COMMUNICATION RALEIGH, DECEMBER 5, 1987

The Grand Lodge was called to order at 11:00 a.m. with the reception of Grand Lodge Officers. The Grand Lodge was opened and Distinguished Guests and Past Grand Masters were received. After welcoming the Delegates, members and visitors, Worshipful H. Lloyd Wilkerson, Grand Orator, delivered the Oration on the formation of the Grand Lodge. A stirring address was delivered by Honorable David B. Sentelle, Federal Judge of the United States Court of Appeals. He gave a personal testimonial of his Pride in being a Freemason. An address was also delivered by Honorable James G. Martin, Governor of North Carolina. Following a special audio-visual presentation on "Freemasonry in North Carolina," everyone participated in a ceremony of Consecration and Rededication and the Grand Lodge was closed. A Gala Banquet was held that evening at the Civic Center with music provided by the Jimmy Farr Orchestra, brief remarks were delivered by Honorable James G. Martin, Governor of North Carolina, and we were entertained by Mike Cross in Concert. Those who attended the events of that day will not easily forget the strong feeling of PRIDE they have in their membership in this great fraternity.

To the members of the Bicentennial Committee, the Credentials Committee and everyone who participated in this Special Communication of the Grand Lodge as well as all of the delegates and visitors who attended the session, thank you for making this celebration of our 200th Anniversary such a great success. Without you, there would have been nothing to celebrate.

TRIBUTE TO MASONRY

On January 23rd, 1988, the Grand Chapter of the Order of the Eastern Star entertained "The Masons" with a "Tribute to Masonry" at Mission Valley Inn in Raleigh in recognition of our Bicentennial. Throughout the year, we have encouraged meetings of the lodges and chapters within each Masonic District to improve "fraternal relations." This culminated in this meeting of Masons and "Stars." Following a delicious meal, a skit written by Mrs. Marge Hudson, Past Matron, on the founding of the Grand Lodge and its early history was presented. It was well done. To members of the cast and the author and all of the other members of our two fraternities that participated in this "Tribute," thank you.

The relationship between The Grand Chapter of the Order of the Eastern Star and The Grand Lodge of North Carolina has been a model to be emulated by others. The spirit of cooperation has been excellent. I am grateful that I had the opportunity of serving with Mrs. Opal Long during her term as Worthy Grand Matron. We have had a great working relationship. Thank you for your help and cooperation in building the fraternal bonds of friendship between our two organizations and for cooperating in the programs which have been advanced in behalf of those who depend upon us at The Masonic and Eastern Star Home.

EMERGENT COMMUNICATIONS

In addition to the Bicentennial Emergent Communications held in the city of Tarboro on October 3, 1987 for the purpose of Dedication and Commemorating the Masonic Marker in the Town Commons and on December 5, 1987 in Raleigh for the Gala Celebration, the Grand Lodge of North Carolina has been called into Emergent Communication as follows:

Date	Lodge	Location	Purpose
08-15-87	Clemmons No. 755	Clemmons	Cornerstone
11-14-87	Oak Island No. 758	Long Beach	Dedication
12-10-87	St. Andrew No. 702	Charlotte	Dedication
02-06-88	Clemmons No. 755	Clemmons	Dedication
03-05-88	Federal Point No. 753	Carolina Beach	Dedication
04-13-88	Roman Eagle No. 550	Aberdeen	Dedication
04-14-88	J. J. Crowder No. 743	Raleigh	Cornerstone

Other than the instructions regarding the use of the Mason's working tools and the use of the Apron, one of the few remnants retained from Operative Masonry is the public ceremony of laying a Cornerstone. This is a beautiful, powerful and instructive ritual. I am grateful that the lodges which are constructing new temples for their lodges have included in their plans the laying of a Cornerstone and have invited the Grand Lodge to participate in this singular event.

We are fortunate in North Carolina to have so many new temples to house our lodges which are modern, functional and attractive. Such are the ones that we have dedicated this year. It was also a unique experience to lay the Cornerstone for a temple and then within the same term of the Grand Master to dedicate the lodge. I'm very proud of the Masons and their families within these several communities who strive to display their fraternity in attractive buildings to the members of their communities and to provide a positive influence in those communities.

PERSONAL REPRESENTATIVES

I have received a large number of invitations both from within and from without our state to attend various Masonic functions. Because of conflicts, many of these invitations were declined. However, a few events were of such nature that the Grand Master or the Grand Lodge should be represented. In those cases, I appointed Personal Representatives to represent me and to bring the greetings of The Most Worshipful Grand Lodge.

Worshipful Richard G. Moore, Grand Steward, attended the Constitution of Latona Temple No. 154, Daughters of the Nile in Charlotte on May 30th.

Sudan Temple hosted a reception at the Shrine Club in Greenville for Imperial Sir Russell H. Anthony, Imperial Potentate of the Shrine for North America, on June 2nd. Right Worshipful L. R. (Pete) Thomas brought greetings from the Grand Lodge. He also represented the Grand Lodge of North Carolina on September 18th and 19th at a Special Ceremony hosted by the Grand Lodge of the District of Columbia in Washington, D. C. in celebration of the 200th Anniversary of the Signing of the Constitution of the United States. Representatives of Grand Lodges from the thirteen original states were present.

On June 22nd, Right Worshipful Jerry G. Tart, Senior Grand Warden, brought greetings from the Grand Lodge to the Grand Assembly of the International Order of Rainbow for Girls at the Civic Center in Raleigh. He also represented me at the Grand Court of the North Carolina Order of the Amaranth which was held in Greensboro on October 29th.

Right Worshipful Bunn T. Phillips participated on our behalf in a celebration of the 200th Anniversary of the Signing of our Constitution of the United States sponsored by the Masonic Lodges in Moore County on September 16th.

Most Worshipful S. Frank Noble, Jr., P.G.M., served as my representative to the Grand Chapter of the Order of the Eastern Star on their "Constitution Day" held in New Bern on September 19th.

Worshipful Fred Speidel, P.M. (500), Past Grand Orator, brought greetings to those attending a banquet in honor of Norman Hundley, P.M. (702), Past Grand Commander of Knights Templar in North Carolina, held in Concord, North Carolina on August 15th.

Worshipful Ray Norris, Grand Marshal, represented me at a "Unity Meeting" held at Dunn's Rock Lodge No. 267 on October 18th.

Phalanx Lodge No. 31 in Charlotte held an Awards Night on October 27th. Governor James G. Martin, Governor of North Carolina, received his twenty-five year Veteran's Award. Worshipful Lester Martin, Senior Grand Deacon, represented me on this occasion.

Since February 8th, Worshipful William L. Mills, III, P.M. (32), has served as my Personal Representative to Falston Lodge No. 356 (see Order No. 7).

I extend my grateful thanks to each of you who served as Personal Representatives and for the splendid manner in which you have carried out your assignments. Warm bonds of fraternal relations have resulted from your efforts.

OUT OF STATE VISITATIONS

Visiting with Masonic leaders from all sections of the country is always a learning experience. Through these associations, the bonds of fraternal recognition are made stronger and the Craft benefits from our dialog.

I had the pleasure of attending the Annual Communication of the Grand Lodge of New Jersey held at Wildwood and an Emergent Communication of the Grand Lodge of Texas in celebration of their Sesquicentennial in Alexandria, Virginia. This was the second time the Grand Lodge of Texas has held a meeting outside its Jurisdiction. Both were held at the George Washington Masonic National Memorial and the Grand Lodge of Texas is the only Grand Lodge outside of Virginia to use the "Memorial" for a place of meeting.

My wife and I attended the Annual Communications of the Grand Lodge of Maryland in Baltimore where I was given the opportunity to respond for the distinguished guests, the Grand Lodge of the District of Columbia, and the Grand Lodge of Tennessee in Nashville. It was fitting that the Grand Lodge of Tennessee should be visited during our Bicentennial as it was a part of the Grand Lodge of North Carolina until the Grand Lodge of North Carolina presented it with its Great Charter on December 27, 1813.

My wife and I also attended the Southeastern Masonic Conference in Gatlinburg, Tennessee and the Conference of Grand Masters of Masons of North America in Cedar Rapids, Iowa, which is reported elsewhere under their separate headings.

My wife and I also had the pleasure of attending the National Meetings of a number of other Masonic Organizations:

We attended the United Grand Imperial Conclave of the Red Cross of Constantine in Columbus, Georgia where our Past Grand Master, Most Worshipful Maurice E. Walsh, was installed as Grand Viceroy.

As guests of our three Shrine Temples, we attended the Imperial Council Sessions of the Shrine of North America in Las Vegas. While there, I chaired a meeting of the Grand Masters' Conference Committee.

We attended the Triennial Sessions of General Grand Chapter of Royal Arch Masons and General Grand Council of Cryptic Masons in Orlando, Florida. There I was received and given an opportunity to speak by M.:E.: Walter Winchester, General Grand High Priest, and I was recognized and served as a working delegate in the General Grand Council. We also attended Convent General of Knights of the York Cross of Honor which was also held in Orlando, Florida.

I attended the Biennial Sessions of the Supreme Council of the Ancient and Accepted Scottish Rite, S.J. I was received with other Grand Masters who were attending the session and the Grand Commander, C. Fred Kleinknecht, extended us every courtesy of the Supreme Council. I also attended the Annual Meeting of The Royal Order of Scotland where I was again recognized.

My wife and I attended the Thirty-Third Degree Conferral for designates from North and South Carolina in Charleston, South Carolina, the See of the Mother Supreme Council of the World. We had twenty-six designates from North Carolina to receive the Thirty-Third Degree. Each designate received a letter of congratulations from me as Grand Master. Among those honored from our "official family" this Biennium were: R. W. L. R. Thomas, Deputy Grand Master; R. W. Jerry G. Tart, Senior Grand Warden; W. Lester Martin, Senior Grand Deacon and W. Tommy Jones, Asst. Grand Chaplain and Superintendent of the Masonic and Eastern Star Home.

I attended Masonic Week in Washington, D. C. My brother, Robert, traveled with me and we had personal and individual tours of the Masonic Museum in Fredricksburg and at the George Washington Masonic National Memorial in Alexandria. We also visited and joined a tour of the "House of the Temple," Scottish Rite Headquarters in Washington, D. C. I attended a meeting of the G. & G. Society at the Cosmos Club where I was invited to critique the paper of the evening, "Searching for Stable Moral Values in a Modern Society." Afterwards, I enjoyed a "conversation" with the participants at the "Anderson House," home of the Society of the Cincinnati. I attended the annual meeting of the High Council of the Masonic Rosierucian Society in which I hold national office. I attended the Annual Meeting of the Philathes Society where I was recognized and gave a Toast to the Masonic Grand Lodges. As Grand Chancellor, I presided over the Grand College of Rites, attended a "Table Council" at Ebbitt's Grill where I gave a Toast to the Sovereign Grand Master of the Allied Masonic Degrees. As Past Great Chief of Knight Masons, I chaired their board of General Purposes and at the Grand Council of Allied Masonic Degrees, I was received as a reigning Grand Master. I was elected Senior Grand Warden for the ensuing year. I attended the breakfast for Knights of the York Cross of Honor, the Annual Meeting of the Blue Friars and the Grand Preceptory of Holy Royal Arch Knight Templar Priests.

Many lasting friendships are made through associations at these meetings. I'm grateful for the opportunity of participating in each of these Masonic functions.

I would be remiss if I did not report to you that following our Bicentennial Communication, on December 6th and 7th, Right Worshipful Robert P. Dudley and his wife Doris; my wife Loretta and I drove to Washington, D. C. and we were present for the "public swearing-in ceremony of Honorable David B. Sentelle as Judge on the U. S. Circuit Court of Appeals. After hearing his testimony at our Bicentennial Communication, we were filled with a great deal of Pride in being included in this special ceremony.

HOSPITAL VISITATIONS

I had the pleasure of visiting each of our four V.A. Hospitals in this state, where I met with our Masonic Service Representative and his Masonic volunteers, the Hospital Administrator or Representative, Chief of Volunteer Services and Masonic leaders in the geographic area. After an orientation meeting and an opportunity to ask questions, patients, who were Masons, in the hospital, were visited.

On July 17th, I visited Oteen V.A. Hospital in Asheville where our Masonic Service Representative is John Lance. On July 25th, I visited the V.A. Hospital in Fayetteville where Edward Meeks, M.S.A. Representative, was our host. On August 12th, Wiley Morgan, M.S.A. Representative, hosted our visit to the V.A. Hospital in Salisbury and finally on November 4th, the V.A. Hospital in Durham was visited where Jack Dossett serves as M.S.A. Representative.

Each of the M.S.A. Representatives and their staff of volunteers deserve our sincere thanks and appreciation for the services they provide our members who are veterans receiving needed care in our Veteran's Hospitals.

OTHER VISITATIONS

LODGES

The year began appropriately with a visit to Wilson Lodge No. 712 on the day following my installation where, with a staff of Grand Lodge Officers and Heads of other Masonic Organizations, I conferred the Master Masons Degree upon a Senior DeMolay. Within the first month, I had delivered the Entered Apprentice Lecture in Apex Lodge No. 584 and witnessed the Fellowcraft Degree in Garner Lodge No. 701. "Surprise Visits" were made to Catawba Lodge No. 248, the lodge in which I was raised, where I presented a Plaque of Appreciation and to Apex Lodge No. 584 where I also presented a Plaque of Appreciation. I also made an unannounced visit to Hiram Lodge No. 40, the lodge of our Junior Grand Steward, Dr. William B. Brunk, and later returned to that lodge to present a program on the History of North Carolina Freemasonry. I made an unannounced visit to Green Level Lodge No. 277 and later returned to that lodge to receive a symbolic check representing a gift of $200.00 per member to the North Carolina Masonic Foundation, Inc. I visited Raleigh Lodge No. 500 and I attended J.J. Crowder Lodge No. 743 on the occasion of their receiving the gift of a deed for a piece of property on which to build their new Temple from Brother Edgerton, Past Potentate of Sudan Temple. Special meetings were held for Kilwinning Lodge No. 64 in Wadesboro and Fallston Lodge No. 356 in Fallston. I conducted funerals for two Past Masters of Apex Lodge No. 584, one of whom was also Past Secretary and I attended the funeral of a special friend and Brother conducted by Holly Springs Lodge No. 115. On a visit to Masters Lodge No. 754, I enjoyed one of their "special steak dinners" and presented a paper before the lodge. I gave the lecture on the Entered Apprentice Degree in Wayne Lodge No. 112 and later returned with the Grand Lodge Officers to confer the Master Masons Degree on the immediate Past State Master Councilor of the Order of DeMolay, Brother Michael Spencer.

I was given the privilege of installing the officers for the following lodges: Apex Lodge No. 584 (Apex); Corinthian Lodge No. 542 (Greensboro); Wayne Lodge No. 112 (Goldsboro); Goldsboro Lodge No. 634 (Goldsboro); Greenville Lodge No. 284 (Greenville); Crown Point Lodge No. 708 (Greenville); William Pitt Lodge No. 734 (Greenville); Hiram Lodge No. 40 (Raleigh); William G. Hill Lodge No. 218 (Raleigh); and Raleigh Lodge No. 500 (Raleigh).

Several lodges have had special events and invited my participation. I attended a Valentine's Night at James B. Green Lodge No. 735. Lodges in the 17th Masonic District held a Ladies Night in Wilson where I was the after-dinner speaker. I also spoke at a Ladies Night for Phoenix Lodge No. 8 in Fayetteville. St. John's Lodge No. 4 in Kinston celebrated their Bicentennial. I was invited, as Grand Master, to dedicate a Marker and be their banquet speaker. Bula Lodge No. 409 in Burlington celebrated their Centennial. I had the privilege of being present at their celebration and bringing the Greetings of the Grand Lodge and a message. Joppa Lodge No. 530 in Charlotte invited me to their Awards Night where I presented twenty-five, fifty, and sixty year Veteran's Awards. Among those receiving recognition was Most Worshipful Walter F. McCall, P.G.M., with the twenty-five year Continuous Membership Award. Apex Lodge No. 584 sponsored a 26th Masonic District Banquet in my honor, at which time a portrait was presented to my lodge. I am grateful for the support of the members of my lodge and of the lodges in my District during the years that I have been serving the Grand Lodge. Thank you.

OTHER MASONIC ORGANIZATIONS

Raleigh Consistory of the Scottish Rite held a Grand Master's Class in the Spring. I was received on the third day of their Reunion and witnessed the conferral of the 31st and 32nd Degrees. During the year, I attended several meetings of my local Consistory. In the fall, I made an Official Visit to each of the eight Scottish Rite Valleys where I was appropriately received. In all but one Valley, Ill. H. Lloyd Wilkerson, 33°, S.G.I.G., was with me. In Asheville, I witnessed the conferral of the 18th, 20th, 22nd and 23rd Degrees; in Greensboro, the 4th and 5th Degrees; in Winston-Salem, the 32nd Degree; in Charlotte, the 26th, 27th and 30th Degrees; in Wilmington, the 27th, 29th and 30th Degrees; in Enfield, the 14th, 15th and 18th Degrees; in New Bern, the 10th, 11th, 13th and 14th Degrees, and in Raleigh, I conferred the 4th Degree and witnessed the 14th Degree. During the Spring Reunion in Raleigh, I was received by Ill. H. Lloyd Wilkerson, 33°, S.G.I.G., and proceeded to confer the 14th Degree. I attended the Investiture Ceremony in New Bern for those of our North Carolina Designates who had been elected by the Supreme Council during their Biennial Session to receive the Rank and Decoration of Knight Commander of the Court of Honour. We had sixty-one Designates, each of whom received a congratulatory letter from me as Grand Master. Among those selected to receive this honor were Right Worshipful Bunn T. Phillips, Junior Grand Warden, and Honorable David B. Sentelle, Judge of the United States Federal Circuit Court of Appeals in Washington, D. C., who served as the Exemplary Designate. I was the after-dinner speaker for the Raleigh Scottish Rite "Black-Tie" Dinner and was given the privilege of installing the officers of the Raleigh Coordinate Bodies. I gave the Maundy Thursday Address before the Knights Rose Croix of the Greensboro Bodies and the Easter Morning Address in Raleigh.

The York Rite Summer Assembly was held in Waynesville with Jerry G. Tart, S.G.W. and Grand High Priest of the Grand Chapter of Royal Arch Masons, serving as host. It was my privilege to give the keynote address. North Carolina York Rite Day was held in Monroe where I gave the 3rd Pillar Lecture (on the M.M.'s Degree) in the H.R.A.K.T.P. (an invitational group of Past Commanders of Knights Templar). I also presided as Commander in the East for Knight Crusaders of the Cross (members are Commanders or Past Commanders of Knights Templar). I participated in the conferral of the Order of High Priesthood, and I conferred the Thrice Illustrious Masters Degree. Each of the Grand Presiding Officers: Jerry Tart, G.H.P., Fred Daniels, Sr., I.G.M., William Hudson, G.C. and I gave the K.Y.C.H. Lecture for his particular body in the reception of members into Lily of the Valley Priory No. 1, Knights of the York Cross of Honor. I was privileged to host J. Ray Shute of Monroe, who was first Grand Master General of Convent General, and C. Franklin Smith of Florida, who was then serving as Grand Master General of Convent General. During the year, I attended two York Rite District Meetings and a dinner in honor of William Hudson, Grand Commander, in Raleigh where I participated in his "roasting." Raleigh York Rite Bodies held a Grand Master's Class where I was received and then conferred the Order of the Temple. I attended several meetings of my local York Rite Bodies during the year and was given the privilege of delivering a Christmas Message at the Annual Knight Templar Christmas Observance and installing the officers of the Chapter, Council and Commandery for the year 1988. I also attended the Annual Meeting of the Grand York Rite Bodies of North Carolina held in Wilson last month.

APPENDANT BODIES

My wife and I enjoyed the pageantry of THE SHRINE. We were guests at various times of each of our three Shrine Temples and we were always made to feel welcome, a part of the "Shrine family" and our every need was carefully attended. We participated in the Spring Ceremonials of Sudan Temple in Fayetteville and Amran Temple in Raleigh. We attended the First Ceremonial of Oasis Temple in their new Mosque in Charlotte and we participated in the SHRINE BOWL GAME OF THE CAROLINAS. I was given the opportunity of speaking before the mid-winter South Atlantic Shrine Association in Charlotte on Masonic-Shrine Relations by Ill. Doug Mayes, Past Potentate (Oasis) and President of S.A.S.A. During the year, I attended two meetings of Raleigh Court No. 186, Royal Order of Jesters.

My wife and I attended the Informal Opening of the Grand Chapter, Order of the Eastern Star and I brought the Greetings of the Grand Lodge. We also attended the Open Installation of Mrs. Opal Long, Worthy Grand Matron and her staff of officers. I participated in Rob Morris Day at the Masonic and Eastern Star Home and although it rained and we held the celebration inside, it was a great day and I appreciated having the opportunity of sharing in this annual event sponsored by the Grand Chapter, O.E.S. I brought Greetings and words of welcome to the Supreme Council, Order of the Amaranth which held their meeting in Charlotte this past year.

The two Conclaves in the North Carolina Division of the Red Cross of Constantine held their Annual Assembly in Raleigh where, as Intendant General, I convened a College of Viceroys and a Senate of Sovereigns for the purpose of investing those elected to that rank. As Grand Master, I gave the address at the Traditional Banquet on Chilvaric and Masonic Knighthood concluding with a Toast to the ladies. My wife and I attended a Knight Masons Ladies Night sponsored by Harp Cross and Eagle Council No. 3. I attended several A.M.D. local councils and as Chief Adept presided over three meetings of our Rosicrucian College (S.R.I.C.F.) I was elected Governor of North Carolina York Rite College No. 69 and presided over its meetings throughout the year. Piedmont College, U.D. (our fourth in North Carolina) was constituted with the members of N. C. College No. 69 conferring the degree, Knight of York, on the new members. Gerald Ringler, Grand Governor, Dallas Holoman, Past Grand Governor and I participated in the ceremonies. I was given the privilege of acting as Governor General for the Sovereign York Rite College of North America in the constituting ceremonies.

I attended State Conclave for the Order of DeMolay in Mount Olive where I acted as Grand Marshal in the ceremony of Investiture of those who received the degree, Legion of Honor. I was accorded the privilege of Knighting my son, Phil, who served as State Master Councilor in 1981-82. A Grand Master's Class was held in my honor in Raleigh where I was received and witnessed the Initiatory Degree and DeMolay Degree. Each were done in a professional manner. My after dinner address was on the development of PRIDE in their membership through devotedness to their seven cardinal virtues: Filial Love, Reverence for Sacred Things, Courtesy, Comradeship, Fidelity, Cleanliness and Patriotism.

I have had the opportunity to shake hands with literally thousands of our members this year. One of the great benefits of serving in this "high office" is to meet with you in your local communities and in your local organizations, to shake hands with you, and later to recall: "I SAT IN LODGE WITH YOU."

DISABLED PETITIONERS

The DOCTRINE OF THE PERFECT YOUTH states that those who present themselves as candidates for the Mysteries of Masonry, like the Priests who were allowed to enter the Holy of Holies or the animals used for "sacrifice" during the days of DAVID and SOLOMON, are to be free of maim or defect. The rules of Operative Masonry and "Anderson's Constitution" of the first Speculative Grand Lodge stated that a Master should not take unto himself an Apprentice who would become a burden or charge upon the CRAFT. In recent years, Grand Lodges have authorized the Grand Master to waive this rule under certain conditions, the belief being supported by our members that "It is the internal and not the external qualifications of a man that recommend him to be made a Mason."

During the year, sixteen (16) physical disabilities were approved. In each case, a District Deputy Grand Master made a personal investigation, and I wish to commend each of them for the efficient manner in which they handled these investigations.

Petitioner	Nature of Disability	Decision
A	Heart Failure	Approved 04-24-87
B	Four missing fingers of the right hand with right thumb functional	Approved 05-06-87
C	Atrophy of the left arm and shoulder secondary to Polio	Approved 05-28-87

M	Congenital "Mitral Valve" defect	Approved 01-23-88
N	Epilepsy	Approved 02-15-88
O	Arthritis of the Spine	Approved 02-15-88
P	Artificial Left Leg	Approved 03-04-88

DISPENSATIONS GRANTED

A number of dispensations were granted during the year as follows:

(a) Five (5) dispensations were granted for inter-lodge visitations with subordinate lodges in other Grand Jurisdictions.

(b) Seven (7) dispensations were granted to hold meetings other than at the regular meeting place. One of these was for a lodge that was host to the District Meeting. Three were for "out-door" degrees and four were for lodges that needed a temporary meeting place until their lodge was remodeled or built.

(c) One (1) dispensation was granted to ballot a second time on a Petition for the Degrees under the provisions of Regulation 76-16 of THE CODE.

(d) Sixteen (16) dispensations were granted to fill office vacancies created by resignations approved by me as Grand Master.

(e) Seven (7) dispensations were granted to hold an election of officers at a Stated Communication subsequent to the date prescribed by THE CODE due to the inability of the lodge to elect officers on the prescribed date.

(f) Four (4) dispensations were granted for the lodge to hold communications while the charter was being refurbished or recovered.

ONE STORY LODGE BUILDINGS

I am pleased to report to the Grand Lodge of North Carolina that I have had the opportunity to inspect a number of one-story lodge buildings throughout the State, all of which are handsome, comfortable and safe from cowans and eavesdroppers. I have therefore approved the plans for the construction of new one-story buildings by the following lodges:

Cherryville Lodge No. 505, Cherryville, 11-17-87

St. Patrick's Lodge No. 617, Princeton, 12-29-87

J. J. Crowder Lodge No. 743, Raleigh, 02-08-88

UNOFFICIAL OPINION

The question has been asked by the Worthy Patron of an Eastern Star Chapter, "Is there a Grand Lodge prohibition of a 'lodge' meeting on Wednesday?"

THE CODE of the Grand Lodge of North Carolina provides that the lodge shall not confer Degrees, lay Cornerstones or Dedicate Lodges or otherwise have Communications on SUNDAY, except that a lodge may be opened for the purpose of conducting a burial service or for the purpose of attending religious services. (Reg. 51-12).

A review of our current directory of subordinate lodges reveals that sixteen (16) of our lodges have stated communications on Wednesday nights. It has been necessary with sixty-five (65) individual District Meetings for some of these to be held on Wednesday night.

Freemasonry should never place itself in opposition to the Church. For this reason, lodges have been encouraged to avoid meeting on Wednesday in those areas where churches have Wednesday evening services.

You have reported to me that neither of two churches which are in close proximity to the lodge have Wednesday evening services.

THEREFORE, IT IS MY UNOFFICIAL OPINION that XXXXX Chapter No. XX, O.E.S., is not in violation of the Grand Lodge CODE or its policies in performing any of its lawful activities, under its own by-laws and Constitution and Laws of Grand Chapter, O.E.S., on Wednesdays.

Given under my hand and seal this 11th day of June, A.D. 1987, A.L. 5987.

It has been brought to my attention and the question has been asked by a member of Grand Lodge if the Resolution (Docket No. 36) adopted by the Grand Lodge in 1985 applies to the Grand Treasurer. The Resolution states, in part, "NOW THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, by the Grand Lodge of Ancient, Free and Accepted Masons of North Carolina: That all persons receiving compensation from the Grand Lodge, retire no later than the attainment of their 70th birthday. That Most Worshipful Brother James W. Brewer, Grand Treasurer, because of his long service to the Grand Lodge as Grand Treasurer, not be required to retire as Grand Treasurer until the attainment of his 75th birthday. This is the same courtesy extended to our late Most Worshipful Brother Charles A. Harris, Past Grand Secretary." (Pg. 110, 1985 Proceedings.)

An OPINION, as applied to this question, does not simply rest upon an interpretation of the meaning of the word "compensation."

The facts as relate to this question are as follows:

(1) Most Worshipful Brother Sam A. Hennis, Jr., Grand Treasurer, will be seventy years of age on June 27, 1987.

(2) There are no provisions in THE CODE that require mandatory retirement of any officer because of his age. There was, however, legislation introduced at the Annual Communication of 1975 that would have amended Reg. 12-11 to read, "The Grand Lodge shall not elect a Grand Secretary who shall have reached the age of sixty-five on or before the Annual Communication of the Grand Lodge. (Pg. 187). At the Annual Communication of 1975, there was also introduced a proposed amendment to add a new subdivision 12 to Reg. 61-02 to read, "No lodge shall elect a Secretary and/or Treasurer who shall have reached the age of sixty-five on or before the Annual Communication of the Lodge at which time the election of officers take place." (Pg. 191). Both of these proposed amendments were defeated without further amendment at the 1976 Annual Communication. (Pg. 138 and 144).

(3) The Resolution adopted in 1985, referred to earlier, states in its opening paragraph (Pg. 109), "WHEREAS, the Grand Lodge of A. F. & A. M. of North Carolina, in 1966 adopted a Resolution providing for a retirement program for all employees of the Grand Lodge, and WHEREAS, that Resolution required the retirement of all employees on the attainment of their 75th birthday, and . . ."

(4) The Resolution adopted in 1966 (Pg. 104-105) states, "WHEREAS, the Grand Lodge of A. F. & A. M. of North Carolina has never had a fixed program of retirement for the employees who have rendered service to the Grand Lodge for a long number of years, and WHEREAS, a special Committee of the Board of General Purposes was appointed to investigate the need for such a program and to study several plans of retirement submitted by various insurance companies and said committee after thorough investigation recommended the implementation of a Retirement Program; THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, . . . 1. That we heartily recommend the approval of the Retirement Program . . . presented . . . by the Security Life and Trust Company, said program stipulating that each participating employee contribute 4% of his salary with the Grand Lodge paying the difference in the annual premium of said program . . . 4. That all employees of the Grand Lodge must retire on the attainment of their 75th birthday. 5. That the Committee on Finance be authorized to include in its recommended budget the amount necessary to cover the cost of this program . . ."

(5) The "compensation" of the Grand Treasurer is $1,500.00 per year, which has been declined by the current Grand Treasurer.

(6) The Grand Treasurer is not a participant nor was any former Grand Treasurer a participant in the Retirement Program of the Grand Lodge.

Based upon the above facts as applied to the question put before me, IT IS THEREFORE MY OFFICIAL OPINION that:

(1) The Mandatory Retirement of all persons receiving compensation from the Grand Lodge on their 70th birthday adopted at the Annual Communication of 1985 and which refers to an earlier Resolution of the same kind adopted in 1966 applies only to those participating in the Grand Lodge Retirement Program (The Grand Secretary, and his office staff).

(2) That the last portion of the Resolution adopted in 1985 beginning with the words "That Most Worshipful Brother James W. Brewer," and concluding with "... Past Grand Secretary," is surplusage and did not at the time apply to James W. Brewer, then Grand Treasurer, or any future Grand Treasurer.

(3) That the Resolution adopted in 1985 does not apply to others who may receive "compensation" such as the Grand Lecturer, Certified Lecturers providing "Lecture Service" or Trial Commissioners, except those receiving "compensation" who are participants in the Grand Lodge Retirement Program. (Reg. 20-05 (7), Reg. 35-12 and Reg. 105-05).

(4) Specifically, the Grand Treasurer, Samuel A. Hennis, Jr., is a non-participant in the Retirement Program and is not covered by the Mandatory Retirement Resolution of 1966 and 1985.

Given under my hand and seal in the city of Apex, this 15th day of June, A.D. 1987, A.L. 5987.

OFFICIAL OPINION NO. 2

The Master of a lodge has requested an Official Opinion on the status of the organization "National Sojourners, Inc." A dispute arose in a tiled meeting of a lodge as to the legitimacy of National Sojourners following an invitation from a local chapter to the officers and their ladies of a subordinate lodge to attend one of their meetings.

Sec. 6-02 (6) of our Constitution states, "The recognition of any Rite, Body, or Organization named in this section shall not be prejudicial to the rights of any other legitimate Masonic organization."

The Masonic Service Association periodically sends to member Grand Lodges lists of legitimate Masonic Groups with location of National or Regional Headquarters and names and addresses of their officers. (The Grand Lodge of North Carolina is a Charter Grand Lodge Member of Masonic Service Association.) The National Sojourners is an organization predicated upon Masonic membership in a subordinate lodge of a legitimate, recognized Masonic Grand Lodge. Further, its members are Commissioned Officers of the Armed Forces, Warrant Officers, or Honorary Members from the Masonic Fraternity.

The National Sojourners is a strong, patriotic Masonic organization which offers its members opportunities to enjoy Masonic Fellowship in ways not provided in a subordinate lodge.

Chapters of National Sojourners have operated within this Grand Jurisdiction for many years including North Carolina Chapter No. 97 at Fort Bragg, Camp Lejeune No. 329, at Camp Lejeune and Piedmont No. 504 at Greensboro/Winston-Salem. Some of our North Carolina members have been honored to serve in National Offices and on Committees in National Sojourners, Inc.

IT IS THEREFORE MY OFFICIAL OPINION, that National Sojourners, Inc. is a legitimate Masonic Organization to which qualified North Carolina Masons may affiliate themselves and with whom North Carolina subordinate lodges may enjoy fraternal relations.

Given under my hand and seal in the city of Apex, this twenty-first day of December, A.D. 1987, A.L. 5987.

OFFICIAL OPINION NO. 3

I have been asked by a member of this Grand Lodge the following question: "May a member of a Masonic lodge owing obedience to a Grand Lodge, recognized by this Grand Lodge, but which does not reciprocate in agreements regarding dual membership, affiliate as a dual member in a North Carolina subordinate lodge?"

Reg. 60-05 and 60-05 (1) provide that a member of a lodge in another Grand Jurisdiction which does not forbid dual membership may affiliate with a North Carolina Lodge as a dual member.

Similarly, Reg. 60-05 (2) provides that a member of a North Carolina lodge may affiliate with a lodge in another Grand Jurisdiction which does not forbid dual membership.

Reg. 60-05 (3), however, has the following stipulation: "The membership of a dual member in a North Carolina lodge shall not be affected by his demission from the other lodge, but if he is excluded, suspended, or expelled for cause by the other lodge or Grand Lodge, his membership in a lodge in North Carolina shall terminate immediately upon receipt of notice duly certified by the other lodge and submitted by the Grand Lodge.

Based upon the above facts as applied to the question put before me, IT IS THEREFORE MY OFFICIAL OPINION:

(1) That Reg. 60-05 (3) is a part of the 1966 reciprocal agreement between Grand Lodges that permitted dual membership.

(2) That failure of a recognized Grand Lodge to reciprocate with the Grand Lodge of North Carolina substantially with our Reg. 60-05 (3) shall be considered prima facie evidence that dual memberships are forbidden.

(3) The determination as to whether another Grand Lodge forbids dual membership shall be made no later than at the time an application for affiliation is presented for certification by the Grand Secretary.

Given under my hand and seal in the city of Apex, this 1st day of March, A.D.1988, A.L. 5988.

ORDER NO. 1

It has been brought to my attention by the Grand Secretary's Office that Mount Hermon Lodge No. 118 elected K.W.H. to receive the Degrees on May 7, 1987 upon a Petition for the Degrees dated July 3, 1986; certified by the Grand Secretary on July 8, 1986; and withdrawn on August 7, 1986. Brother K.W.H. was given the First Degree on May 11, 1987.

The withdrawal of the Petition on August 7, 1986 terminated any further consideration of that Petition and the election on May 7, 1987 and the Initiation of Brother K.W.H. on May 11, 1987, are clearly illegal, even though the lodge interpreted the withdrawal was in error.

Since Brother K.W.H. is not responsible for this irregularity and has received the Entered Apprentice Degree in due form, he is not at fault nor can the Degree be taken from him. THEREFORE, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED:

1. That Mount Hermon Lodge No. 118 heal Entered Apprentice K.W.H. at the first stated communication following this Order, as provided in Regulation 94-05. He shall be re-obligated in the First Degree, in a lodge opened on that Degree, and after the candidate has been thus healed, he may be advanced when prepared as required in Regulation 80-01.

2. This Order shall be read in the lodge at the first stated communication following its receipt, and it shall be made a part of the minutes of that meeting.

3. The lodge Secretary shall report to the Grand Secretary within five days after the healing of this candidate that this Order has been complied with.

After having carefully considered this entire file on Brother K.W.H., I hereby reprimand the lodge for the action taken on this Petition.

Given under my hand and seal this twenty-seventh day of May, A.D. 1987; A.L. 5987.

ORDER NO. 2

It has been brought to my attention, and after investigation I have found, that Brother D.R.L., who was elected to receive the Degrees in Lexington Lodge No. 473, did on the night of his Initiation on April 23, 1987, refuse to use the word "swear" in being obligated and was allowed by the Master of the lodge to "affirm" his obligation.

Although it has become more permissive in our society to permit "affirmations" in lieu of "swearing" to a vow, the lodge was in violation of the very clear and positive language of Reg. 79-31 of THE CODE in permitting the candidate this latitude in receiving the Degree.

Brother D.R.L. has received the Degree and this cannot be taken from him; however, because of the irregularity in the way in which he received the obligation, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED:

1. That Lexington Lodge No. 473 provide no further instruction to Entered Apprentice D.R.L., nor shall he be allowed to advance until he shall be willing "to conform in every particular to any requirement of Masonry, the form, language, and text of its ritual . . ." Should Entered Apprentice D.R.L. later show willingness to conform to every particular of our ceremonies, the lodge will first "heal" him by re-obligating him in the First Degree, in a lodge opened on that Degree, and after the candidate has been thus "healed," he may be advanced when prepared as required in Regulation 80-01. [79-25, 81-07, 94-05].

2. The Grand Secretary and the Secretary of Lexington Lodge No. 473 shall make such notations on their records to insure that Brother D.R.L. has been "healed" before he is advanced.

3. This Order shall be read in the lodge at the first stated communication following its receipt, and it shall be made a part of the minutes of that meeting.

The Master of the lodge is hereby reprimanded for not following specifically the Ritual of the Grand Lodge of North Carolina as prescribed by THE CODE.

Given under my hand and seal at Apex, North Carolina, this 29th day of May, A.D. 1987, A.L. 5987.

ORDER NO. 3

Although sixty-five District Meetings were planned and held this year, prior to August 10th, six lodges failed to be represented at their District Meeting by their three principal officers, the Master and two Wardens. One lodge had an unexcused Junior Warden and another had both the Senior Warden and Junior Warden absent and unexcused. The names of the lodges and their respective officers are on file in the Grand Secretary's office. Each of these lodges and their respective officers received the following (or similar) letter:

It is the duty of the officers of the lodge, especially the Master and Wardens to attend not only the regular and Emergent Communications of said lodge, but the District Meetings, Schools of Instruction and Annual Communication of Grand Lodge. (This year the Special Communication on December 5th is also included). Officers have special responsibilities to attend these meetings that the general membership does not have.

Each of you failed in your duty and demonstrated lack of responsibility in your respective offices in not being present at your District Meeting held at XXXXX Lodge No. XX on month date and by not sending a request to be excused or an explanation for your non-attendance. THEREFORE, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED:

1. For the purpose of attending a District Meeting, your lodge is reassigned to the XXth Masonic District and you are severally and individually to be present at XXXXX Lodge No. XX on month date or be ready to show cause why your Charter should not be arrested. (Reg. 16-04, 46-18).

2. This ORDER shall be read in the lodge at the first stated communication following its receipt, and it shall be made a part of the minutes of that meeting.

The Master and Wardens of XXXXX Lodge No. XX are hereby reprimanded for failure to attend their District Meeting.

Given under my hand and seal at Apex, North Carolina, this XXth day of Month, A.D. 1987; A.L. 5987.

When three lodges failed to appear at a single District Meeting, I was prompted to write the following letter to all lodges whose District Meeting had not been held (those to be held after August 10th).

After completing thirty-five (35) District Meetings, I find that seven lodges failed to have its three principal officers present. This is inexcusable, particularly with sixty-five (65) individual District Meetings being conducted. Previously, I have reprimanded the officers and instructed the lodge to be present at a specified make-up meeting or to show cause why their Charters should not be arrested.

As opportunities for make-up meetings will become increasingly difficult to require, you are now on notice that failure of a delegate to Grand Lodge to attend his District Meeting, i.e. District Officer, Master and Wardens, shall be followed by a reprimand to be given in his lodge and made a part of the minutes of that lodge. Should the three principal officers of the lodge (Master and Wardens) fail to attend their District Meeting, they should be ready to show cause why they should not be removed from office (Reg. 16-04, 46-18).

The contents of this letter shall be made known to the Masters and Wardens of their lodges upon receipt and read in open lodge at the next stated communication following its receipt, and it shall be made a part of the minutes of that communication.

Given under my hand and seal at Apex, North Carolina, this 30th day of July, A.D. 1987; A.L. 5987.

Between July 30th and August 10th one more lodge, included in the eight above, failed to attend a District Meeting. Following August 10th, only one lodge failed to be represented by its two Wardens and who were not excused by the Master. The two Wardens were reprimanded and they did, in fact, make up the missed meeting at another District Meeting.

It is my strong conviction that officers of the lodge take on special responsibilities, in accepting an office, to the members of their lodge, to perform the duties of that office, to attend the lodge communications with regularity and to represent their lodge at District Meetings and Grand Lodge Communications.

ORDER NO. 4

It has been brought to my attention by the Grand Secretary's office that Beulaville Lodge No. 658 elected Brother M.H.M. to membership without complying with the following provisions of Regulations 76-01 and 83-22 of THE CODE:

1. The Application for Affiliation of Brother M.H.M. was read at a stated communication on August 4, 1987, and the ballot to elect him was taken at that same stated communication on August 4, 1987, without holding the said application over for the required twenty-eight (28) days.

2. The Application for Affiliation was not sent to the Grand Secretary for checking and recording and received by you duly certified by him before the ballot was taken to elect Brother M.H.M.

The ballot taken on August 4, 1987, to elect Brother M.H.M. is clearly illegal under the positive language of Regulation 76-01 of THE CODE and is, therefore, NULL and VOID, and your lodge must start all over again in the matter.

This ORDER shall be read to the lodge at the next stated communication after its receipt, entered on the minutes of that communication, and a proper notation made on the margin of the minutes for August 4, 1987, referring to this ORDER and the date it was recorded in the minutes.

Given under my hand and seal at Apex, North Carolina this 14th day of August, A.D. 1987; A.L. 5987.

ORDER NO. 5

It has been brought to my attention that in the October issue of the Desert Dust, an advertisement appears on page 16 that Mecklenburg Shrine Club will have its Annual BBQ on November 14th and in the lower left hand corner in small print, "Also! First of Three Turkey Shoots 'held by Meck. "La Mecks" This Date'." Further, advertisements of the Turkey Shoot on legal size paper were left in the lobby of the Scottish Rite Temple dining room last week. The dates of the Turkey Shoot were advertised for Saturday, November 14, 21, and 28 at 10:00 a.m. at the Mecklenburg Shrine Club on Harrisburg Road in Charlotte, sponsored by the Lamecs of the Mecklenburg Shrine Club.

After our close working association over the past two years, I am distressed Illustrious Sir, that you would permit such a violation of Masonic and Shrine law in this Grand Jurisdiction.

In the Call of the Imperial Council for the 1987 Session in Las Vegas on Page 29 under the topic LOTTERIES AND RAFFLES, it is reported: "It has come to the attention of the Imperial Potentate that one or more Temples and several Shrine Clubs have recently promoted lotteries or raffles. Federal law in the United States prohibits the use of the mails (Distribution of Desert Dust) for lotteries or raffles and the practice is also contrary to state law in most states. Attention is invited to § 335.1 of the Imperial By-Laws which makes such a practice contrary to Shrine Law as well."

Article 27, § 327.1 was amended in Las Vegas to add section (g) to the duties of the Potentate: "He may issue orders to Nobles, Clubs, Units and Organizations within his Jurisdiction to comply with matters over which he has authority. All such orders shall be confirmed in writing and mailed to the affected Noble or Nobles."

I am also concerned that the purpose for this fund-raising activity is not stated. In as much as the words "Shrine Club" appear twice on the flyer and since it is not modified elsewhere, in the mind of the public it would appear to be for the benefit of Shriner's Hospitals for Crippled Children. Certainly, the now required disclaimer, by executive order, was not on the advertisement. I understand that all fund-raising projects of Shrine Clubs and Units are under the direct control of the sponsoring Temple and its Potentate.

Further, I find that a Turkey Shoot through the sponsorship of the LaMecs, an arm of Mecklenburg Shrine Club under your direct control is a clear violation of THE CODE under Reg. 97-02 (31) which says in part: It is a Masonic Offense "To conduct, promote, participate in, profit by, aid or assist in any lottery, game of chance, raffle, door prize, or other device or activity by any name, whether or not permitted by public authority, whereby any individual participating may be able through the element of chance or skill, or a combination of the two, to receive a greater intrinsic value than he pays, or to make a wager or a side bet. This subdivision covers individual brethren and Masonic Bodies . . . and the so called collateral Bodies or other Organizations in North Carolina whose membership is dependent upon or related to Masonic Membership . . ."

IT IS THEREFORE MY ORDER THAT:

1. The Turkey Shoot advertised for November 28th shall be immediately cancelled.
2. That all proceeds realized from the first two Turkey Shoots held on November 14th and November 21st shall be turned over to the Recorder of OASIS TEMPLE and these funds shall be sent to SHRINER'S Hospitals for Crippled Children.
3. The Potentate of Oasis Temple will direct the Editor of Desert Dust to refuse to publish advertisements of prohibited fund-raising activities.
4. Upon discovery that a prohibited fund-raising activity has been advertised in an official publication, the Judge Advocate of the Grand Lodge is directed to prefer charges of Un-Masonic Conduct against the Potentate, Recorder, Editor of the publication and any other Master Mason involved in such prohibited activity.
5. The Recorder of Oasis Temple shall within ten days following the receipt of this Order document to me the compliance of all parties to this Order and forward to me a copy of the Audit and the receipt of funds designated for the "Shriner's Hospitals."

Failure to comply with this ORDER shall be considered just cause for the Judge Advocate to be directed to prefer Charges of Un-Masonic Conduct against the Potentate, Recorder and any Master Mason who may have promoted or participated in this or a similar future event.

Given under my hand and seal in the city of Apex, this 23rd day of November, A.D. 1987; A.L. 5987.

ORDER NO. 6

It has been brought to my attention, by the Grand Secretary's office, that Piedmont Lodge No. 711 failed to hold the Stated Communication for January 7, 1988, due to inclement weather, and then met a week later, January 14, 1988. At this communication, the lodge voted to remit the dues of Brother D.B.C. and to exclude Brothers M.E.M. and E.H.B.

Regulation 51-02 of THE CODE provides for holding a Stated Communication the following day after a legal holiday only for the election of officers at the first Stated Communication in December. Therefore, the meeting held on January 14, 1988, was not a Stated Communication and the action taken to remit the dues of Brother D.B.C. and to exclude Brothers M.E.M. and E.H.B. is NULL and VOID.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED:

1. That Piedmont Lodge No. 711 take another vote at their next Stated Communication to remit the dues of Brother D.B.C.

2. That the names of Brothers M.E.M. and E.H.B. be returned to the membership roster, and that each be given written notice of his illegal exclusion. Piedmont Lodge No. 711 must now proceed under Regulation 85-33 of THE CODE.

This ORDER shall be read to the lodge at the Stated Communication to be held on February 4, 1988, entered on the minutes of that communication, and proper notation made on the margin of the minutes for the Emergent Communication at which the illegal action was taken (January 14, 1988), referring to this Order and the date it was recorded in the minutes.

Given under my hand and seal at Apex, North Carolina, this 20th day of January A.D. 1988; A.L. 5988.

ORDER NO. 7

WHEREAS, it has been brought to my attention that there are irregularities in the "internal workings" of Fallston Lodge No. 356, and

WHEREAS, upon investigation I have found the following:

1. The lodge pledged its credit by receiving a loan from an individual member of the lodge (the Treasurer) which had not been approved by Lodge Service Commission in violation of Reg. 49-05 (1, 5, 6). Minutes of June 8, 1987 and check-book notation indicate this loan has been paid in full.

2. The lodge conducted through its members more than seventeen (17) fund-raising activities for the benefit of the lodge during the year 1987 in possible violation of Reg. 85-01.

3. Adequate records have not been maintained on Fund-raising activities of the lodge showing income and distribution.

4. Nearly $12,000.00 was deposited in the lodge checking account during 1987, of which lodge dues would amount to less than $3,400.00. In apparent violation of Reg. 85-01, which provides that all expenses of the lodge shall be paid from the dues of its members.

5. The Treasurer has drawn checks on the lodge without orders signed by the Master, attested by the Secretary and by consent of the lodge in violation of

Reg. 67-10 (14) and 67-15 (3).

6. The Master has been negligent in enforcing the Regulations of the Grand Lodge and the By-Laws of this lodge in violation of Reg. 67-10 (7).

7. The Secretary has failed to keep a cashbook and vouchers or orders to draw funds on the Treasurer.

8. The Treasurer has failed to keep ledger accounts of the various lodge funds under his control, to use proper receipts for lodge funds received from the Secretary, to file written reports on the financial condition of the lodge and to pay out funds of the lodge only on the written order of the Master and consent of the lodge in violation of Reg. 67-15 (2, 3, 4).

9. The Finance Committee of the lodge has failed to present audit reports on the books of the Secretary and Treasurer and to propose an annual budget in February each year for adoption by the lodge in violation of Reg. 69-03.

10. The lodge has failed to retain control over the financial affairs of the lodge in violation of Reg. 68-11, 49-02, 49-20, and 68-14.

WHEREAS, it has been admitted to me in Open Lodge that a "clique" has gained control of this lodge, and

WHEREAS, there is evidence to suggest that this "clique" unduly influenced the outcome of the election of officers of this lodge, and

WHEREAS, the lodge officers elected at their Annual Meeting in December have not been installed on my instructions,

THEREFORE, IT IS MY ORDER THAT:

1. The election of officers held on December 14th is hereby set aside and declared NULL and VOID.

2. A SPECIAL DISPENSATION has been issued for an ELECTION OF OFFICERS to be held at the Stated Communication on February 8, 1988 with the membership to have received due and timely notice of the election.

3. The following members are prohibited from holding office in any subordinate lodge in North Carolina for a period of five years from this date: F.A.W., P.G.P. and R. McC. H.

4. The lodge shall obtain from Brother F.A.W. a notarized statement that the indebtedness of the lodge to him has been paid and satisfied "in full." Copies of said statement shall be kept in the permanent file of the lodge and a copy sent to the Grand Master.

5. The Secretary shall immediately obtain the necessary books to maintain the lodge financial records in compliance with the Regulations of THE CODE and the By-Laws of this lodge.

6. A copy of the Lodge Budget shall be forwarded to the Grand Master upon adoption.

7. The lodge is placed under PROBATION for a period of THREE YEARS under the supervision of THE LODGE SERVICE COMMISSION. Brother William Mills, III, a member of that Commission is assigned to the lodge as its Representative until April 20, 1988 and thereafter as the Commission may direct.

8. The lodge is prohibited from engaging directly or indirectly in any fund-raising activities until April 20, 1988 and thereafter only as may be provided in THE CODE and upon the approval of their Representative from the LODGE SERVICE COMMISSION.

9. The lodge shall be careful to observe Reg. 85-01, 68-11 and 49-02.

Given under my hand and seal in the city of Apex, North Carolina this 4th day of February A.D. 1988; A.L. 5988.

ORDER NO. 8

You are not unknown to me as on October 15th last year, I wrote you a letter referring you to Regulations of THE CODE that enumerate the duties of a Freemason, the duties of a Master of a lodge and the duties of the District Deputy Grand Master.

Since you have become Master of G _____ Lodge No. ____, it has come to my attention that you have not only failed to show proper respect for my Personal Representative; you have also interfered with his continuing efforts to carry out his responsibility in inspecting the records of your lodge.

Upon investigation, I find you in violation of Reg. 64-06. "Each officer of a lodge shall be held personally responsible to the Master and through him to the lodge and the Grand Master that his office be filled with dignity, honor, and correctness, and that its various duties be performed fully, without haughtiness or tyranny, but according to the diligent desire to exemplify before the world the virtues and sublime morality of Freemasonry." and Reg. 67-10. Duties of the Master: (3) "... he shall surrender the chair to the Grand Master or his representative or the District Deputy Grand Master on their Official Visitations. (21) To convene his lodge upon the Official Visitation of the Grand Master or his representative, to extend to him the appropriate courtesies and, when called upon, to submit for his inspection the by-laws, and records of the lodge."

Acting under the provisions of Reg. 16-04 (5); 66-01; and 67-03, FOR THE GOOD OF MASONRY in general and G _____ Lodge No. ____ in particular, T.S.C. IS HEREBY SUSPENDED AS MASTER OF G _____ LODGE NO. _____

Further, it is my ORDER that you are prohibited from holding office in a subordinate lodge in North Carolina for a period of five years from the date of your suspension as Master of the lodge.

This Order shall be read at the next Stated Communication of G _____ Lodge No. ____ and made a part of the minutes of that Communication.

Given under my hand and seal in the city of Apex, this 25th day of March, A.D. 1988; A.L.5988.

PROPOSED AMENDMENTS TO THE CODE

Sometimes it seems that if a lodge desires to engage in some kind of new activity, a review of THE CODE will result in an interpretation, "You can't do it." The general language of our CODE provides that lodges may not engage in "commercial enterprises" even if the proceeds go to charity. Some fund-raising activities have been permitted by lodges over the years, but the activities and the conditions under which they may be sponsored remain a "gray-area." For that reason, the Grand Lodge Officers were charged twenty months ago to study THE CODE with respect to fund-raising activities by lodges and to propose changes in a positive language that would permit lodges under a given set of conditions to conduct fund-raising projects. After a great deal of study and debate, a set of Proposed Amendments were submitted at our Annual Communication in 1987. These have been presented and discussed at eight Area Meetings across the state in January and February of this year.

I seek your support and urge the adoption of the proposed changes in Reg. 49-03 (11), 49-03 (16), 97-02 (34), and 97-02 (31). Also, I urge the adoption of the new Regulations: Reg. 95-48 and Chapter 36-A. All of these are intended to clarify the position of the Grand Lodge with respect to subordinate lodges engagement in fund-raising activities, to advise the lodge through the designated committee how best to avoid violations in the Tax Code for Tax Exempt Organizations and how best to avoid engagement in a commercial enterprise that might open the door to the fraternity being declared: "Operating within the public domain."

I hope that you have studied these proposed changes and that you are prepared to vote in the best interest of the fraternity when they are reported out by the Committee on Jurisprudence this evening.

RECOMMENDATIONS

Many lodges, in an effort to involve the new member as a participant, which is of course commendable, place him in a position which should be held by more experienced members: Tyler and Coach. The Tyler, in order to perform his duty, should be one who knows most of the members of the lodge and the most frequent visitors to the lodge so that he can properly greet them and vouch for them. The Coach should be one who not only knows the catechism, but who has a wide and deep knowledge of the fraternity. He should be able to answer questions about Freemasonry in an accurate and knowledgeable way, and guide the new member in his Quest. He, of course, must also have the ability to teach. The fact that he has just passed his catechism examination in an admirable fashion does not qualify him to teach new members.

Many of our lodge officers and members do not know how to satisfy themselves that a visitor is a qualified member of the fraternity, eligible for the privilege of visitation. Some have never heard of the Tyler's Oath. Others put a visitor through an examination of all of the catechisms. It is no wonder that members who do not visit lodges with regularity do not return for fear of being embarrassed at their lack of knowledge in how to visit a lodge.

This year the Grand Lodge Officers, in celebrating the Bicentennial, have had the opportunity of Opening and Closing the Grand Lodge on several occasions. We have found that there are many inconsistencies in our Ritualistic Ceremonies which should be corrected. It is no wonder that the membership questions the accuracy of the Grand Lodge Officers in their ritualistic ability, even when they are doing the work "by the book."

It is therefore my recommendation that the Board of Custodians:

1. Develop and promote "Workshops for Coaches" which may be conducted on District or Area levels. The purpose of the workshop is to give Coaches an opportunity to share experiences, both positive and negative ones, which have arisen during coaching sessions and to provide resources which will enable them to help the Candidates in their QUEST. This should also give the Coaches an opportunity to share teaching techniques in Coaching, effective ways of teaching the Ritual and how to make the sessions interesting. D.D.G.L.'s should be given the added responsibility to assure themselves that Coaches are knowledgeable and accurate in the teaching of the Catechism and to assure themselves that the Coach is not using the O.S.W. in the presence of the Candidate.

2. Provide guidelines for the examination of visitors, from the checking of dues cards and assuring the identification of the visitor to the administration of the Tyler's Oath and the ESSENTIALS of the "examination."

3. Appoint a committee composed of the Grand Lodge Officers and Past Grand Masters who are Certified Lecturers to review and rewrite the Grand Lodge Ritualistic Ceremonies and submit the same to the Board of Custodians for approval.

I have stipulated in recommendation No. 3 the Committee to be appointed by this Board because these are the individuals who have had to work with this Ritual and who are most conscious of its variations.

The Grand Master's Committee on Masonic Research and Development are actively seeking to meet the challenge of:

1. Providing a Speaker's Bureau,
2. To investigate and evaluate innovative methods of presenting Masonic Subjects to individuals, lodges and other groups, and
3. To provide innovative Leadership Development Programs for subordinate lodges.

I recommend that this Committee become a Grand Lodge Standing Committee. Appropriate legislation will be introduced at this Annual Communication to be acted upon by the delegates to this Grand Lodge in 1989, which if adopted will accomplish this result.

The Grand Lodge of North Carolina belongs to a number of fraternal organizations that provide for communication and understanding between the various Grand Lodges of North America and, indeed, throughout the world. Through appropriations, we also provide additional support for a number of our Masonic charities.

I recommend that we continue to support, with our usual appropriations: Oxford Orphanage, The Masonic and Eastern Star Home, The Order of DeMolay, The Order of the Rainbow for Girls, The Masonic Service Association, The George Washington Masonic National Memorial Association, Conference of Grand Masters of Masons of North America, Conference of Grand Secretaries of Grand Lodges of North America and the Southeastern Masonic Conference.

HONORS AND AWARDS

The office of Grand Master and the individual serving in that office is honored in many ways. One of the ways in which lodges find pleasure in honoring such distinguished craftsmen is through the conferral of "Honorary" Membership. I was pleased to receive Honorary Membership in the following lodges bringing the total to eight lodges in which I hold such membership:

Catawba Lodge No. 248
St. Andrew Lodge No. 702
James B. Green Lodge No. 735

I received the Honorary Membership in the lodge in which I was "raised," Catawba Lodge No. 248, on the occasion of our Emergent Communication in Tarboro. St. Andrew Lodge No. 702 presented the Membership Certificate at the Emergent Communication in which that lodge was dedicated and James B. Green Lodge No. 735 presented its membership to me at its Ladies Night and Valentine Dinner. All of these were surprise presentations.

Although I hold Associate Membership in Sudan Shrine Temple, I was presented an Honorary Membership in that Temple, and I also received an Honorary Membership in Oasis Temple, which was the Shrine Temple in which I crossed the hot sands of the desert more than thirty-three (33) years ago.

I also received a Certificate of Honor from the Supreme Council of the Scottish Rite, S.J. by the Grand Commander, Fred Kleinknecht, 33° on the occasion of our Bicentennial Communication of the Grand Lodge.

Each of these special presentations has associated with it the memories of many good friends and Brothers and the special occasion surrounding their presentation. To each of you who remembered me in this way, thank you.

SHRINE—MASONIC RELATIONS

For eighteen years or more, we have enjoyed a strong program of cooperation and "unity" among the various Masonic Bodies, Appendant Organizations and the SHRINE. More than one-third and just less than half of our membership belong to one or both Masonic Rites (Scottish Rite or York Rite) and the SHRINE. The greatest problem area that gives us cause for concern between the Grand Lodge and the Shrine in North Carolina is in the area of fund-raising activities. As you know Reg. 97-02 (31) prohibits promotion or participation in lotteries, games of chance and raffles and the regulation applies to individuals as well as Masonic Bodies and those likely to be regarded as Masonic Bodies within the public mind (such as the SHRINE). When a violation involving the SHRINE has been brought to the attention of the Grand Lodge, the SHRINE has always been responsive in bringing about corrections. This speaks well for our Masonic-Shrine relations.

Unfortunately, some of our National Leaders within the IMPERIAL COUNCIL of the SHRINE are on a direct collision course with the several Grand Lodges.

At the Imperial Council Session held in Las Vegas in June of 1987, two proposals were on the Legislative Call which was of great concern to Masonic Leaders and the Craft. One proposal was to completely break relations with the prerequisite Masonic Bodies which would allow the Shrine to receive into membership any man of lawful age who was of good moral character and held a belief in God. This proposal was defeated, but there were more Representatives who voted for the proposal than you would have expected. It is possible that the proposal will again appear on the Legislative Call for the 1988 Session to be held in New Orleans later this year.

The second proposal provided that a member of the Shrine who lost his membership for any reason other than non-payment of dues could retain his membership in the Shrine providing his appeal to the Grievances and Appeals Committee was sustained by the Imperial Council and it was shown that he had not violated "Shrine Law." This proposal was adopted by an overwhelming majority of the Representatives. As you might expect, most of the Grand Lodges, through their Grand Masters, have called for the repeal of this piece of legislation at the next Session of the Imperial Council. In a letter to Mr. Voris King, Imperial Potentate, dated July 15, 1987, I wrote:

"To the credit of the Representatives of Imperial Council in Las Vegas last month, Legislative Call No. 4, an amendment calling for the deletion of Article 10 on prerequisite membership and changes in the language of Article 23, was defeated. However, the passage of Legislative Call No. 5 which would allow under Article 23 retention of membership through a mechanism that would invest the Grievance and Appeals Committee and the Imperial Council with powers to over-rule the results of a trial in a prerequisite body, a power which is unlikely to be delegated to it from the several Grand Lodges in whose jurisdictions you operate Shrine Temples, raises serious problems between the prerequisite Masonic Bodies and the Shrine."

Copies of the following sections of our Constitution were enclosed: Sec. 2-01; Sec. 2-04; Sec. 2-05; Sec. 2-06 (2), (7), (11); Sec. 6-03; and Sec. 6-04.

"It seems clear to me that the Shrine which has always been and is now exclusively Masonic in its membership and which has proudly identified itself with the Masonic fraternity through the use of the term "Shrine-Mason" is covered by these sections of our Constitution. Our Shrine-Masonic relations have been good in North Carolina through the exchange of visitation of our heads of the order at various functions. We are also proud of our Shrine Temples in the Carolinas and their activities in Support of Shriner's Hospitals. The largest gift for Shriner's Hospitals from any area in Shrinedom is given at the Shrine Bowl Game of the Carolinas held in Charlotte each December over the past fifty years. It would indeed be regrettable if such a philanthropic program should be hurt by poor communications and misunderstandings. However, it seems to me at this time, that should the Shrine implement this legislation, they would be assuming authority, powers and privileges not derived from the Grand Lodge which would immediately have the effect of causing the Shrine to be declared clandestine (Sec. 2-05) and which would have all of the immediate effects that would be destructive to the Shrine in North Carolina as well as our prerequisite Masonic Organizations. Since the Grand Lodge of North Carolina permits Masonic Lodges and Masonic Affiliated Organizations to provide laws and rules for its membership not in conflict with THE CODE of the Grand Lodge of North Carolina and as this piece of legislation adopted under Legislative Call No. 5 is clearly in conflict with the Constitution of the Grand Lodge of North Carolina, you should consider it non-operative in North Carolina and thereby rendered NULL and VOID.

Imperial Sir King responded in a letter dated August 4th in which he said, "The relations between the Grand Lodge of North Carolina and the Imperial Council have always been excellent . . . The amendment that was passed in Las Vegas does not eliminate the prerequisite requirements for becoming a Shriner. It merely states that, in the final analysis, the Imperial Council shall make the final determination as to whether a Shriner shall be suspended from the Shrine. In like fashion, the Grand Lodge of North Carolina makes the final determination as to whether a Mason shall be suspended from Masonry . . . Therefore, unless a suspension is based on arbitrary or capricious reasons, there will never be a conflict between a Grand Lodge and the Imperial Council.

. . . let me state in no uncertain terms that the Shrine of North America acknowledges that it CAN NOT — and assures you that it WILL NOT — make any effort to assume any of the authority, powers, or privileges of the Grand Lodge of your state."

I responded to the Imperial Potentate's letter on August 10th as follows, in part:

"I have not issued any EDICTS in this state as I do not feel it is warranted at this time. I think our Laws cover the situation adequately. The legislation which you passed in Legislative Call No. 5 is repugnant to this Grand Lodge and I believe it to be so with all of the other Grand Lodges. I would urge you to refrain from testing its validity in this Grand Jurisdiction. We have 71,000 Masons in the Grand Lodge of North Carolina, of whom nearly 30,000 are Shriners. Should I be forced into a situation where it would become necessary for me to declare the Shrine clandestine, I do not believe that we will lose 30,000 MASONS. How many SHRINERS would you lose and could you continue the Shrine Bowl Game of the Carolinas?

If the Grand Lodge suspends or expells a member, he is a non-affiliated Mason and thereby loses all privileges of Masonry: rights of visiting his own lodge, rights to a Masonic Funeral Service, privileges of visiting other lodges, and of joining or retaining membership in organizations predicated upon membership in the Masonic Fraternity. You have no right to review, much less pronounce judgement on, a Masonic Trial except through the proper forum through the Grand Lodge Committee on Appeals, or the floor of the Grand Lodge by one of its representatives.

Your last paragraph states that ' . . . in no uncertain terms . . . the Shrine of North America acknowledges that it CAN NOT — and assures you that it WILL NOT — make any effort to assume any of the authority, powers, or privileges of the Grand Lodge . . . ' Imperial Sir, you already have done so by adopting the changes in your Law through the passage of Legislative Call No. 5 of the 1987 Session. However, this Grand Lodge is willing to wait until the 1988 Session for a repeal of this ill-advised legislation before taking affirmative action, unless it is brought to our attention that you have implemented this law in our Grand Jurisdiction."

I understand that Representatives from each of the three Shrine Temples in North Carolina have agreed to jointly introduce legislation to repeal "Proposition 5" at the 1988 Imperial Session or that it will be introduced by one Temple and supported by resolutions from the other two Temples. I am proud of our North Carolina Shrine-Masons. I only hope that those who have been selected as Representatives of their Temples to the Imperial Council will be able to have their voices heard.

REFLECTIONS

The Grand Lodge year, 1987-88, has passed away all too rapidly. It seems like only yesterday that I was standing here after taking the Oath of Office. The year has been filled with one mountain-top experience after another. Many of these have been reviewed in other sections of this report, but there are a few that I am determined to share with you.

The first meeting that we had after my installation was a Master Masons Degree in Wilson. I had decided that we would not talk about Masonic Unity or Masonic cooperation this year, but that we would "act it out." For that reason, Right Worshipful L. R. (Pete) Thomas, D.G.M. and Potentate of Sudan Temple, served as Senior Warden; Right Worshipful Jerry Tart, S.G.W. and Grand High Priest, served as Junior Warden; M. I. Fred Daniels, Sr., Grand Master of the Grand Council, served as Senior Deacon; R. E. J. William Hudson, D.D.G.M. (25) Grand Commander, served as Junior Deacon and W. H. Lloyd Wilkerson, Grand Orator and S.G.I.G. of the Scottish Rite, served with me in the East. The meeting was well attended by Representatives of lodges in the District and members of all branches of the fraternity including DeMolay leaders. Just a few weeks ago, on invitation from Worshipful George Aycock, Master of Wayne Lodge No. 112 in Goldsboro, each of the Grand Lodge Officers filled his station and we conferred the Master Masons Degree on Brother Mike Spencer, immediate Past State Master Councilor of DeMolay. This was a unique meeting and I thank everyone who had a part in making it such a success.

Just before the first Board of Directors Meeting at the Masonic and Eastern Star Home, I made an unannounced visit to the Home and the Care Center. As I visited with some of our Brothers and Sisters, I told them who I was and asked if I could sit with them for awhile. Some of them said, "Who did you say you were young man?" to which I replied, "I am Eddie Stiles. I am the Grand Master." Many of them responded, "I can't believe the Grand Master has come to visit me!" It was a treat for both them and for me. I only wish that I would have had more time to visit with our Brothers and Sisters.

Prior to the Bicentennial Communication in Tarboro, I visited with Brother Hurshell Baggett, our local General Chairman, and on his suggestion I visited with Worshipful Brother Kornegay, P.M. of Concord Lodge No. 58. Although terminally ill, his spirits were high and the visit was filled with hope and inspiration. I also had the pleasure of visiting with Brother Admer Wall, member of Elkin Lodge No. 454 in his home. He is ninety-eight years young and has been a Master Mason for more than seventy-six years. The meeting was arranged by Worshipful Brother Dan Kiger, Master of the lodge.

I was so very pleased to receive a symbolic check from the members of Green Level Lodge No. 277, a lodge in my District, representing two hundred dollars per member to the North Carolina Masonic Foundation, Inc. Most Worshipful A. C. (Jack) Honeycutt had challenged the lodges to meet this goal by our Bicentennial Year. This lodge did it. They also built and paid for a new Temple during this time.

A personal achievement was to pass the re-certification examination as a Certified Lecturer during this year amid all of my other activities. To the Board of Custodians, the examiners and those who have kept me proficient; thank you.

Some of the really great times have been "on the road" when my wife could be with me. Such times were ten days we spent in the mountains of North Carolina during the District Meetings. Traveling with us most of that time were: the Grand Secretary and his wife Doris, Pat Cox and his wife Susan and "little Pat." It was great to have time to visit and to get to know one another and to have some time for sightseeing. While in Florida, Loretta and I had an opportunity to visit Epcot Center, Sea World, and we ate one night at a Medieval Castle with Worshipful Otto Neustadt, Judge Advocate, Right Worshipful Jerry Tart, S.G.W. and his wife Zee. Another great moment during the year was at Manteo during the Grand Officer's and Board of General Purposes' Retreat, held there during the early fall. We had three or four days in which to conduct our business and to get to know one another. We had time for sightseeing, lying in the sun and playing in the water. On one special day, Pat Cox and his wife Susan, Loretta and I went sail boating under the supervision of our Junior Grand Deacon, Worshipful Willett Tillett. I learned to hold the rudder on the boat — my first sailing experience. And the seafood . . . WOW . . . Willett and Jeanine, how can we ever tell you how much the success of that meeting was due to your planning and work. Of course, I will also remember that "my officers" threw me in the pool before we came home.

Most Worshipful Robert Singer, Grand Master of New York, became a very close friend this year. He carried out a Positive Program on Freemasonry, as have we. He served as Chairman of the Grand Masters Conference while I was Chairman of the Grand Masters Conference Committee. Together we produced and presented a very successful program on "Freemasonry — a Positive Influence." The personal contact and relationship was important to the development and success of that meeting.

Finally, to everyone who participated in and who helped with the planning and execution of the Bicentennial Meetings . . . the one in Tarboro as well as the one in Raleigh, you created the success of this Grand Lodge year. The success has not been in the crowds, but it has been in the individual contacts that have been brought about through our meetings. This, my Brothers, is the way that Freemasonry works. This is Freemasonry in action.

Some people ascribe great wisdom to their leaders . . . Grand Masters included. I'm reminded of a story. A young arrogant youth wanted to test the wisdom of an older leader, the wise man of his tribe. He hid a rock in his hand and held them out to the wise old man and asked, "Old Man, what have I here?" The Wise One pointed to one of his hands and said, "a rock." The young man was angered at the correctness of the answer and was determined to make a fool of the Wise One. He decided to return with a bird in his hand. Again he would ask, "Old Man, what have I here?" and if he answered, "a bird," he would ask, "Is the bird alive or is it dead?" If the Old Man said it was alive, he would snap its head with his fingers and show him a dead bird. If he said it was dead, he would open his hand and let it fly away. He came before the Old Man with the bird in his hand and said, "Old Man, what have I here?" The Wise One replied, "a bird." He asked, "Is the bird alive or is it dead?" The Old Man said, "It is as you wish!"

My Brothers, I have here the Fraternity of Freemasonry. What is the state of the Craft? IT IS AS YOU WISH!!!

APPRECIATIONS

GRAND LODGE OFFICE

I hope that many of you have taken the opportunity of visiting our Executive Offices on Glenwood Avenue during our Bicentennial Communication, at sometime during the year, or during this Annual Communication. The building has been brought up to "standard" in preparation for our Bicentennial Year and "to see it is to be proud of it." You can also be proud of our office staff. The job of being Grand Secretary, has to be made easier by the quality of our staff: Joyce Watson, Jean House and Cornelia Hawley. These are the people who keep the office running smoothly. I had to serve this year as Grand Master to really appreciate all the things they do. My year was certainly made easier, just knowing they were there and by the many efficient tasks carried out by them when their assistance was needed. Despite their busy office loads, they were never too busy to assist me in any undertaking I requested of them. They have certainly contributed to my having a most rewarding year. Thank you for all the things you do for our fraternity and for the Freemasons across this state.

ASSISTANT TO THE GRAND SECRETARY

Worshipful Walton Clapp, our Assistant to the Grand Secretary, attended nearly half of the District Meetings and shared with others who traveled with me the office of "Grand Chauffeur." He made presentations for the Grand Secretary's Office and had major responsibilities in the arrangements for our Bicentennial Communication as well as this Annual Communication. Brother Clapp also assisted me in analyzing alternative solutions to problems and served as Recording Secretary for some "special" meetings. I am grateful to you for your loyal support and for the fine work you do for the Grand Lodge and its more than 70,000 members.

GRAND SECRETARY

The DeMolays have a slogan, "So goes the Scribe; so goes the Chapter." This applies to our lodges and to our Grand Lodge. In order to give our Assistant to the Grand Secretary more "on the road" experience. Right Worshipful Robert P. Dudley, Grand Secretary, attended a little more than half of the District Meetings. He traveled with me to all of the Area Meetings and we traveled together on other occasions. We were in almost daily contact by phone and on Wednesday afternoons, if we were not "on the road," we were in "face to face" contact working on the problems of the Grand Lodge. I have maintained a Medical Practice this year and yet, I reported in several of our meetings that it took two of them (the Grand Secretary and his Assistant) to keep up with me. However, I want you to know that I appreciate the guidance, counsel, and assistance that our Grand Secretary has provided. We did not agree on every issue. But when a decision was made, he supported me and I have been a "better" Grand Master for his help. The Grand Lodge of North Carolina is fortunate in having a man with his experience, dedication, sincerity and concern to serve as our Executive Secretary.

Were I to ask those who are thirty-five years of age and under to stand and then ask those who are forty-five years of age or under to stand, and finally those who are fifty-five years of age and under to stand, we would find our Grand Secretary still sitting behind his desk. In the District Meetings, I would then invite the Grand Secretary to stand up and give his report. However, today, I am going to request our Grand Secretary to stand up (now) and receive the approbation of this Grand Lodge. Pete, WE ARE PROUD OF YOU.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

To Most Worshipful Brother E. Stansil Aldridge, I will always be grateful for your appointment as Grand Steward, the beginning of the Grand Lodge Line that has lead me to this office. Were it not for you, I would not be here today.

To the members of this Grand Lodge, I express my sincere appreciation for the opportunity of serving you as Grand Master. I am grateful for your support and for the many words of encouragement you have given me throughout the year.

To the members of my lodge, Apex No. 584, I thank you for being with me last year, for closing the Grand Lodge following my installation, for the dinner you sponsored in my honor and for all the things you have done over the years in my behalf. Again, thank you.

To Allen L. Bruner, P.M. and Secretary of Apex Lodge No. 584. You took time away from your business to travel with me to a large number of District Meetings and other meetings. Your willingness to drive some of the long trips allowed me time to sleep so that I could carry on my Medical Practice. Although words seem inadequate, please accept my thanks for your company, your counsel and for letting me sleep.

Although Tommy Jones, Superintendent of the Masonic and Eastern Star Home and Don Moul, Superintendent of Oxford Orphanage did not travel with me, they held Area Meetings with lodge Representatives for support of our two Homes. I am grateful for the work that each of you do on behalf of those who depend upon us. Thank you.

To each of the District Deputy Grand Masters and District Deputy Grand Lecturers, you have probably been called upon to do more things this year than at anytime in the past. For all the work you do for our great fraternity, I'm truly grateful. The work you have done this year has served to strengthen our Craft and it does not go unrecognized.

Each of our Past Grand Masters has in his time been my Grand Master. Each of them has been available for consultation and has offered needed counsel when called upon. To each of you, I am grateful for your service. Thank you for always being there.

I could not have served at a better time, this being the 200th Anniversary of our Grand Lodge. I have had the honor of having the best line of officers one could ever gather around himself. We have had stimulating meetings and good fellowship. I have appreciated your loyal support and to each of you I thank you for your counsel and your words of encouragement.

For special services rendered, recognition is given to M.:W.:J. Earl Watson, P.G.M.; M.:W.:Walter F. McCall, P.G.M.; M.:W.:Maurice E. Walsh, P.G.M.; M.:W.:Sam A. Hennis, Jr., P.G.M.; M.:W.:Nathaniel C. Dean, P.G.M.; M.:W.:William W. Mims, Jr., P.G.M.; and W.:William L. Mills, III, P.M. Each of you have served the Grand Lodge in various ways and each of you have answered the call for special assignments. Thank you for your advice, your counsel, your words of encouragement and most of all for just being there with your support.

To my office staff, physicians in my community, and my patients; thank you for your understanding and for helping me with my schedule which permitted me to serve the Masons of this state as Grand Master.

To my wife, Loretta: I told you that you would share me with Masonry more this year than anytime in the past. You did. But, we also had a lot of time together and we shared in a mission that will give us many pleasant memories in the days and months that will follow. Thank you for being there for me.

Finally, I leave the office of Grand Master with but one regret — that I was unable to meet more of you personally. It has been a special privilege to have served this Grand Lodge and its more than 70,000 Masons as Grand Master during the celebration of our Bicentennial. Thank you for making it a very special year. May God bless each of you.

Sincerely and Fraternally,

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF CUSTODIANS

(Docket No. 35)

The following report of the Board of Custodians was read by W. E. Floyd Dunn, P.M., Secretary, entered on the record, adopted by sections, then adopted as a whole:

To the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of North Carolina:

The Board of Custodians held five (5) meetings since the last Annual Communication of the Grand Lodge.

FIRST MEETING

June 12, 1987. The Board met in the Grand Lodge Office Building, Raleigh, N.C. with all members present with the exception of Brother Edwin R. Todd.

As provided in Regulation 35-02 of the Code the following were elected: J. Earl Watson, Chairman; E. Floyd Dunn, Secretary.

Motion made by Brother Kolen Flack, seconded by Brother N. C. Dean that Franklin Lodge No. 109, Cherry Point Lodge No. 688 and Crissie Wright Lodge No. 741 be directed to hold Lecture Service. Motion carried.

Matthews Lodge No. 461, Joppa Lodge No. 530, Williams Lodge No. 538, Charles M. Setzer Lodge No. 693, Keystone Lodge No. 726 and Friendship Lodge No. 700 were directed to hold Lecture Service.

The Secretary was instructed to inform the D.D.G.M. in District 10 that it was the duty of the D.D.G.L. to call Schools of Instruction.

The Grand Master was recognized and informed the Board that he had a Research and Development Committee. This committee is to work up material or kits to be available for speakers that might travel to lodges to make educational talks. This material or kits are to be available to the Board of Custodians to be distributed to the District Deputy Grand Lecturers.

The Grand Master read an order that had been mailed and directed the Board to mail a copy of the same to all D.D.G.Ls and D.D.G.M.s reminding them of the very clear and positive language in Reg. 79-31 wherein a candidate refused to use the word "swear" in being obligated.

SECOND MEETING

September 4, 1987. A meeting of the Board of Custodians was held in the Grand Lodge Office Building with all members present with the exception of Brother J. Earl Watson.

The Secretary reported that everything was ready for the Certified Lecture Examinations to be held September 21-25, 1987.

Motion made by Brother Horne and seconded by Brother Shipton that Brother Ernest Odom be appointed to fill out the unexpired year of Brother Cagle, DDGL-20. Motion carried.

Brother John W. Moore was appointed to complete this year as DDGL-64. Motion made by Brother Todd, seconded by Brother Horne and carried.

Motion made by Brother Todd, seconded by Brother Dean and carried that Liberty Lodge No. 714, Asheboro Lodge No. 699 and Mt. Pleasant Lodge No. 569 be directed to hold Lecture Services.

THIRD MEETING

January 15, 1988. A meeting of the Board of Custodians was held in the Grand Lodge Office Building with all members present.

The Grand Master presented to the Board of Custodians three recommendations that he planned to make in his report on the State of the Craft at the upcoming Annual Communication.

The Secretary gave the following report on the Certified Lecture Examinations:

The question as to how a candidate on the Second Section of the Master Masons was to be conveyed about the lodge. After considerable discussion a motion was made by Brother Dean seconded by Brother Flack that the answer be conveyed by canvass and no rolling conveyance regardless of the size of the candidate. Motion carried.

Letter from the incoming Grand Master was read concerning the appointment of the new Grand Lecturer. The name of Brother William J. Clark, Berne Lodge No. 724 was suggested as the new Grand Lecturer. Motion made by Brother Horne and seconded by Brother Flack that recommendations of the incoming Grand Master be followed. Motion carried.

On motion by Brother Todd, seconded by Brother Flack and carried Carthage Lodge No. 181, Albemarle Lodge No. 703, Meadow Branch Lodge No. 578, Hank's Lodge No. 128, Marietta Lodge No. 444, Lebanon Lodge No. 207, Tabor Lodge No. 563, Waccamaw Lodge No. 596, Chadbourn Lodge No. 607, Bladen Lodge No. 646, Shallotte Lodge No. 727, Fair Bluff Lodge No. 190 and North Wilkesboro Lodge No. 407 be directed to hold Lecture Service.

The Chairman appointed Brothers Flack, Shipton, Horne and Dean to study and develop a workshop for coaches as recommended by the Grand Master and report back at the March meeting of the Board.

The Chairman appointed Most Worshipful Grand Master Eddie P. Stiles to chair a committee of Past Grand Masters, Grand Masters and Grand Lodge officers who are Certified Lecturers to review and rewrite the Grand Lodge Ritualistic Ceremonies and submit the same to the Board of Custodians for approval. The Board to be given adequate time for review prior to approval.

Motion made by Brother Dunn and seconded by Brother Todd that we return to mandatory Lecture Service. It was suggested every two (2) years with an extension of one (1) year. The chairman appointed Brothers Flack, Horne, and Shipton to work up a method and present the same to the Board of their approval at their meeting in March.

FOURTH MEETING

March 10, 1988. The meeting of the Board was held in the Grand Lodge Office Building with all members present with the exception of Brother J. Earl Watson.

On motion by Brother Todd and seconded by Brother Dean and carried, the following lodges were directed to hold Lecture Service: South Fork Lodge No. 462, Mount Holly Lodge No. 544, Lowell Lodge No. 590, Belmont Lodge No. 627 and Stanley Lodge No. 713.

The Secretary offered the following Resolution: "Be it resolved by the Board of Custodians at their meeting on March 10, 1988 that the Lodge Lecture Service Fee be set at $40.00 for the coming Grand Lodge year."

Motion made by Brother Dean and seconded by Brother Horne and carried the resolution be adopted.

RESOLUTION

"Be it resolved by the Board of Custodians at their meeting on March 10, 1988 that the Lodge Lecture Service Fee be set at $40.00 for the coming Grand Lodge year."

The Board of Custodians regrets the loss by death of the following Certified Lecturers. Their passing is a deep loss to Masonry and the Grand Lodge.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON MASONIC JURISPRUDENCE

Report No. 1
(Docket No. 36)

To the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of North Carolina:

We have considered the following amendments to THE CODE as submitted by the Committee on Unfinished Business which were presented at the Annual Communication of the Grand Lodge held on April 21, 1987, to be acted on at this Annual Communication. The various proposals have been grouped according to their inter-relationships. Those sections obviously related and which cannot stand independently were grouped together by the Committee on Masonic Jurisprudence. This was done for clarification purposes and for ease in consideration by the Grand Lodge. The committee recommends that they be considered by the Grand Lodge in such groupings unless there is objection. (There were no objections.)

Amend the CODE by adding a new regulation as follows:

REG. 95-48. A subordinate lodge desiring to conduct fund-raising activities for Masonic Charity may do so if the activity is one of the following; provided that the activity is conducted over a period of no more than three days and is conducted no more often than semi-annually and providing the lodge keeps careful financial records of the project and shall protect itself against general and special liabilities. (Reg. 85-01; 33-01 (3, P).

(A) The sale of food or food products

(B) The sale of pre-priced goods, providing the marketing of such items shall not be perceived as a discredit to Masonry.

(C) The sale of items by AUCTION.

Either substantially all of the work performed by or on behalf of the Lodge in preparing, delivering or selling food or goods shall be performed by members of the Lodge or others on a volunteer basis without compensation or substantially all of the food or goods sold must be received by the Lodge as gifts or contributions.

(1) A subordinate lodge desiring to conduct any other fund-raising activity shall first submit an application detailing the planned project and its purpose to the Grand Lodge Committee on Subordinate Lodge Special Activities and must receive its approval before actively undertaking the said project. [Reg. 36A-04(3)]

(2) A subordinate lodge conducting any of the above projects without obtaining prior approval when required or in a manner other than allowed by this regulation or who shall divert funds for other than the stated purpose, shall be required to show cause why its charter should not be arrested.

(3) A subordinate lodge conducting any fund-raising activity shall file a financial report on that project within 60 days after its completion with the office of the Grand Secretary and the Grand Lodge Committee on Subordinate Lodge Special Activities. The Lodge shall report the type of project and purpose for which it was conducted, funds to be accounted for and its distribution of income.

Amend REG. 33-01 (3) by adding a new sub-section "P":

P. Subordinate Lodge Special Activities. (Chapter 36-A).

The Committee recommends the adoption of these proposed amendments. (Adopted. Effective immediately — April 19, 1988).

CHAPTER 36-A
COMMITTEE ON SUBORDINATE LODGE SPECIAL ACTIVITIES

REG. 36 A-01. The Committee on Subordinate Lodge Special Activities shall consist of three members to be nominated by the Board of General Purposes and elected by the Grand Lodge as follows: [33-01(3P); 33-07; 33-17].

1. Each member of the committee shall be a Past Master of a subordinate lodge in this jurisdiction well versed in the law of this Grand Lodge and in the usages and customs of the Craft and shall be experienced in handling business matters pertaining to subordinate lodges.

2. The first members elected to the committee shall serve as follows: One for three years, one for two years and one for one year; at each annual communication the Board of General Purposes shall nominate one qualified brother to serve for three years. The Committee shall elect its chairman.

3. In the event of a vacancy on the committee by death or for any other cause the Grand Master shall fill the vacancy by appointment for the unexpired term.

REG. 36 A-02. The committee shall meet upon call of the Grand Master or Chairman and its business may be transacted by correspondence.

REG. 36 A-03. A quorum shall consist of two members.

REG. 36 A-04. The duties, powers, and authority of the Subordinate Lodge Special Activities Committee shall be:

1. To investigate any matter, subject or thing pertaining to fund-raising activities by subordinate lodges. Such investigation may be made by one or more members of the committee, but the report should be made by at least a majority of the committee.

2. To adopt from time to time such rules as may be necessary to govern fund-raising activities as provided in Reg. 95-48 (2).

3. To report to the Grand Master and to the Grand Lodge all the facts pertinent to any inquiry or investigation with such recommendations as the committee may deem proper.

4. To consider and act upon all applications of lodges or brethren in connection with or relating to fund-raising activities as provided in Reg. 95-48 (2).

5. To call for and examine any record, book, or account of any subordinate lodge in this jurisdiction which may be the object of or within the scope of its investigation; to order and require the attendance of any Masonic witness, as may be necessary or advisable to the proper discharge of its duties. All powers and authority set forth in this paragraph are to be exercised under the direction of the Grand Master.

REG. 36 A-05. The members of the committee shall be reimbursed by the Grand Lodge for any reasonable expense incurred in the performance of their duties, but no member shall receive compensation for his services (Reg. 33-13).

(Adopted. Effective immediately — April 19, 1988).

Amend Reg. 49-03 (11) to read as follows:

REG. 49-03 (11). The holding or sponsoring by a lodge of lotteries, raffles, games of chance, gambling, or any activity which would discredit Masonry, is prohibited notwithstanding the proceeds may be contributed to charitable objects. [49-04 (1); 97-02 (31, 34)].

Amend Reg. 97-02 (34) to read as follows:

REG. 97-02 (34). To use or allow the use of lodge room for lotteries, raffles, games of chance, card parties, dances, gambling, or other purposes which would discredit Masonry or would be a violation of Regulation 49-03 (16). [49-03 (11)].

The Committee recommends the adoption of these proposed amendments.
(Adopted).

Amend Reg. 97.01 by adding Paragraph 6 to read as follows:

REG. 97.01.

6. This chapter covers both individual brethren and Masonic bodies in this jurisdiction; and the so-called collateral bodies or other organizations in North Carolina whose membership is dependent upon or related to Masonic membership or which are likely to be regarded as Masonic organizations in the public mind as well as individual Masons, within the Jurisdiction of the Grand Lodge, are enjoined and required to respect the purposes of this regulation.

The Committee recommends the rejection of this proposed amendment.
(Rejected).

Amend Reg. 97-02 (31) to read as follows:

REG. 97-02 (31). To conduct, promote, participate in, profit by, aid or assist, in the name or in behalf of Masonry, in any lottery, game of chance, raffle, or other gaming device, or any activity by any name, whether or not permitted by public authority. This subdivision covers both individual brethren and Masonic bodies in this jurisdiction; and the so-called collateral bodies or other organizations in North Carolina whose membership is dependent upon or related to Masonic membership or which are likely to be regarded as Masonic organizations in the public mind as well as individual Masons, within the Jurisdiction of the Grand Lodge, are enjoined and required to respect the purposes of this regulation. In addition to the power and authority contained in Chapter 66 of THE CODE, the Grand Master shall have the authority to direct the Judge Advocate to institute a Masonic Trial against any Master Mason within the Jurisdiction of the Grand Lodge whom he believes, after investigation, to have been or is a party to the promoting of a lottery, game of chance, or a raffle of any kind or character.

The Committee recommends the adoption of this proposed amendment.
(Adopted).

Amend Reg. 60-12 to read as follows:

REG. 60-12. It is a Masonic offense for any brother or any lodge to issue or to be voluntarily a party to the issuing or to the circulating of a chain letter, in the name of or in behalf of Masonry, containing (1) a promise of a personal reward or gain, (2) a threat of any nature, or (3) a solicitation of any kind. Upon conviction of the brother, the maximum penalty shall be suspension for not less than three years for the first offense; and for any succeeding offense the penalty shall be named by the Trial Commission under the Trial Code. If a lodge be guilty, the penalty shall be a fine of not less than $100.00 or the arrest of its charter. [97-02 (51)].

The Committee recommends rejection of this proposed amendment.
(Rejected).

Amend Reg. 22-01 (1) by adding subsection "F" to read as follows:

REG. 22-01 (1). F. When changing any Grand Lodge dues, fees or assessments.

The Committee recommends rejection of this proposed amendment.
(Rejected).

Amend Reg. 60-05 by deleting the entire regulation and substituting the following to make Reg. 60-05 to read as follows:

REG. 60-05. No member of a lodge in North Carolina shall hold active or regular membership, or the equivalent thereof, in any other lodge, either within or without the state. Dual or plural membership is prohibited. Honorary membership as described in Reg. 89-01 is not prohibited. [83-01; 89-01; 97-02 (42)].

Amend Reg. 83-01 to read as follows:

REG. 83-01. A member of a North Carolina Lodge while retaining such membership shall not hold active or regular membership, or the equivalent thereof, in any other lodge, either within or without the state. Dual or plural membership is prohibited. Honorary membership as described in Reg. 89-01 is permitted. [60-05; 97-02 (49)].

The Committee recommends rejection of this proposed amendment.
(Rejected).

REG. 51-02. A lodge shall hold at least one stated communication each calendar month; except, however, if a quorum of at least of seven (7) members are not present because of inclement weather, or other acts of God, then that stated communication may be cancelled for that month and the Grand Secretary notified of that action; however, it may provide in its by-laws for the omission of any or all stated communications during either or all of the months of June, July and August and those falling on legal holidays except, however, in the event the stated communication, as named in the by-laws of a lodge at which the officers should be elected as required by Regulation 62-01, shall fall on a legal holiday then the lodge shall hold that stated communication on the day following such legal holiday, except Sunday. This proposed amendment was withdrawn and required no action by Grand Lodge.

Amend Regulation 49-03 (10) as follows: REG. 49-03 (10). OBSOLETE.

Amend Regulation 97-02 (25) as follows: REG. 97-02 (25). OBSOLETE.

Amend Regulation 97-02 (47) as follows: REG. 97-02 (47). OBSOLETE.

Amend Reg. 97-02 (48) to read as follows:

48. To manufacture or sell a Masonic emblem (square and compasses) for use on a commercial vehicle or on business premises; or to use the same thereon. [97-02 (45)].

The Committee recommends rejection of these proposed amendments.

We have consulted with the Board of Directors of The North Carolina Masonic Foundation, Inc. and are happy to report that during 1987, they have transferred to Oxford Orphanage the sum of $145,000.00 and to the Masonic and Eastern Star Home the sum of $145,000.00 from the earnings of the Foundation. We recommend that the first $240,000.00 of the earnings of the Foundation, during 1988, be divided between the Orphanage and the Home on a 50-50 basis. We also recommend that the necessary operation and promotion expenses (audit, brochures, travel expenses, etc.) of the Foundation be paid from the earnings of the Foundation. All earnings above the $240,000.00 and the necessary expenses be distributed to the Orphanage and the Home on the basis of the financial needs of the two institutions, as recommended by the Board of General Purposes.

We recommend the Charity Fund pay to the Masonic and Eastern Star Home and to Oxford Orphanage the sum of $8,000.00 each.

We recommend that $5,000.00 be transferred to the Building and Office Equipment Account.

We recommend that $10,000.00 be transferred to the Drewry Memorial Grand Secretary's Fund.

We recommend that any miscellaneous sales above the estimated $3,000.00 be paid to the Masonic and Eastern Star Home for the expansion of The Care Center.

We recommend the approval of the distribution of the excess Bicentennial Funds, as authorized by the Grand Master as follows: Building and Office Equipment Account — $10,000.00; Drewry Memorial Grand Secretary Fund — $10,000.00; Masonic and Eastern Star Home Care Center Expansion — $40,000.00 and any funds remaining in this account be donated to the Masonic and Eastern Star Home for its general operating costs.

We recommend that the earned interest from the Special Contingency Fund and Building and Office Equipment Account continue to be paid to the General Fund of the Grand Lodge.

We recommend that the Grand Master have authority, when he deems it advisable for the best interest of the Grand Lodge, to suspend the allotment made to any committee, activity or agency of the Grand Lodge.

We recommend further that when it shall appear for the best interest of the Grand Lodge, the Grand Master be authorized to give written authorization for the budget to be exceeded by any department, agency or office to incur out-of-ordinary expenses not herein provided for, within availability of funds.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON APPEALS

(Docket No. 41)

The following report of the Committee on Appeals was read by W. Bro. Earle R. Purser, Chairman, and upon motion duly seconded, was adopted by sections, then adopted as a whole:

To the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of North Carolina:

1. We have reviewed the record on all cases which have been completed since the Annual Communication in 1987, and now pending before the Committee wherein the accused has been expelled under the provisions of Regulation 99-22 of THE CODE of 1948, as amended, and in none of which the accused appealed from the decision of the Judge Advocate. We particularly directed our attention to the strict compliance of the Regulation, and in each of the cases recommend that the decision of the Judge Advocate be affirmed by the Grand Lodge.

EXPELLED 22 May 1987

2. We have carefully reviewed all cases which have been completed since the Annual Communication in 1987, and now pending before the Committee, in which the penalty imposed was expulsion, and in which none of the accused appealed from the decision of the Trial Commission. We directed our attention to the validity of the appointment of the Commissioners, and the service upon the accused. We examined the competency and weight of the evidence before the Trial Commission, and the decision of the Trial Commission, all in accordance with the regulations of the Grand Lodge as contained in Chapters 98-106, inclusive, of THE CODE of 1948, as amended to date. The Committee approves the decision of the Trial Commission in the following cases, and recommend that the judgment of the Trial Commission in each case be affirmed by the Grand Lodge.

TRIAL DOCKET NO. 497: In the matter of charges preferred against W.H.M., a Master Mason, a member of Snow Lodge No. 363, A. F. & A. M.

EXPELLED BY Trial Commission 17 March 1987

EXPELLED by Trial Commission 6 August 1987

TRIAL DOCKET NO. 515: In the matter of charges preferred against H.G.M., JR., a Master Mason, a member of Revolution Lodge No. 552, A. F. & A. M.

EXPELLED by Trial Commission 29 February 1988

TRIAL DOCKET NO. 512: In the matter of charges preferred against T.E.G., a Master Mason, a member of Pythagoras Lodge No. 249, A. F. & A. M.

EXPELLED by Trial Commission 19 February 1988

TRIAL DOCKET NO. 509: In the matter of charges preferred against H.S.J., JR., a Master Mason, a member of Skewarkee Lodge No. 90, A. F. & A. M.

The Trial Commission did on 29 January 1988 find the Brother not guilty of the charges preferred against him. The complainant appealed. The Committee on Appeals finds that there was no basis for an appeal and upholds the decision of the Trial Commission in full.

3. We have also carefully reviewed the following cases decided by the Trial Commission in which the penalty was not expulsion. We find that all the rules, notices and procedures were complied with, and that there was ample evidence on which to base the decision and penalty of the Trial Commission.

DOCKET NO. 513: In the matter of charges preferred against T.B.L., a Master Mason, a member of Memorial Lodge No. 696, A. F. & A. M.

SUSPENDED by Trial Commission for one year on 19 February 1988

TRIAL DOCKET NO. 516: In the matter of charges preferred against O.J.S., a Master Mason, a member of Memorial Lodge No. 696, A. F. & A. M.

SUSPENDED BY Trial Commission for one year on 19 February 1988

4. In the matter of a Petition for Restoration filed by C.C.D. late a member of Manteo Lodge No. 521. Petitioner was dismembered on 18 July 1983. After his conviction of a felony traffic violation, he was pardoned by a former governor of this State. Numerous letters have been filed in his behalf. Over 4½ years have transpired since his expulsion. The Committee feels and therefore does so recommend that the Petitioner be restored to the rights and privileges of Masonry.

5. In the matter of a Petition for Restoration filed by V.T.R., late a member of Eastgate Lodge No. 692. Petitioner was dismembered on 27 February 1987. In view that his local lodge so recommends, in view of various letters on his behalf, and in view of the length of time which has elapsed since his expulsion, the Committee is of the opinion and therefore does so recommend that he be restored to the rights and privileges of Masonry.

6. In the matter of a Petition for Restoration filed by J.M.J., late a member of Thomas M. Holt Lodge No. 492, A. F. & A. M. He was dismembered on 30

January 1986. The Commission reviewed the severity of the crimes for which he plead guilty and in view of the fact that only slightly over two years have expired since his expulsion, the Committee does recommend that his petition be denied.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON CHARTERS AND DISPENSATIONS

(Docket No. 42)

The following report of the Committee on Charters and Dispensations was read by W. Brother William L. Mills, III, Chairman, and adopted:

To the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of North Carolina:

The Committee on Charters and Dispensations met on April 18, 1988, and considered the Petition of Wilson Lodge No. 226 to change its name to read Olin Lodge No. 226, A. F. & A. M., and we recommend that their request be granted.

The Committee on Charters and Dispensations also considered the Petition of Orient Lodge No. 395 for a Duplicate Charter to replace their Charter which was taken from the storage room in the Temple, and also recommend approval of their request.

Respectfully submitted,

(Note: For a list of District Deputy Grand Masters, see Page 17 of these Proceedings.)

GRAND MASTER EDDIE PHILLIPS STILES

Most Worshipful Brother Eddie P. Stiles maintains an easy flowing, unruffled style, but underneath this quietness is an intense and dedicated Freemason. He was raised to the sublime degree of Master Mason on July 17, 1953, in Catawba Lodge No. 248, Newton, North Carolina. So intense was his interest in Masonry that he immediately involved himself in learning the work and lectures and he was certified as a Certified Lecturer in November of that same year.

His quest for "further light in Masonry" was temporarily interrupted during the time he pursued his medical studies, his chosen profession, but once these were completed and he had settled with his wife, Loretta, in the town of Apex and established his medical practice, he again involved himself in Masonry with the same intenseness he had previously demonstrated — an intenseness that continues to this day.

After moving to Apex in 1965, Brother Eddie affiliated with Apex Lodge No. 584 in March, 1966. He was elected Senior Warden in 1967 and during that year renewed his certification which had lapsed because of his medical studies. He has kept his certification renewed since that time. In 1968 he was elected Master of Apex Lodge and served again as Master in 1970. He has also served as Secretary for several years.

He has always readily accepted responsibility and continuously served Freemasonry, both in the Blue Lodge and the several appendant orders. His lodge service includes three terms as District Deputy Grand Lecturer, three terms as District Deputy Grand Master, and service on several Grand Lodge boards and committees.

He became a member of Carolina Consistory in 1953 and affiliated with Raleigh Consistory in 1966 and participates in or confers several of the Scottish Rite degrees and is co-degree Master of the 14th Degree. Eddie served as Chairman of the S.G.I.G.'s or Deputy Advisory Conference for approximately ten years and has been a member of the North Carolina Scottish Rite Masonic Foundation, Inc. since 1977. He was invested with the rank and decoration of Knight Commander of the Court of Honour in 1969 and coronated 33° Inspector General, Honorary in 1975 by the Supreme Council of Scottish Rite, Southern Jurisdiction of the United States.

He crossed the hot sands and became a member of Oasis Temple in 1954 and affiliated with Sudan Temple in 1966. In 1975 he became a Charter Member of Amran Temple. He has served as Ambassador for Sudan Temple and as a member of the medical staff for both Sudan and Amran Shrine Temples.

He received the degrees and orders in the Raleigh York Rite Bodies in 1967 and has been a certified Cryptic Lecturer of the Grand Council of Royal and Select Masters in North Carolina since 1971. He regularly participates in or confers several of the York Rite degrees and orders and served as Illustrious Grand Master of the Grand Council in 1976-77.

He is presently serving as Senior Grand Warden of the Grand Council of A.M.D. of the U.S.A., Chief Adept of the North Carolina College of Societas Rosicruciana in Civitatibus Foederatis, and Governor of North Carolina York Rite College No. 69. He has also served as Great Chief of the Grand Council of Knight Masons of the U.S.A.

His dedicated service in the arena of Freemasonry and the appendant organizations have brought him many honors including, in addition to the Scottish Rite honors already mentioned, the Joseph Montfort Medal for meritorious service (1985), the General Grand Chapter of Royal Arch Masons International Bronze Award, the Simmons Jones Baker Medal from the Grand Council of Royal and Select Masters in North Carolina (1978), and Cryptic Mason-of-the-Year Award from General Grand Council (1983), the General Grand Council Youth Award (1984), and the Order of the Purple Cross, Sovereign York Rite College of North America (1979). He received the York Rite Medal for Meritorious Service from the Raleigh York Rite Bodies in 1974, has been elected to membership in Lily of the Valley Priory No. 1, Knights of York Cross of Honor, and St. John of Patmos Conclave, Order of the Red Cross of Constantine.

In the area of youth work the International Supreme Council, Order of DeMolay has awarded him the Zerubbabel Key, the Advisor's Honor Key, the Advisor-of-the-Year Award, the Cross of Honor, the Honorary Legion of Honor, and honorary membership in the International Supreme Council.

With such a history of service and demonstrated leadership skills, it was only natural that Most Worshipful Grand Master E. Stansil Aldridge selected and appointed him Grand Steward in 1980. As expected, he proceeded through the Grand Lodge Line continuing to serve in many important areas including, among others, Chairman of the Planning Committee for the Celebration of the Bicentennial of the Grand Lodge in 1987-88.

On April 22, 1987, at the 200th Annual Communication of the Grand Lodge of North Carolina, Most Worshipful Eddie Phillips Stiles was elected and installed as Grand Master, an honor he so justly and richly deserved. In his acceptance remarks Brother Stiles challenged all of us to be "proud to be a Mason" and stressed that we must have "pride in the fraternity." He pointed out that as we celebrated the 200th anniversary of the Grand Lodge during the forthcoming year, it was fitting to take time to make an inventory of ourselves and our Lodges. He said, "It is a time to take pride in our Masonic membership."

During this "year of celebration," our Grand Master has carried his message of "pride in Masonic membership" to every district in the state, to the many appendant Masonic organizations within the state, and to the several national and international Masonic meetings he has attended. He has encouraged renewed and closer relationship between the Masonic Lodges and the Chapters of Order of the Eastern Star.

On the occasion during the year when the appointment of one of our members to a high judicial office was challenged and objected to on the grounds that the individual should not receive the appointment because of his Masonic membership, Grand Master Stiles immediately took up his defense and competently persuaded those involved that Masonic membership should not be a disqualification. The appointment of our brother was subsequently confirmed without a single dissenting vote.

Through his leadership during our "year of celebration" our members have learned much about their Masonic heritage and their pride in this membership has been rekindled. In October we traveled, as Masons, to the town of Tarboro where in full regalia and appropriate public ceremony we dedicated the Masonic Historic Marker in the town common. This Marker had been erected and unveiled on March 27, 1976, to commemorate the founding of the Grand Lodge of North Carolina in that town on December 9, 1787.

On December 5, 1987, at an Emergent Communication in Raleigh, North Carolina, the Grand Lodge held its long awaited Bicentennial Celebration. This gala occasion was attended by more than 2,000 members of the Craft and numerous distinguished guests from within and without the state. An outstanding Bicentennial program, banquet and entertainment were enjoyed by all in attendance and pride in Masonry was prevalent everywhere.

Most Worshipful Brother Stiles has challenged us to "set the example," and has amply demonstrated his pride in his Masonic membership. He has demonstrated his belief in unity by planning and carrying out several meetings which involve members from the several Masonic organizations working together. These joint participation meetings have been widely publicized.

Our Grand Master has brought us through a glorious and exciting year. It has, in fact, been a "year of celebration." He has rekindled in all of us that very special pride in our Masonic membership that sets our fraternity apart from other organizations. We are proud of his accomplishments and under his leadership know that he has renewed in each of us a pride in our Masonic membership that will continue indefinitely in the future.

Most Worshipful Sir, we thank you for providing us this inspiration. Your year will be long remembered and will be one of the outstanding years in our annals.

Respectfully submitted,

I accept the privilege of serving as Grand Master, with a deep sense of humility and with gratitude to the Masons of North Carolina for their confidence in electing me to this high and important office. While the office of Grand Master carries with it many honors, I am mindful that it also includes solemn responsibilities for preserving the prosperity and well-being of Freemasonry in this Grand Jurisdiction; and I fully realize that it is to the 70,000 Masons of North Carolina that I am accountable for the stewardship of this office. With the commitment and assistance of these brethren and with God's help, I will work diligently to insure that Masonry will continue to flourish and spread its beneficent influence in our land. I commend Most Worshipful Past Grand Master Eddie P. Stiles for his dedicated leadership of Freemasonry in North Carolina over the past twelve months.

It is gratifying and heartwarming to see this gathering of friends and brothers, many of whom have traveled long distances to attend this Ceremony of Installation. You truly honor me by your presence. At this time, I would like to introduce some members of my family who are present.

I am grateful to Past Grand Master Frank Noble for serving as Installing Officer; to Past Grand Master Jimmy Brewer for serving as Installing Marshal; to my brother Past Master David Thomas for serving as Assistant Installing Marshal; and to Brother Clyde McCarver for serving as Installing Chaplain. I extend thanks to Brother Windell Cunningham, organist and to Brother Joseph Ray, soloist for their parts on the program. I extend special thanks to those members of the Sudan Temple Provost Guard who served as ushers.

Our late beloved Past Grand Master Nelson Banks appointed me to the Grand Lodge line on April 22, 1981. It was not God's will for Nelson to remain with us, yet, I know that his spirit resides with us, even on this day. I will endeavor to carry out the duties and responsibilities of this office in a manner which I hope would have been pleasing to our late brother, who was one of the greatest Masons this state ever produced.

In his installation remarks, Most Worshipful Brother Banks made this statement, "We have an exciting story to tell and it will be told this year for all Masons to hear, and even to the general public, that all might see and know of our good works. We will let our light so shine before men and women that they might know of our good works and at the same time, glorify our Father which is in Heaven."

Inspired by those challenging words, the theme of our program this year is entitled, "The Positive Image of Freemasonry." We need to tell the story of what Masonry is doing in North Carolina. Oxford Orphanage and the Masonic and Eastern Star Home provide the centerpiece of that story. These are our Masonic charities or rather opportunities to help those less fortunate than ourselves.

The Positive Image of Freemasonry must be reflected in two directions: The image we see of ourselves and the image through which we are seen in the public eye. We must strive to live by Masonic principles as we enjoy the honor of membership in this great and honorable "Brotherhood of Men Under The Fatherhood of God." Let us be proud of Masonry's illustrious and historic past as we expand its influence for good in our day; and let us do so in such manner that the public will know of its great mission to preserve freedom and promote truth and justice for the betterment of mankind.

Today, we stand on the threshold of a new year in the history of our beloved fraternity. As your Grand Master I ask only that you join with me in committing ourselves to the premise that we will faithfully preserve the tenets of Freemasonry and transmit them unimpaired to the generation that will follow us. As we embark on the two hundred and first year, or stated in a different perspective, the first year of the third century in the history of this Grand Lodge we so do with a firm resolve to remain faithful to the precepts of Masonry.

Advancing the Positive Image of Freemasonry means a more active involvement by each of us in our Masonic lodge and in Masonic charities. It means building stronger ties between the Masonic bodies: The Grand Lodge, the Scottish Rite, the York Rite and the Shrine. It means charting a course that will make the general public more aware of "Who we are" and "What we stand for." It means having a wholesome and positive image of ourselves and it means using modern methods of communication and every appropriate means to create a positive image of Freemasonry in the public eye. I am convinced that this is crucial to our future prosperity as a fraternity.

Any appraisal of Freemasonry's future must take into account the exceptional moral fiber and strength of character of its members. The Masons of North Carolina are remarkable for their commitment and dedication to the enduring values that have insured the survival of this great and honorable institution over the centuries. On this day in the history of North Carolina Masonry, we can do no less than dedicate ourselves to the proposition that this great fraternity, conceived in the minds of men and ordained by God, will survive the ages and benefit generations yet unborn.

I close with these words of Daniel Webster which I think give a beautiful description of Freemasonry's grand design in our world:

*If we work upon marble, it will perish,
 If we work upon brass, time will efface it,
 If we raise up temples, they will crumble to dust,
 But if we work upon men's immortal minds,
 If we imbue them with high principles,
 With the just fear of God
 And love of their fellowman,
 We engrave on those tablets something
 Which no time will efface,
 And which will brighten and brighten to all eternity.*

PAST GRAND MASTER'S JEWEL PRESENTED M.:W.:EDDIE PHILLIPS STILES

A Past Grand Master's Jewel was presented to M.:W.: Brother Eddie Phillips Stiles, P.G.M., by M.:W.: Brother Nathaniel C. Dean, P.G.M. Brother Dean congratulated Brother Stiles on an outstanding year as Grand Master, and thanked him for his splendid contribution to Masonry in North Carolina.

SECOND DAY — AFTERNOON SESSION

Labor was resumed in the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge at 2:00 p.m. on Wednesday, April 20, 1988 in Memorial Auditorium, Raleigh, North Carolina, by W.: Brother Bruce E. Haddock, Master of Doric Lodge No. 568.

The minutes for the previous session were read for information.

GRAND LODGE CLOSED IN DUE FORM

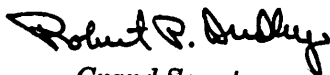

There being no further business to come before the Grand Lodge, the minutes were read and approved and the Grand Lodge was closed in Due Form by W.: Brother Bruce E. Haddock, Master of Doric Lodge No. 568.

Grand Master

ATTEST:

I certify that the foregoing Proceedings are a true and correct record of the official transactions of the Grand Lodge of North Carolina, at the communication held on April 19-20, 1988, and that they were prepared by me from the detailed minutes of that Communication, and were published under my supervision.

The Grand Lodge OF Ancient Free and Accepted Masons
Of North Carolina

In Ample Form assembled, according to the Old Constitution, regularly and solemnly established under the auspices of Prince Edwin at the City of York, in Great Britain, in the year of Masonry 4526, viz:

The Right Worshipful	Eugene Grissom	Deputy Grand Master
The Right Worshipful	Robert W. Best	Senior Grand Warden
The Right Worshipful	David H. Stephenson	Junior Grand Warden

Do by these Parents appoint, authorize, and empower our worthy Brother P. Tomlin to be the Master, our worthy Brother P. C. Jurney to be the Senior Warden, and our worthy Brother C. W. Howell to be the Junior Warden of a lodge of Ancient Free and Accepted Masons, to be by virtue hereof constituted, formed and held in Olin which lodge shall be distinguished by the name or style of Olin Number 226 and the said Master and Wardens and their successors in office are hereby respectively authorized and directed, by and with the consent and assistance of the members of the said lodge present upon such occasions, to elect and install the officers of the said lodge as vacancies happen in manner and form as is or may be prescribed by the Constitution and laws of this Grand Lodge.

And further, the said lodge is hereby invested with full power and authority to assemble upon proper and lawful occasions to make Masons, and to admit members, as also to do and perform all and every such acts and things appertaining to the Craft, as have been and ought to be, done for the honor and advantage thereof, conforming in all their proceedings to the Constitution and laws of this Grand Lodge, otherwise this warrant and the powers thereby granted are to cease and to be of no further effect.

Given under our hands and the seal of our Grand Lodge at the City of Raleigh, North Carolina, in the United States of America this Twenty day of April in the year of our Lord One Thousand Nine Hundred and Eighty-eight and in the year of Masonry Five Thousand Nine Hundred and Eighty-eight.

PRESERVATION

- Reg. 70-01 (2) All the lodge books of records and accounts, old as well as new, shall be carefully preserved under lock and key by the Secretary as safely as possible from the hazards of fire, water, loss, or mutilation.
- (3) Proceedings of the Grand Lodge shall be preserved by lodges in suitable bookcases and under charge of the lodge Secretary who shall be responsible for their proper keeping. They may be loaned to members who shall return them to the lodge at or before the next succeeding stated communication.
- Reg. 95-04 Each subordinate lodge in the jurisdiction shall keep copies of the laws of the Grand Lodge for the inspection of its members. It is the duty of the Master to enforce strictly such laws in the lodge over which he presides. The published Proceedings of the Grand Lodge shall also be kept on file and shall be conclusive evidence of all matters reported therein as the action of the Grand Lodge, and except as otherwise provided, shall be evidence of other matters contained there. (28-01; 28-03; 102-22).
